

Harlan - Ferrell Vows Recited At St. Paul's

Susan P. Ferrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Linman, and Richard D. Harlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Harlan, West Lafayette, Ind., recited their marriage vows July 4 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

White carnations were on the altar for the 10 a.m. double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Robert L. Greene. Tom Radcliffe was acolyte.

Linda Hanville was the organist. Soloist was Marsha Griggs.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely white gown of silk organza over tulle. The fitted bodice was trimmed with reembodyed lace with bows of organza, accented with a cascade of lace, slightly off-center, from the neckline to the hem of the floor length bell skirt. A petal pillbox held the bouffant fingertip veil. The bridal bouquet was fashioned of white carnations and pink rosebuds with ivy. The traditional blue garter was a gift of Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren. Attached to it was a length of ribbon, memento of the 25th anniversary party of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Overton of North Umpqua, close friends of the bridegroom. Something old was the stone in the engagement ring which was a family heirloom.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

They will make their home at Steamboat Ranger Station, Idlewild Park, Ore., where he is employed as a forester with the forest service. The bride is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute and before her marriage was employed as a medical technologist in Tucson, Ariz. Her husband is a graduate of Purdue University.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Agerter, Eugene; Troy Reynolds, Ashland; Mrs. Norman Moore and Laura, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. James Medley and Mrs. Bess Medley, Medford; Norma Magnus and Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, Glendale.

Guests from Steamboat Ranger Station included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaff, Frank Moore Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Onstott, Mrs. Robert Booker, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Carlson.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained in Tucson by Ann Cashman and again by Jane Herman and Doris Pipher. In Klamath Falls Mrs. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Lewis Hodges were hostesses at a shower in her honor.

Mrs. Norene Alger, sister of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

They will make their home at Steamboat Ranger Station, Idlewild Park, Ore., where he is employed as a forester with the forest service. The bride is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute and before her marriage was employed as a medical technologist in Tucson, Ariz. Her husband is a graduate of Purdue University.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Agerter, Eugene; Troy Reynolds, Ashland; Mrs. Norman Moore and Laura, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. James Medley and Mrs. Bess Medley, Medford; Norma Magnus and Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, Glendale.

Guests from Steamboat Ranger Station included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaff, Frank Moore Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Onstott, Mrs. Robert Booker, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Carlson.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained in Tucson by Ann Cashman and again by Jane Herman and Doris Pipher. In Klamath Falls Mrs. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Lewis Hodges were hostesses at a shower in her honor.

Mrs. Norene Alger, sister of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

Sara Jenene O'Keeffe Bride In July Rites

LAKEVIEW—St. Patrick Catholic Church in Lakeview was the setting for the nuptial mass and wedding ceremony uniting Sara Jenene O'Keeffe of Menlo Park, Calif., and Fred S. Schadler of Denver, Colo., on Saturday, July 13, at 10:30 in the morning.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nora O'Keeffe and the late John J. O'Keeffe of Adel, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lucio Jaurena and the late Edward L. Schadler of Fort Bidwell, Calif.

Bouquets of pink and white stock were on the altars and banked the altar rails for the double ring ceremony performed by Father A. R. Miller. Mick Morales, San Jose, Calif., was the soloist, accompanied on the organ by Mary Lee Scoville.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Henry J. O'Keeffe, Adel, the bride was in traditional white in a floor-length gown of imported tulle in an all-over lily of the valley pattern. The bouffant skirt cascaded in tiers into a chapel train and the fitted bodice was outlined with a scoop neck and long sleeves. A wreath of lilies of the valley held the circular fingertip veil of French silk illusion. She wore a heart-shaped pendant encrusted with pearls and centered with a pearl and diamond, and matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Agerter, Eugene; Troy Reynolds, Ashland; Mrs. Norman Moore and Laura, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. James Medley and Mrs. Bess Medley, Medford; Norma Magnus and Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, Glendale.

Guests from Steamboat Ranger Station included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaff, Frank Moore Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Onstott, Mrs. Robert Booker, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Carlson.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained in Tucson by Ann Cashman and again by Jane Herman and Doris Pipher. In Klamath Falls Mrs. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Lewis Hodges were hostesses at a shower in her honor.

Mrs. Norene Alger, sister of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

They will make their home at Steamboat Ranger Station, Idlewild Park, Ore., where he is employed as a forester with the forest service. The bride is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute and before her marriage was employed as a medical technologist in Tucson, Ariz. Her husband is a graduate of Purdue University.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Agerter, Eugene; Troy Reynolds, Ashland; Mrs. Norman Moore and Laura, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. James Medley and Mrs. Bess Medley, Medford; Norma Magnus and Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, Glendale.

Guests from Steamboat Ranger Station included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaff, Frank Moore Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Onstott, Mrs. Robert Booker, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Carlson.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained in Tucson by Ann Cashman and again by Jane Herman and Doris Pipher. In Klamath Falls Mrs. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Lewis Hodges were hostesses at a shower in her honor.

Mrs. Norene Alger, sister of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

They will make their home at Steamboat Ranger Station, Idlewild Park, Ore., where he is employed as a forester with the forest service. The bride is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute and before her marriage was employed as a medical technologist in Tucson, Ariz. Her husband is a graduate of Purdue University.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Agerter, Eugene; Troy Reynolds, Ashland; Mrs. Norman Moore and Laura, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. James Medley and Mrs. Bess Medley, Medford; Norma Magnus and Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, Glendale.

Guests from Steamboat Ranger Station included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaff, Frank Moore Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Onstott, Mrs. Robert Booker, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Carlson.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained in Tucson by Ann Cashman and again by Jane Herman and Doris Pipher. In Klamath Falls Mrs. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Lewis Hodges were hostesses at a shower in her honor.

Mrs. Norene Alger, sister of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Bouquets of pink and white stock were again used for decorative accents at the parish hall where the reception followed the ceremony. The cake was cut by Dr. Cornelia Robertson. Assisting at the coffee and tea table were Mrs. Tom O'Keeffe, Mrs. Dan O'Keeffe, Mrs. Carter Fetsch, Mrs. Barry Taylor, Mrs. Tom McAuliffe and Mrs. Jack Nicol. At the gift table were Mrs. Sam Start and Mrs. Rod Johnson and assisting with the guest book and the punch bowl were Virginia Start and Patricia McDonald.

The bride's travel costume consisted of a wheat colored suit dress with matching bag and shoes.

The new Mrs. Schadler is a graduate of St. Mary's School of Nursing in San Francisco and of the San Francisco College for Women. She has been a school nurse at Sonoma, Calif. Her husband is a graduate of the University of the Pacific at Stockton, Calif., and is employed with the Muskegon Piston Ring Company with headquarters at Denver, where they will make their home.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Keeffe and Dr. and Mrs. R. Keele, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Penney, Mrs. Walter Carr and Mrs. Mrs. Williams, Dunsmuir, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hurley, Mr. and Dairy.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

They will make their home at Steamboat Ranger Station, Idlewild Park, Ore., where he is employed as a forester with the forest service. The bride is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute and before her marriage was employed as a medical technologist in Tucson, Ariz. Her husband is a graduate of Purdue University.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Agerter, Eugene; Troy Reynolds, Ashland; Mrs. Norman Moore and Laura, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. James Medley and Mrs. Bess Medley, Medford; Norma Magnus and Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, Glendale.

Guests from Steamboat Ranger Station included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaff, Frank Moore Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Onstott, Mrs. Robert Booker, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Carlson.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained in Tucson by Ann Cashman and again by Jane Herman and Doris Pipher. In Klamath Falls Mrs. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Lewis Hodges were hostesses at a shower in her honor.

Mrs. Norene Alger, sister of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

They will make their home at Steamboat Ranger Station, Idlewild Park, Ore., where he is employed as a forester with the forest service. The bride is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute and before her marriage was employed as a medical technologist in Tucson, Ariz. Her husband is a graduate of Purdue University.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Agerter, Eugene; Troy Reynolds, Ashland; Mrs. Norman Moore and Laura, San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. James Medley and Mrs. Bess Medley, Medford; Norma Magnus and Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, Glendale.

Guests from Steamboat Ranger Station included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaff, Frank Moore Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Onstott, Mrs. Robert Booker, Mr. and Mrs. James Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Carlson.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained in Tucson by Ann Cashman and again by Jane Herman and Doris Pipher. In Klamath Falls Mrs. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Lewis Hodges were hostesses at a shower in her honor.

Mrs. Norene Alger, sister of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride's sister, Carolyn Ferrell, was her maid of honor. She was dressed in pink organza over tulle, accented with floor length bell skirt and bodice trimmed in pink embroidery. On her head was a small pillbox hat, briefly veiled. Pink and white carnations formed her nosegay. Best man was Bill G. Onstott and ushers were Kirk Ewart and Don Christensen, all of Steamboat Ranger Station. Assisting the ushers was George Verling.

The flower girl was Laura Moore of San Mateo, who wore a floor length dress of pink, lace trimmed, and carried a white basket of petals.

Mrs. Linman chose for the occasion a blue suit of Douppioni silk with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The wedding reception took place in the church parlors which were decorated with flowers given by Irma Barker. The cake was five tiered and was topped with three satin bells.

Serving were Mrs. Rolfe Lundgren, Mrs. Richard Hicks, Mrs. Leonard Oberg, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Lewis Hodges, Mrs. James Medley, Medford, and Mrs. Norman Moore, San Mateo. Linda Hicks was in charge of the guest book. Greta Hicks distributed small bags of pink and white rice.

The newlyweds planned their honeymoon to include a visit with the bridegroom's parents in Indiana. They returned via Arkansas, Kansas and Nevada. For traveling the new Mrs. Harlan wore a coral, green and beige sheath in floral print with coral mohair sweater and beige accessories.

AFTER THE CEREMONY — Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Schadler visit with their mothers after their July 13 marriage in Lakeview. The bride's mother, Mrs. Nora O'Keeffe, is at center and Mrs. Lucio Jaurena, mother of the bridegroom, at right. — Photo by Gudrun

Abe Cardit, Oakland; Micki Morales and Mrs. Rod Johnson, Sonoma, Calif.; Dr. and Mrs. Phil Reilly, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fee, Mrs. Walter Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cole and Johnny, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Conlon, Fort Bidwell, Calif.; Mrs. J. P. McAuliffe, Fort Klamath; Mr. and Mrs. John Burgoyne, Cedarville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. C. O'Keeffe, Klamath; Mrs. John Williams, Dunsmuir, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hurley, Mr. and Dairy.

DeVaul - Guidi Vows Recited At St. Pius

June 15 was the date for the 11 o'clock double ring ceremony uniting in marriage, Madelon Louise Guidi, daughter of Mrs. Amelia Guidi and the late A. L. Guidi, Klamath Falls, and Jack C. DeVaul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval DeVaul, Loretta. Rites were officiated by the Rev. George Murphy at St. Pius X Catholic Church.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with bouquets of white chrysanthemums and blue stock. Baskets of the same flowers accented the bride's theme of blue and white.

Mrs. Ronald Ormsby, organist, accompanied Mrs. Jim Leggett who sang "Pans Angelicus" and "Ave Maria."

The bride was given in marriage by her great-uncle, Sisto Rapalli of Santa Cruz, Calif. She wore a white nylon organza gown fashioned with full skirt, lace bodice and sleeves. Traces of lace were also on the skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a dainty crown of crystal and seed pearls.

The bridal bouquet consisted of three white yellow-throated orchids on a mother-of-pearl prayer book, gift of the bride's great-uncle, Sisto Rapalli. She had the traditional blue garter made for her by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Paul Fitzhugh. A sixpence in her slipper was worn formerly by the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Floding at her wedding. The bride's only jewelry was a diamond pendant, gift of the bridegroom.

Attendants for the bride were Mrs. Robert Floding, her sister, matron of honor, and Yvonne Cox, cousin of the bridegroom; bridesmaid. They were identically dressed in frocks of blue organza over darker blue tulle. White flower embroidery trimmed the full skirts. They carried lace fans arranged with blue orchids and headpieces and gloves along with blue slippers completed their outfits.

Little Louanne Floding, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dress of white organza with headpiece of blue and white carnations. David Fitzhugh, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother was dressed in a navy blue silk dress trimmed with powder blue with matching jacket and bone accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a beige jacket dress with pink accessories. Both women wore pink rosebud corsages.

Best man was Jim Womack, Ushers were the bride's brother-in-law, Robert Floding and Joe Sellars.

After the ceremony a reception was held at Reames Golf and Country Club where a buffet luncheon was served. Champagne was poured by Paul Fitzhugh, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Paul Gregory. Cake was served by Mrs. Martin Gift and coffee by a cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Harold Cox.

The children's punch bowl was attended by Linda Fernlund. Mrs. Paul Fitzhugh was in charge of the guest book.

Music for dancing was provided by Dennis O'Brien, Rudy Hornby and Bruce Allen.

The bride wore a navy linen dress, matching navy and white coat and white patent accessories for her going away attire. An orchid from her bridal bouquet complemented her outfit.

After a short honeymoon the couple is at home in Reno. The bride is a 1963 graduate of Maryhurst College and will teach school this fall at Stead Air Base. The bridegroom is employed by the Nugget Club in East Reno.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Conley, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fitzhugh and children, Soap Lake, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster and Mickey, Monterey; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Womack, Sattley, Calif.; Mrs. Ken Waters and daughters, Montague.

College friends of the bride attending were Sue Taylor, Portland, Sarah Goodwin, Oak Harbor, Mary Kay Dyckman, Tacoma, and Carol Jean Howard, Pasco.

Professional Pressing done for you

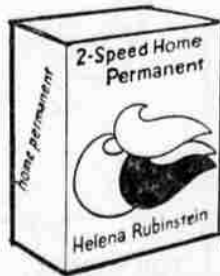

When you clean your clothes at J. W. Kerns

NORGE LAUNDRY
& CLEANING VILLAGE
734 S. 6th Open till 10:00

SAVE UP TO 50%

Helena Rubinstein Once-a-Year Beauty Sale

BUY ONE...GET A BEAUTY BONUS FREE!

GLORIFY YOUR HAIR!

Buy 2-Speed Home Permanent. Named finest on the market by leading consumer survey. Use as perm or neutralizer permanent.

Free: Headliner. Non-greasy hair groom in a tube. Makes hair behave beautifully. Leaves hair shiny bright. 2.63 value

now 200

plus tax...limited time only

JUST ONE OF 30 EXCITING COMBINATIONS

FREE Delivery

COMMUNITY DRUGS

9th & Main

Ph. TU 2-3475

NEW SHEER SEAMLESS WITH

Double Comfort!

COTTON SOLE

STRETCH TOP

STYLE 711

Belle-Sharmer

LEGSIZE STOCKINGS

Extra foot comfort...extra "give" in the top...these are the two very special features that add up to Belle-Sharmer's newest stocking fashion. In 15 denier dress sheer nylon, and your choice of these flattering new shades: Whirlwind, Taupe Mist, Surfside, Glow or White. $1.50 a pair.

Stocking Bar
Street Floor

Subsidiary of
P. H. Hirsch & Co.

Miller's