

State Department Officials To Speak At Eugene

Two high officials of the U.S. State Department will be featured speakers during a Pacific Northwest Assembly Aug. 1 to 4 at the University of Oregon.

They are Mrs. Catherine Dorris Norrell, deputy assistant Secretary of State for Educational and Cultural Affairs, and John C. Guthrie, director of the Office of Soviet Union Affairs of the U.S. State Department.

The assembly at the University of Oregon, which will be attended by opinion leaders from five western states, will probe the problems of "Cultural Affairs and Foreign Relations." The meeting will be co-sponsored by the University and the American Assembly at Columbia University.

Mrs. Norrell filled the unexpired term of her late husband, Rep. William F. Norrell, in the 87th Congress. She assumed her duties in the office of Assistant Secretary of State Lucius D. Battle last January.

The bureau headed by Battle is responsible for the international exchange of persons and other activities in the educational and cultural fields, as well as the coordination of such activities on the part of more than 20 other government agencies operating in this area.

Her home is in Monticello, Ark., where she once served as a director of the Music Department of Arkansas A & M College. She is a member of the Women's National Democratic Club, a co-founder of the Democratic Women's Forum and past president of the Congressional Club.

After receiving his master's degree from Columbia University, Guthrie accepted a position as language instructor at Lingnan University in Hong Kong. During the summer of 1941 he traveled extensively in northern China.

Upon the outbreak of war in the Pacific, he joined the Hong Kong Volunteer Defense Corps. After the fall of Hong Kong he was interned by the Japanese for the duration of the war. During this period he took advantage of the fact that there were many Russians in the Volunteer Defense Corps to acquire an excellent knowledge of the Russian language.

After the war he joined the U.S. Department of State.
