

Ranell Kern Is Bride Of David Allan Vinson

Ranell Kern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Kern, became the bride of David Allan Vinson on June 15 in an exchange of wedding vows in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Vinson, also of this city.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli on either side of the pulpit formed the background for the ceremony performed by Bishop George Shaffer Jr.

Mrs. George Shaffer was the organist. Marsha Griggs sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Time After Time."

The bride's floor length gown with slight train was of white satin with heavy embroidered lace over the bodice and down the front skirt panel. Pearls and sequins adorned the lace which was repeated on the long sleeves of the square neck bodice. A crown of seed pearls held the bouffant shoulder length veil and she carried a white orchid with stephanotis and white satin streamers.

Attendants for the bride were Mrs. Barry Stewart, sister of the bride, this city, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Arthur Mills, Redding, Phyllis Duncan, San Francisco, and Barbara Vinson, this city, cousin of the bridegroom, bridesmaids. Mary Lynn Kern, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

They were dressed in frocks of white satin similarly styled to the bridal gown, white hats of a large rose and net and white slippers. Each carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations and roses.

Shelley Rebecca Stewart, niece of the bride, wearing a white dress floored with pink rosebuds, served as flower girl. She carried snowballs in a pink basket.

Mrs. Kern wore a deep pink sheath jacket dress with hat and accessories matching. Mrs. Vinson selected a blue ensemble with blue accessories. Both mothers had rose corsages to complement their outfits.

Tim Cook, Palo Alto, was best man. Ushers were George Vinson, brother of the bridegroom, Bob Cowling, Portland, and Ben Kern, brother of the bride.

At the reception immediately following in Cultural Hall, the cake was served by Mrs. Don Veatch and punch by Mrs. Royce Shaffer and Mrs. Wilson Tipton. Judy Purser attended the guest book and Sue Phair and Barbara Olson received gifts.

For her going-away suit the bride wore a white silk shantung with blue blouse and blue accessories. She is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and attended Brigham Young University for one year. The past year she has been employed in San Francisco.

The bridegroom, also a KUHS graduate, received his BS degree from University of Oregon where he is presently working on his master's degree in history. They will make their home at 1874 Columbia Street in Eugene.

Here from out-of-town for the ceremony were Scott Starlin and Clay Starlin, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kendrick, Laura Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sunderland, Salem; Mrs. Jerry Geiger, Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Roberts, Mesa, Ariz., grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Ed Morris, San Jose, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills, Redding.

Lakeview Reunions

LAKEVIEW—The 10-year class reunion of 1953 Lakeview High School grads garnered 76 persons attending the two-day activities on Saturday and Sunday, June 29 and 30. A cocktail hour and dinner were held Saturday evening at Hunter's Lodge Mural Room, and a picnic was held Sunday at the Drews picnic area.

At the dinner meeting Floyd Jones introduced Jerry Scoville, class president, who acted as master of ceremonies for the evening. Letters were read from those who were unable to be present, and those present introduced themselves, their husbands or wives, and told what they had been doing for the past 10 years.

Prizes awarded were to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Scoville, Idaho Falls, Idaho, for the most children; Con O'Keefe, Corvallis, for being the grayest; Eugene Williams, Lakeview, the baldest; Sue Moffitt Peterson, Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento, having the youngest child; Birdie Manning Williams, Westminster, Calif.; Christine Langslet Thomas, Ogden, Utah, and Margaret Smith Halton, Salt Lake City, Utah, for having traveled the farthest, and Rachel Gillenwater, Oregon City, for being the bachelor girl.

A vote was in favor of holding another reunion in five years. A minute of silence was observed for two deceased classmates, Dean Lange and Dorothy Wood. Attending in addition to the above mentioned, were Ken Strong, Idaho Falls; Laird Smith, Beaverton; Betty Cannon Schallhorn, Woodburn; Anne Hammersley Bonney, Grants Pass; Ralph Graves, Redding; George Wingard, Eugene; Joan Scofield Perdue, Pendleton; Buddy Story, Klamath Falls; Ron Tyler, Seattle; Eugene Shepherd, Mount Shasta; Raymond Noel Willis, Corning, Calif.; Kay Waterhouse Bidegary, Klamath Falls; David O'Connor, Oakland; Bob Burnett, San Francisco; Eugene Michaelson, Portland; Theo William, Othello, Wash.

From Lakeview were Eugene Williams, Juanita Jones Williams, Elise Daron Mayes, Dorwin Padgett, Don Callaghan, Calvin Newman, James Elder, Robert Faulkner, Lorene Willis Creek, David Herndon, Floyd Jones, Lois Cossey Moss and Paul Williams.

Guests were Donnie Lee Supple of Lakeview; Gwen Ahlstrom White of LaMirada, Calif., and Eugene Lawson of New Pine Creek.

LAKEVIEW—The 25th year reunion of the 1938 graduating class of Lakeview High School was held at the Indian Village in Lakeview Saturday evening, June 29. Acting jointly as masters of ceremonies were Noel Flynn of Klamath Falls, who was student body president that year, and Cliff Carter of Lakeview, class president.

The class prophecy was read by Gwen DeVore Mercer of Yuba City, Calif. Coming the farthest for the reunion was Eileen Barry McKee of New Brighton, Minn.

Other graduates attending were Dan Flynn, Citrus Heights, Calif.; Ora Hiatt Robinson, Salmon, Idaho; Amy Hartig Hensell, Garberville, Calif.; George Lovenberg, Medford; LeRoy Real, Gold
