

Nellie Fox Nears Another Record As Chicago Wins

American League Roundup
By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Nellie Fox, who already owns eight major league records, will soon achieve another statistical goal that will place him among the greatest second basemen in baseball history.

The combative little Chicago White Sox second baseman — who just might be the only fellow in the American League who hasn't conceded to the New York Yankees — needs only three more hits to reach 2,500 for his career. That's a total reached by only five second basemen — all hall of famers — Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie, Frankie Frisch, Charlie Gehringer and Rogers Hornsby.

Fox knocked in three runs with two singles and scored the White Sox' fourth run of the game Thursday in a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers. The win enabled the second-place White Sox to move within eight games of the Yankees, whose six-game winning streak was ended by a 5-0 loss to the Los Angeles Angels.

Indians Over Twins
The Cleveland Indians edged the Minnesota Twins, 3-2, in the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Boston Red Sox, 2-0, and the Baltimore Orioles downed the Washington Senators, 4-2, in other American League games.

In the National League, Pittsburgh defeated Los Angeles, 6-2; San Francisco beat New York, 8-1; St. Louis topped Milwaukee, 3-1; Cincinnati downed Chicago, 3-2, and Houston beat Philadelphia, 3-0.

Fox, 35, singled home Mike Hershelberger in the third inning and rode home on Dave Nicholson's triple. He also singled home two more runs in the seventh inning to boost the White Sox into a 4-0 lead and provide the necessary cushion for two relief pitchers to preserve Joe Horlen's fifth victory.

Major league records held by Fox include most consecutive games without striking out, in most years leading the majors in fewest strikeouts, most consecutive years leading in singles, most consecutive games played at second base, most years leading second basemen in chances, most seasons with 600 at bats and most years leading second basemen in putouts.

Twirls Three-Hitter
Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter to win his 12th game for the Angels, who tagged fireballer Al Downing with his second loss. Downing paved the way for his own defeat with two walks in the first inning followed by a double by Felix Torres and a two-run single by Ken Hunt.

Willie Kirkland's three-run eighth-inning homer brought the Indians from behind and provided relief pitcher Gary Bell with his fifth win. The Twins' runs came as a result of a homer by Johnny Goryl in the third inning and an error, a sacrifice, a walk and a single by Jimmie Hall in the seventh.

The Athletics completed a sweep of a four-game series with the Red Sox as Ed Rakow, Bill Fischer and John Wyatt collaborated in a six-hitter. Fischer, who pitched the middle six innings, won his ninth game while 15-game winner Bill Monbouquette suffered his seventh loss for the Red Sox.

Robin Roberts received credit for his eighth win of the season and the 232nd of his career by spacing eight hits over eight innings before turning over the late-inning close-out relief to Stu Miller. Johnny Orsino's two-run single and Johnny Powell's homer were the big blows for the Orioles.

Mantle Faces Up To New Injury

NEW YORK (UPI)—A depressed Mickey Mantle faced up to the grim possibility today that the season may be all over for him.

Set back even further by a new knee injury, which is literally one on top of another, the downhearted Yankee centerfielder said he had "no idea" when he might be able to play again.

Mantle suffered his latest injury, a loosening of a cartilage on the outside of his left knee, while trying to work himself back in shape from an "old" injury sustained on June 5.

Mickey was running in the outfield prior to a game with the Los Angeles Angels last Tuesday when his left knee suddenly gave way.

He was immediately examined in the clubhouse by Yankee team physician Dr. Sidney Gaynor, who relayed his findings to manager Ralph Houk.

"Dr. Gaynor came to me on Tuesday and said, 'I've got some bad news for you,'" Houk related.

"I said, 'Oh, no what now?' Then he told me what had happened to Mantle and I could hardly believe it.

Injury A Factor
"Mickey doesn't know when he'll be back; the doctor doesn't know and I don't know. Who knows, maybe he'll be able to pinch hit in three days? Then again, maybe he won't be able to play for the rest of the season. There's no use trying to minimize this."

Plagued by a long succession of injuries almost from the day he broke in with the Yankees in 1951, Mantle recently came off the disabled list after breaking a bone in his left foot when he ran into a wire fence at Baltimore on June 3.

He returned to his home in Dallas two days later and noticed a black and blue mark on his left knee but paid little attention to it. He said the knee

Mays Leading SF Giants' New Surge Toward Top

By United Press International
Willie Mays is on the move but even a 419 batting surge may be too little too late for the San Francisco Giants.

The $100,000 centerfielder who had been bogged down close to the 250 mark this season has made 17 hits in his last 31 at bats to boost his average to .231. The Giants have moved with him — six victories in their last 10 games — but that isn't going to be enough to overtake the Los Angeles Dodgers unless they do an el folko to end 'em all.

The Giants ran their current winning streak to four games Thursday when they whipped the New York Mets, 4-6, as Mays drove in four runs with a homer, double and single. Willie McCovey also weighed in with three hits and knocked in two runs in San Francisco's 12-hit attack.

The loss was the 19th in a row on the road for the Mets — equalling a 47-year old major league record for futility away from home.

The Mets made 12 hits, including a run-producing single and a two-run homer by Duke Snider, but left 10 runners on base against the combined pitching of Billy Pierce, Bob Bolin and Billy Hoelt. Bolin, who yielded one run and six hits in 3 1-3 innings, scored his sixth victory against three losses.

The victory enabled the third-place Giants to move within 1 1/2 games of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who lost to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, ending Sandy Koufax' nine-game winning streak.

The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 3-1, the Cincinnati Reds nipped the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Houston Colts shut out the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-0.

Roberto Clemente's three-run homer and Tom Sisk's strong five-inning relief pitching enabled the Pirates to end Koufax' streak which dated back to June 1. Koufax struck out 12 batters but never was even after Clemente's homer with Bill Virdon and Manny Mota aboard in the third inning. It was Clemente's 10th homer of the season and Sisk's first big league win.

Tops Former Roommate
Lew Burdette topped Warren Spahn in a pitching duel between former roommates when the Cardinals scored two fourth-inning runs on Bill White's double, singles by Stan Musial and Tim Mc-

Carver and errors by Denis Menke and Gene Oliver. It was Burdette's eighth win of the season.

Spahn, pitching for the first time since July 7 when he was sidelined with a sore elbow, yielded eight hits and no walks in eight innings. It was his fifth setback against 12 victories this season.

Johnny Edwards' ninth-inning sacrifice fly drove in the winning run for the Reds, who beat Bob Buhl for the 10th time in 12 lifetime decisions. Until Edwards delivered, Buhl had shut out the Reds since the first inning when a walk, Vada Pinson's single, an infield out and Frank Robinson's single produced two runs. Billy Williams had three hits for the Cubs.

Hal Brown pitched a four-hitter, struck out five and didn't walk a batter to win his fourth game for the Colts and hand 10-game winner Ray Culp his eighth loss. The Colts scored all their runs in the third inning on Brown's leadoff single, a double by Al Spangler, singles by Pete Runnels and Carl Warwick and Jim Wynn's sacrifice fly.

Belinsky Hopes To Pitch Soon

HONOLULU (UPI)—Pitcher Bo Belinsky hopes to pitch this weekend when the Hawaii Islanders invade Tacoma for a four-game series.

Belinsky, equally famous for his playboy and baseball achievements, was sent to the Islanders by the Los Angeles Angels after compiling a 1-7 record.

He is still on the disqualified list and has only worked out as batting practice hurler. He said his arm feels good, but his ankle bothers him a little.

Asked if he planned to give actress Mamie Van Doren another engagement ring, he replied, "are you kidding? I've done that scene before, man."

But he confirmed that the blonde actress was his companion last Thursday, the day before he reported to the Islanders.

"We're just good friends now," he said.
