Klamath Falls Couple Exchange Nuptial Vows

Kathleen Wood and Richard Rochon, both of this city, were married June 5 in a nuptial mass at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Magr. T. P. Casey officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Wood. Her father gave her in marriage in the 11 a.m. double ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rochon are parents of the bridegroom. Church decorations were all white, stock, gladioli and carnations, arranged in baskets. White pew bows outlined the center aisle.

Patricia Korse was the organist. Rosalie Bartell was soloist.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white bowknot Chantilly lace over taffeta with pearl trim outlining the neckline. A fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a tiara of pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and streamers of ribbon and stephanotis.

Karen Stenberger, Seattle, was maid of honor. Her short bouffant frock was of coral brocade taffeta which was matched by her slippers and circlet veiled hat. Dressed identically to the honor attendant were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Wayne Watkins, Van Nuys, and Andrea Wood, both sisters of the bride, and Mary Ann Knight. All wore white gloves and pearl necklaces which were gifts of the bride.

Carla Watkins, niece of the bride, flower girl, wore a white nylon dress and veiled hat. She carried a miniature version of the bride's bouquet, which were cascades of white and coral carnations.

Danny Charlton, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. Robert Pomeroy, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Frank Patsch, San Diego, Mike Slowey, the bride's cousin, and Vaughn Stone.

Both mothers wore pink rose corsages. Mrs. Wood chose for the day a white sheath with jacket and taupe accessories. Mrs. Rochon wore a pink silk sheath with white accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall.

Mrs. Francis Slowey, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. James Wood, a sister-in-law, served the wedding cake. Coffee was poured by sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Jack Charlton and Mrs. Joe Sanders. Attending the punch bowl were brothers of the bride, Charles and James Wood, and her cousin, Donna Slowey.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in California. For traveling the new Mrs. Rochon wore a coral sheath with matching jacket and beige accessories. At her shoulder was the bride's orchid. Both young people are graduates of Sacred Heart Academy. Mrs. Rochon is a beautician and her husband an employee of the Great Northern Railroad.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Wood and family, San Diego; Charles Wood and family, Lakeview; Mrs. Wayne Watkins and family, Van Nuys; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders and family, Roseville; Marvin Edd, Blue Lake, Calif.; Karen and Pat, Guttenberger, Seattle; Mike Wong, Berkeley; Francis Monti, Portland; Mrs. Grace Cleveland, Carmichael.

Former Merrill Girl Weds In San Jose Rites

Of interest here is the recent marriage of Kathleen Marie Deg-nan, daughter of former well-known Merrill residents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Degnan, now residing in San Jose.

On June 15 at St. Martin's Catholic Church, Kathleen became the bride of Carl Alvin Munding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Munding, Santa Maria.

The 11 a.m. nuptial mass was officiated by the Rev. James E. Healy S.J.

Garden flowers were used to establish the pink and white theme of the bridal setting.

The petite bride wore a gown of white silk organza embroidered with white roses and seed pearls. It was styled with Sabrina neckline, Empire waistline and chapel train.

A small crown of aurora borealis crystals held the veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet was white rosebuds accented with ivy. The traditional something old was the Irish coin given to her when she was very young by Mrs. Jack Lynch of Langell Valley. Maid of honor was the bridegroom's sister, Laura Munding, Santa Maria.

Bridesmaids were Patricia Vestal, Red Bluff, cousin of the bride, Peggy Cumming, Hawaii, and Lynette Rodriguez, Saratoga, dressed alike in frocks of pink silk organza with embroidered bod-

Friends Bid To Reception

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Hunsaker, longtime residents of Klamath Falls, are invited to a reception in their honor on Sunday, Aug. 4 at the First Baptist Church. Hours are from 2:30 to 5 p.m.

The occasion will mark the Hunsakers' 30th wedding anniversary.

Making arrangements for the affair are children of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hunsaker, Fort Klamath; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunsaker, Salem; Dr. Dale Hunsaker, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hunsaker, White Plains, N.Y.

Couple Notes Special Date

BONANZA—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Marchant, former residents of Bonanza, observed their golden wedding anniversary July 7 at their home in Grants Pass. The occasion also served as a family reunion with all six of their children present. One daughter, Mrs. Herman (Hazel) Ensen, came from Perham, Minn., for the open house.

Also coming from out-of-town was another daughter, Mrs. John (Pearl) Tjoelker, Myrtle Creek, and a son, Ray Marchant, Belingham, Wash.

Three daughters live in Grants Pass, Mrs. Rob Roy (Ruby) McLean, Mrs. Charles (Dorothy) Martin and Mrs. Ray (Beatrice) Jones.

The Marchants' daughter-in-law and five sons-in-law were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Marchant have 17 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Guests honoring the goldenweds included Mrs. John Brown and Alex Sapiens, Bonanza, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones, Dairy, and Mrs. Lee Miller and children, Klamath Falls.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

SUMMER LAKE—Pepper Withers received congratulations on his eighth birthday, June 13, from first and second grade classmates at a surprise party at the Louis Withers home. Attending from Paisley were Steven Novy, Lana Carlson, Bobby Blasingame, Sharon Morgan, Regina and Carol Brunner, Jessie Atkins and Trent Williams, who were chauffeured by Mrs. Mary Novy. Mrs. Alice Hancock attended with son, Jeff.

ices. They carried bouquets of pink gladioli and roses.

Best man was Thomas Weldon, Santa Maria. Ushers were George Oliva, San Jose, Thomas O'Keefe and Kenneth Svlich, both of Sacramento.

Following the ceremony guests were invited to a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Munding left after the reception for a honeymoon in Hawaii. They will make their first home in Oakland. Mrs. Munding is a graduate of Notre Dame High School and is a senior at San Jose State College. Her husband is a graduate of Santa Clara University and is presently serving with the Army.

Russell-Terry Nuptials Take Place In Tullake

A nuptial high mass July 6 at Holy Cross Catholic Church in Tullake united in marriage Ona Lee Terry of that community and Dennis Wayne Russell. Father John Dowling officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joan V. Terry of Tullake. The bridegroom, son of Paul Morton Russell, Indio, Calif., is presently stationed at Kingsley Field.

Colors of the rainbow were chosen for the bride for the theme of the morning ceremony. Mixed garden flowers were used for effective decorations in the theme. John Terry gave his daughter in marriage. Her bridal gown was princess style in white lace. Seed pearls and sequins accented the front of the fitted bodice which had a scalloped Sabrina neckline dipping to a V in back. Rosettes added back interest to the bouffant floor length skirt.

The fingertip illusion veil was secured by a contoured crown of scalloped lace and pearl hearts with satin inserts. She carried a white missal topped with a spray of pink rosebuds and stephanotis streamers. Something old was a handkerchief borrowed from Mrs. Betty Gailer; something new, her dress; something blue, the garter; and something borrowed, her veil. A lucky 1944 penny was in her slipper.

In keeping with the rainbow color theme were the bridal attendants' outfits. Shelia Ann Simon, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a light pink taffeta frock. Bridesmaids were Barbara Roberts, Kathy Anderson and Jerrie Hanna.
