

JUST MARRIED — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Del Fatti leave the First Methodist Church in Baker following their recent marriage. She is the former Marilyn Kay Fisher. They will make their home in Baker.

Baker Girl Is Bride Of Gerald Del Fatti

Marilyn Kay Fisher, Baker daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Baker, Haines, became the bride of Gerald Del Fatti on June 23 at the Baker First Methodist Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Del Fatti, Klamath Falls, who were present for the ceremony.

The 2 p.m. wedding service was performed by the Rev. Merle Burris. Altar decorations were white snapdragons.

Mrs. James Barney was the organist and accompanist for Mrs. Vernon Jacobson who sang "O Promise Me" and during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of white silk organza over tulle with long lily-point sleeves. The scalloped square neckline was applied with Chantilly lace which was repeated on an overlay insertion on the full skirt. A Dior rose held the bouffant veil. On a white Bible the bride carried a cascade of yellow rosebuds with white and yellow streamers.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. John McAllister, Burns, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Cecil Fisher, Haines, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. William Howe, Baker.

They were dressed alike in light green crystal poise afternoon frocks with matching slippers. White tiaras held brief veils. White gloves and bouquets of white carnations completed their attire.

Roxanne Del Fatti, Klamath Falls, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She was dressed in white, full-skirted nylon dress, headband and gloves. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Fisher wore a light blue afternoon dress with blue and white accessories. Mrs. Del Fatti also chose blue for her dress, and John McAllister, with matching hat. Her accessories were white. Both mothers had corsages of pink roses.

Daren Martin, Klamath Falls, was best man. Ushers were Don Welp and William Howe, both of Baker.

The wedding reception was held in the Fireside Room of the church. The pretty four-tiered cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Bernal Coles, Haines.

Serving were Mrs. Rodney Wright, Baker, Mrs. Loren Tucker, Portland, and Mrs. Thelma Pritchard, Mrs. H. K. Fisher and Mrs. Wilber Fisher, all of Haines. All are aunts of the bride.

Mrs. Marilyn Hobbs, La Grande, attended the guest book. At the gift table were Mrs. Silven Calhoun, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. John Hammond, both of Baker.

The new Mrs. Del Fatti's going-away costume was a champagne linen sheath with matching hat and gloves and black patent accessories. At her shoulder was the yellow rose corsage from the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Del Fatti is a graduate of Powder Valley High School and attended Eastern Oregon College. She is presently employed by the Cecil Fisher, Haines, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. William Howe, Baker.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and Oregon State University. He is a member of the Oregon State Police.

The newlyweds visited Idaho points of interest on their honeymoon and are now at home in Baker at 2035 D Street.

Out-of-town wedding guests not already mentioned included Mathew Del Fatti, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Daren Martin, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. G. Bernardi, Mount View, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Averett and family, Portland, and John McAllister, Burns.

FUTURE BRIDE — Announced this week in Tempe, Ariz., by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. (Mike) Mills is the engagement of their daughter, Sherry Ann, to Gary Phair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Phair, this city. The wedding will be an event of Sept. 6 in the Mesa Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The couple will be honored Sept. 14 at a reception in the Klamath Falls LDS Church. The bride-to-be has attended Brigham Young University three years as a music education major. She was a member of the a cappella choir, Tokalon Social Unit and Chi Triellas Culture Unit. Her fiancé attended BYU two years before his two and a half-year church mission in Uruguay. He will finish his college studies next year. — Photo by Mish Studio, Mesa

CELEBRANTS — Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Musselman pose for their picture on their 25th wedding anniversary. Topping the cake are the bride figures used at their wedding in 1938. The couple were honored at an open house June 29 at their home.

BRIDAL PAIR — The former Sheryl Waldrep, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waldrep, and Ralph C. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Williams, all of this city, were married in a double ring ceremony July 13 at St. Pius X Catholic Church. Father David J. Hazen officiated. The bride was attended by Beverly Moffitt, honor attendant, and Linda Vigen. Merle Sine was best man and Jim Skelton and Ron Reinmiller were ushers. Following a San Francisco honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in this city. Mrs. Williams is an employee of the Oregon Water Corporation. The bridegroom attends Southern Oregon College. — Photo by Bob Anderson

Party Honors Local Couple

The 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Musselman was the incentive for an open house Saturday, June 29, at their home on Homedale Road.

Planning the festive affair were the couple's children, Necia, sophomore at Southern Oregon College, Jerry Jr., a '63 graduate of Oregon State College, and Robin, sixth grader at Ferguson School.

Hosts with the three Musselman children were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gaster, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, Mr. and Mrs. Al Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breithaupt and Mr. and Mrs. Chet Musselman, a brother.

The home was decorated with miniature rose arbors and silver bells. Along the fireplace wall was the wedding picture of the Musselmans, flanked by individual photographs taken 25 years ago.

An attractive money tree decorated with flowers of currency and silver was a gift to the couple. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with the bride figures which had been used on the original wedding confection.

Serving were Mrs. Lena Orewiler, mother of Mr. Musselman, Mrs. Doane Cox, Eugene, and Mrs. Bob Schulte, Albany, nieces of Mrs. Musselman's and Mrs. Jack Swanson, Bend, her sister. Also assisting were Mrs. Al Ma-

Breithaupt and Mrs. Ed Endicott, Prineville.

Necia Musselman held the guest book. Moving pictures of the 1938 wedding were shown during the evening. Pictures were taken of the Musselmans and their wedding attendants, Mrs. Jack (Gertrude) Paddock and Chet Musselman, who were open house guests.

Jerry and Ruth Musselman were married at the H. E. Jones residence on Lincoln Street on June 26, 1938. They have lived in the city since that time where he has been employed the last 22 years by the Great Northern Railroad Company.

Out-of-town guests included husbands of several women already mentioned and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Patti, Portland.
