Frisvold - Moore Vows Exchanged In Merrill

The marriage of Janet Cholaire Moore and David Norman Frisvold was an event of June 9 in the Merrill Presbyterian Church. Floralabra held pink candles, white gladioli and pink carnations accented with garnet red bows, and in back of the altar were pink candles in bronze candelabra. Ribbons in shades of pink marked the pews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Moore and was given in marriage by her mother and father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with basque bodice and chapel train. The neckline was defined with pearl and sequin embroidery. The elbow length veil of peau de soie, held by a sequin trimmed cabbage rose, was loaned to the bride by Mrs. Robert Diller. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis centered with a garnet rosebud corsage which she carried on a white Billie.

Maid of honor was Sandra Cahan of Merrill. Bridesmaids were Joyce Noonan, Merrill, and Treeca Collins, Phoenix, Ore. All three wore identical frocks of pink nylon organza and matching picture hats. Their slippers were in shades of pink to match the ribbons of their old fashioned nosegays of pink carnations and pink rosebuds.

Out-of-town guests at the meeting were Frances Reese and Nell Hershberger from Nativity Shrine in Grants Pass.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room by Lloyd and Lois Murphy, Olive Hanna and Ora Geinger. The tables were decorated with small cars depicting the occupations of the fathers present.

BRIDGE PARTY — SUMMER LAKE — Mrs. Beatrice Harvey entertained the Paisley Birthday Bridge Club at a luncheon June 11. Ruth Brattain won high; Gladys Clark, second high; Maxine Hope, low, and Gwen Withers received honors.

Mrs. Moore wore for the occasion a dusty rose lace dress with pink hat and beige accessories. Mrs. Frisvold wore a mauve lace dress, pink hat and gloves, beige accessories. Both mothers had garnet rosebud corsages.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Frisvold, also of Merrill.

Best man was Dwayne Cobb, Merrill, and Billy Thompson, Merrill and Gary Stevens, Santa Rosa, were groomsmen. Ushers were Bill Moore, the bride's brother, and George Arnold, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Lloyd Henderson officiated at the ceremony. Mrs.

Local Couple Recite June Nuptial Vows

Karen Lounsbury and Gary Griffith, both of this city, recited their wedding vows in a single ring ceremony June 22 at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Laing Sibbet officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ward and was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Griffith.

For the 7:30 p.m. ceremony the church was decorated with light pink gladioli and contrasting shades of carnations, all lighted by pink tapers.

Mrs. Ross Ragland played the wedding marches at the organ. Kent Callahan was the soloist.

For her wedding the bride chose a beige street length dress of lace with long sleeves and high neckline. A small flower hat was briefly veiled. On a white Bible she carried two cymbidium orchids surrounded with pink roses and pink carnations.

Also dressed in beige, a sheath with sheer overskirt, was the matron of honor, Mrs. Dan Freeman, this city. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and roses. Richard Clark was best man.

The new Mrs. Griffith wore a three piece brown and white knit with white accessories and the bride's bouquet was of pink carnations and roses. Richard Clark was best man.

A shower honoring the bride-elect was given in May at the Merrill Presbyterian Church by Mrs. Walt Fotheringham, Mrs. Clovis Story, Mrs. Bill Beasley, Mrs. Bill Moore and Mrs. Virgil Cobb.

Both young people are graduates of Merrill High School. The bride is a graduate of Klamath Beauty College and is a member of Alpha Omega Theta Rho No. 48, Merrill. Her husband is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute.

They spent their honeymoon in Los Angeles before returning to San Francisco where they are now at home at 232 Chananooga Street.

On their return the newlyweds were Mrs. Dave Pugsly, Dave have established their home at 5140 Cottage Avenue. Mrs. Bill Gordon, Lynn, Mike, Kellie and Out - of - town wedding guests: Tony, Reedsport.
