

Couple Wed In California

Bonnie Louise Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Green Jr., North Highlands, Calif., former residents of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Robert N. Zine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Zine, Elverta, Calif., in a recent ceremony at St. Lawrence Catholic Church, North Highlands. Father Gabrielli performed the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a gown with Chantilly lace bodice. The same lace edged the mantilla veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with pink streamers.

Maid of honor, Dawn Clark, Klamath Falls, wore a pink taffeta frock, coronet type hat, pink gloves and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Rebecca Green, sister of the bride, Judy Zine, the bridegroom's sister, and Patricia Steving, Roseville. Their frocks were of a lighter shade of pink, matched by their slippers and brief veils. Their flowers were the same as carried by the honor attendant.

James Mason, Rio Linda, Calif., was best man. Ushers were Eric Treking, Elverta, Ron Zein, Roseville, and Doug Hunter, North Sacramento.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Civilian Center at McClellan Air Force Base. Attending the nuptials from Klamath Falls was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Cecil Green Sr.

ORIGIN OF YOSEMITE
The name "Yosemite" derives from the word "Yosemity" which meant "the grizzlies" or "the killers" and was applied to valley Indians of California because of their lawlessness.

SLUMBER LORE

Drip-dry cotton nightgowns are cooler than nylon. Why not put your nylon gowns away until fall and sleep comfortably? Cotton gowns trimmed with ribbon and lace are pretty, as well as practical, for hot nights.
