

Red-Hot Nats Score 5-4 Win Over Minnesota

By United Press International

Quick now, what's the hottest team in the American League? No, it isn't the New York Yankees resplendent with their 51st game lead but the Washington Senators who are in 10th place, a mere 23 games behind the world champions.

The Senators scored their third victory in four games Friday on the strength of the hitting and fielding heroics of centerfielder

Don Lock. Lock drove in the winning run with a two-out single in the top of the 13th inning and then robbed Bob Allison of a homer with a leaping catch in the bottom of the frame.

Osteen Wins Fourth
A total of 40 players saw action in the four-hour and 23-minute game with Claude Osteen, the fifth Washington pitcher, winning his fourth game and Jim Perry, the seventh Minnesota pitcher, losing his sixth. Harmon Killebrew hit his 200th homer of his career for the Twins.

Lock's game-winning single scored Ken Retzer, who reached second base on shortstop Zoilo Versalles' throwing error and advanced to third on an infield out. Lock had two other hits, including a homer, in addition to the decisive single to lead the Senators' 12-hit attack.

The Detroit Tigers rallied to beat the Los Angeles Angels 10-5 and the Kansas City Athletics nipped the Baltimore Orioles 2-1, in other American League games. Cleveland at New York and Boston at Chicago were rained out.

Whitely Herzog's two-run pinch double gave the Tigers a 6-5 lead in the eighth inning and they clinched the triumph with four more runs in the ninth.

Rocky Colavito had a homer and two singles to lead the Tigers' 14-hit attack while Jim Fregosi and Billy Moran had two hits each for the Angels.

Orlando Pena pitched five-hit ball for 8 1/3 innings to win his sixth game for the Athletics, who scored the decisive run on Ken Harrelson's fifth-inning sacrifice fly. Dave McNally, tagged for both Kansas City runs, suffered his fourth loss.

Sievers' Homer Hands Phils Win Over Mets

By United Press International

It was the 300th homer of Roy Sievers' career but the man who will never forget it is pitcher Roger Craig.

For Sievers it meant joining 21 other sluggers in the 300-homer class but for Craig it was another heart-breaking jolt in the hard-luck pitcher's incredible series of bad breaks.

Sievers connected with one on and one out in the last of the ninth inning Friday night to hand the Philadelphia Phillies a 2-1 victory over the New York Mets and give them 10 wins in their last 13 games and 17 in their last 24. It also left Craig in a state of numb shock for about a half hour after the ball sailed into the left field stands.

That one bad pitch extended

Craig's personal losing streak to 14 games and tagged him with his 16th defeat against two victories. He hasn't won a game since April 29 and the Mets haven't even scored a run for him in six of the 14 straight losses.

"I make one mistake and lose the game," he groaned in the clubhouse. "One mistake and the game's gone."

Hits First Pitch
Craig carried a three-hit shut-out into the ninth but Tony Gonzalez tripled with one out and Sievers followed by hitting the first pitch served to him into the stands. The Mets had scored off Cal McLish in the fourth on Joe Christopher's double, an outfield fly and a wild pitch.

The first - place Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Milwaukee

Braves 4-2; the Cincinnati Reds beat the San Francisco Giants 3-2; the Pittsburgh Pirates clubbed the Chicago Cubs 9-4; and the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Houston Colts 7-2 in other National League games.

In the American League, Detroit defeated Los Angeles 10-5; Washington shaded Minnesota 6-5; and Kansas City edged out Baltimore 2-1.

Frank Howard hit two homers as the Dodgers scored their third straight victory and their 11th in 13 games. Don Drysdale was tagged for Hank Aaron's 27th homer but struck out 11 and walked only one in winning his 12th game. Bob Hendley suffered his sixth setback.

Giants Continue Collapse
Tom Harper drove in all Cincinnati's runs with two homers and a single as the collapsing Giants dropped their ninth consecutive game. Willie McCovey extended his hitting streak to 24 games with a single off John Tsiouris, who pitched a four-hitter and faced only 30 batters.

Bob Friend went eight innings to win his 11th game behind a 16-hit Pittsburgh attack that included three safeties by Jim Pagniaroni and two each by Bill Virden, Bill Mazeroski, Donn Clendenon and Manny Mota. Billy Williams had a three-run triple for the Cubs but Dick Ellsworth suffered his seventh loss against 13 wins.

Dick Groat collected a double and two singles to take over the NL batting leadership with a .331 average and Bill White hit a homer and a single to spark the Cardinals' 11-hit attack. Ron Taylor shut out the Colts with four hits over the last 6 2/3 innings to win his fifth game.

Rocky Harris Put On PBC
PORTLAND (UPI) — Arnold (Rocky) Harris, a Portland restaurateur, was appointed to the Portland Boxing Commission by Mayor Terry Schunk Friday. The appointment is until next March 9. Harris replaces his brother, the late Benny Harris.

Roberts, Birds Decision A's

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Robin Roberts pitched his 25th big league victory Saturday night and gave the Baltimore Orioles a 6-3 triumph over the Kansas City Athletics.

The veteran righthander hurled 6 1/3 hitless innings before Jose Tartabull lined a single to right center.

It was Roberts' fifth bid for his seventh victory of the season. His last win was June 25. With the victory, Roberts moved within two wins of tying Urban Faber and Carl Hubbell for 24th place among all-time winners.

A five-run outburst in the fourth inning off Dave Wicksham sacked up the game for the Orioles. Luis Aparicio started the inning with a walk and scored from first when Russ Snyder slugged the ball in front of the plate and Wicksham fielded and threw wide at first.

The ball hit first baseman Norm Siebern's glove just as Snyder reached the base. The players collided and fell to the ground. The ball rolled into short right field and Aparicio scored. Siebern had to leave the game with an injured elbow, but Snyder played two more innings before retiring with a bruised shoulder.

Brown-Baker Cop Bridge Pair

BILLINGS, Mont. (UPI) — Becky Brown, Lake Oswego, Ore., and Dr. D. M. Baker, Portland, Ore., won the masters pairs consolation title in the Western Intermountain Division Bridge Tournament, tabulations showed Friday. They had a score of 2012.

Mary L. Hutchinson, Corvallis, Ore., and John Moran, Los Angeles, were second in the masters pairs championship session qualifiers matches with 199 points. Joe Farley, Salem, Ore., and Bill Roberts, Seattle, were third with 198.

R. D. Hutchinson, Corvallis, and Chuck Henke, San Francisco, finished fourth in the masters pair championships.

Phillies Beat NY Mets, 5-1

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia Phillies won their fifth A in a row when they pounced on lefty Al Jackson for five early runs and then went on to defeat the New York Mets 5-1 Saturday.

Dallas Green, winning his second complete game in a row, handed the Mets their 14th consecutive road defeat. Jackson lost his fourth straight after last beating the Phils on June 21.

Duke Snider saved the Mets from total eclipse when he hit his 13th homer in the sixth. He also tripled with one out in the eighth but was stranded.

Belinsky Says He Will Play

HONOLULU (UPI) — Pitcher Bo Belinsky, late of the Los Angeles Angels, arrived in Hawaii Saturday carrying a pool cue and with a full schedule of night club dates—but vowed he was here to play baseball.

Belinsky, shipped down two months ago by the Angels after a dismal 1-7 record, reported Saturday to the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League.

"I really am not here to fool around," said the handsome hurler, who leaped to fame with a no-hitter last year, but has made headlines since only on his night club life. "I hope to work myself back into shape within the next 10 days and if I can pitch earlier, fine. The main thing now is don't take it slow and easy and don't hurt myself. Remember, I have not pitched in two months."

Belinsky refused to report to Hawaii after his failure with the Angels. Since that time he has been engaged and disengaged to Mamie Van Doren of the movies.

Bo was met at the plane by the usual bevy of girls who placed floral leis around his neck and then kissed him. Finally taking his eyes off the girls, he reiterated: "It's all baseball from here out."

When reporters asked him if the package he carried under his arm was his pool cue, he replied: "Yeah. That's what it is. I hear there are some good players on this island."

He later gagged it up and said what he really was carrying was a flute.

His first night in Hawaii was spent at a cocktail party given by Honolulu sportsman Francis H. I. Brown. Later in the evening he planned to attend a night club opening by his friend, singer Billy Daniels.

"Don't remember," he added, "I don't want to fight the night club circuit the first night after arriving here."
