

Luxury Breakfasts

In New Orleans at Brennan's French Restaurant on Royal Street, long, luxurious Sunday breakfasts are a gourmet's favorite pastime. Ella Brennan Martin, the talented proprietor, serves a special fresh fruit compote first.

Next comes Eggs Hussarde with Hollandaise and Marchand de Vin Sauces. This prized recipe is its own best description.

EGGS HUSSARDE

(1 serving)

2 large thin slices ham, grilled

2 Holland ruskas

1/4 cup Marchand de Vin Sauce (recipe attached)

2 slices tomato, grilled

2 eggs, soft poached

1/4 cup Hollandaise Sauce (recipe attached)

Lay a large slice of ham across each rusk and cover with Marchand de Vin Sauce. Cover next with tomato and then egg. Top with Hollandaise Sauce. Garnish with Paprika.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

(1 cup)

4 yolks of eggs

1/2 pound butter, melted

2 tablespoons lemon juice

1/4 teaspoon salt

In top half of double boiler, beat egg yolks and stir in lemon juice. Cook very slowly in double boiler over low heat, never allowing water in bottom pan to come to a boil. Add butter a little at a time. Stir constantly with a wooden spoon. Add salt and pepper. Continue cooking slowly until thickened.

MARCHAND DE VIN SAUCE

(2 cups)

1/4 cup butter

1-3 cup finely chopped mushrooms

rooms

1/2 cup minced ham

1-3 cup finely chopped shallots

1/2 cup finely chopped onion

2 tablespoons garlic, minced

2 tablespoons flour

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon pepper

Dash of cayenne

1/4 cup beef stock

1/2 cup wine (red)

In a 9-inch skillet melt butter and lightly saute the mushrooms, ham, shallots, onion and garlic. When the onion is golden brown, add the flour, salt, pepper and cayenne. Brown well, about 7 to 10 minutes. Blend in the stock and the wine and simmer over low heat for 35 to 45 minutes.

Eggs should not be stored next to strong odors such as kerosene, gasoline or any kind of oil. Eggs in the home should be kept in the refrigerator.
