The Spokane Indians keep winning because of outstanding pitching and timely hitting. They keep winning despite the fact that the parent Los Angeles Dodgers have speared several Indian stars for duty in the majors.

The team completed an almost unbelievable July home stand Wednesday, winning 19 games and losing but two. The Indians downed Oklahoma City 5-4 last night.

The winningest pitcher in the Pacific Coast League, Howie Reed (13-5) was rapped out of the box

Roller Team Hits Finals

PORTLAND (UPI) — Linda Jo Baker of Atlanta, Ga., won the senior ladies figure skating championship at the 1963 North American Roller Skating Championships here Wednesday night.

Linda Motlone of Akron, Ohio, was second and Pamela Cornwall of Houston, Tex., was third.

In the intermediate men's free-skating contest, the championship went to Robert Marino of Haverhill, Mass. Curtis Blau of New Britain, Conn., placed second and Joe Manifesto of San Leandro, Calif., was third.

The team of Ed Perales, Lewin Norton, Dennis Senick and Ted Artbury of Torrance, Calif., won the men's four-mile speed championship.

CYCLISTS WIN — Two local motorcycle racers, Steve Nason, left, and Doug Kohler, took top honors at the Powers, Ore., scrambles July 21. Both riders won heat races in the 500c class. Kohler won the 500c trophy dash with Nason second. Nason won the 500c A-main with Kohler second. In the 250cc Division, Nason placed second in the A-main and led sweepstakes until trouble forced him out of action. Both riders are members of Bodenhamer's Cyclery.

by the 88ers but that didn't stop the Indians. Reliever Mel McGavock picked up the slack to gain his fifth decision.

Spokane trailed early in the game, 3-0. But they counted two in the fifth and two in the sixth and scored the stay-ahead run in the sixth on a walk and back-to-back doubles by Mike Brumley and Bart Shirley. It was the seventh straight win for Spokane and ninth straight at home.

In other games, Dallas-Ft. Worth whipped Denver 10-7, Portland edged Tacoma 9-2 in 11 innings, San Diego bested Salt Lake City 2-1 and Hawaii downed Seattle 4-1.

Relief artist Jim Handrahan of Portland bounced a single in the 11th inning to score Bill Kern with the winning run against Tacoma. Handrahan gained the victory, too, although he pitched only one-third of an inning.

Tacoma tallied twice in the fifth on an error and hits by Don Gile and Gil Carrodo. The Beavers didn't score until the ninth but then punched across two runs in a fielder's choice and a wild pitch after the bases were loaded. That sent the contest into overtime. Wayne Schurr, the fourth Giant hurler, took the loss.

The reversal for Tacoma plus Spokane's victory put the Indians 8 1/2 games in the lead in the Northern Division and Oklahoma City's loss to Spokane dropped the 88ers 2 1/2 games back of Dallas-Ft. Worth in the Southern Division.

Hawaii's Mike Lee turned in a fine pitching performance as the Islanders downed Seattle. He twirled seven innings of perfect ball and gave up a total of only two hits.

The first hit came in the eighth when leadoff man Stan Johnson batted a ground rule double and scored on a single by Chico Fernandez. Until that time Lee had retired 21 consecutive batters.

Bob Perry had a triple, double and a single to lead the Hawaii attack.

Lee now has a record of 1-1 while loser Larry Foster now has a 6-4 mark.

Ted Sadowski allowed only one hit in the last six innings as Dallas-Ft. Worth breezed to a 10-4 triumph over Denver. He helped his own cause with a three run triple in the fifth stanza and broke the 4-4 tie. It was Sadowski's ninth win against 8 losses. Pedro Olivo had a homer with two on in the third and Joe Christian had a solo in the same inning for the rangers.

Sammy Ellis put the stopper on San Diego's loss string to Salt Lake City when he tossed a neat four hitter and a 2-1 victory. It was the first victory over the Bees in the teams' last 11 games.

The Bees scored one run on two hits in the first inning but then were helpless the remainder of the game. It was Ellis' seventh win against eight losses while Gordy Seyfried now has a 9-10 mark for the Bees.

Chico Ruiz singled in the sixth, stole second and scored on a single by Bobby Klaus. It was Ruiz' 36th stolen base of the season. Doren Johnson singled in the seventh, went to second on a sacrifice and scored on Rogelio Alvarez' single.

place Giants four and one half games behind the league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers, who beat the New York Mets, 5-3.

Dark and his troops take today off to unwind then embark on a 16 game road trip which opens at Chicago Friday afternoon.

A throwing error by relief pitcher Bob Bolin let two Philadelphia runs roll in the fatal fourth, Wednesday and then Bakerfield's Johnny Callison hung "B-B" on the ropes with a two run homer.

Billy Pierce finally got the side out but Johnny Klippstein then retired the Giants in order and sewed up some hot relief work by Jack Baldschun.

Reliever Comes Through
A total of 36 players were flung into the three hour and 47 minute hair-raiser, but Baldschun outshone 'em all.

A nifty screwball tosser, he allowed two hits in the six innings he worked and pitched his way out of a ninth inning crisis for one of the finest bits of clutch jobs seen at Candlestick Park.

Willie Mays opened the ninth with a triple, his lone hit of the day, and barely missed getting a game winning homer when he hit ball hit the top of the barrier and bounced back into the field.

Manager Gene Mauch then had Baldschun intentionally pass the next two batters and load the bases with nobody out. Ed Bailey and Jose Pagan went down swinging at Baldschun's low screwballs and he made pinch hitter Joe "Malitano" hit into a fielder's choice to stop the rally.

Bolin, who came in to start the 12th after Billy Hoelt was jerked for Amalfitano, launched the 14th by giving up a leadoff single to Bob Ollis.

OUT OF ACTION — Philadelphia Phils' pitcher Art Mahaffey, right, grabs his right ankle after getting his spikes hooked and twisting it on the pitcher's mound in the seventh inning of the game with the Giants at San Francisco. Mahaffey, who had started warmup pitching to replace Johnny Klippstein, was taken to a hospital with a possible fracture. Phils' trainer, Joseph Liscio, extreme left, runs out to aid pitcher as does Phils' catcher Daylmyre with Giant Harvey Kuenn (Number 7) also on scene.

Browns Working On Offense As Pro Football Camps Open

By United Press International

Joe Morrison, the New York Giant's 25-year-old handyman, broke through the Giant defense for a 35-yard touchdown sprint as the offense dominated the controlled scrimmage for the first time since camp opened.

The Cleveland Browns, still intent on building a "big-back" defense, worked on backfield blocking Wednesday. Coach Blanton Collier was particularly pleased with the blocking of Jim Brown, which he called "exceptional," and that of newly acquired Mel Triplett.

The Detroit Lions solved a big headache when they finally signed All-Pro middle linebacker Joe Schmidt along with John Gordy. Only two more Lions, Sam Williams and Gail Cogdill, are not signed.

Dennis Harmon, a defensive back from Watseka, Ill., walked out of the Chicago Bears' camp Wednesday to return to Southern Illinois University for his degree. Harmon, the Bears' eighth draft choice this year, has decided to stay out of pro football "for a while."

Stehouwer Injured
Guard Ron Stehouwer was the only Pittsburgh casualty in the Steelers' controlled scrimmage. Stehouwer twisted his knee, but is expected to return within a few days.

Coach Bill McPeak of the Washington Redskins took a long look at rookie defensive linemen Ron Snidow and Dave Nickson and liked what he saw in the Skins' first scrimmage, while coach Wally Lemm also sent his St. Louis Cardinals through their first full scale scrimmage.

In the Baltimore Colts workouts, star quarterback Johnny Unitas was once again firing long passes to Lenny Moore although the signal-caller had not thrown a pass during the past two days.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners concentrated on sprints with the speeding honors going to halfback Dale Messer and end Bernie Casey. Guard Bruce Bosley, who injured his leg on Saturday, will probably be out of action for 10 more days.

Billy Joe Moody, a rookie defensive halfback from Arkansas, became the third player to quit the Los Angeles Ram camp on his own Wednesday.

The Dallas Cowboys, who play the Rams in the first exhibition tilt for both teams next Thursday, concentrated on their passing attack with ends Billy Howton and Lee Folkins making fine catches.

Bread, Butter Shooters Enter St. Paul Action

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — The bread and butter shooters of the professional golf circuit teed off today in the 72-hole $35,000 St. Paul Open over Keller's shaggy fairways.

A packed field of 143 pros and 10 amateurs promised a close battle for the $5,000 first place prize over the 6,600-yard par 72 Keller course.

Most pros agreed the tournament would be won on the strength of a short iron game and accuracy on the greens. Keller's open fairways have never proven much challenge to the touring money players.

The purse for this year's event is the St. Paul Open's richest but it still failed to lure the gallery-gathering stars who are using the break to rest up for bigger payoffs ahead.

Disqualifying the tourney were Ar-

Doug Sanders is defending champion and will have fast company from the likes of Jerry Barber, Dow Finsterwald, Doug Ford, Jay and Lionel Hebert, Jacky Cupit, Tommy Bolt, Gene Littler, Bruce Crampton, Tommy Aaron and a host of others.

Six name players informed tournament officials Wednesday they would not attend due to physical infirmities. Included were Phil Rodgers, Dave Ragan, Bob Goalby, Art Wall, Gardner Dickinson and Bill Casper.

The record score is 263, set by Mike Souchak in 1956, but a consensus of the pros today revealed the mark is relatively safe this year. Most entrants feel the winner will tour the playoff in a total around 268-270.

Miller Takes Top Spot In Weekend Gun Shoot

Pat Miller copped high honors Sunday at the Klamath Gun Club's weekly shoot at their Woods Flats Gun Club.

He scored a high of 97, winning a leg on the E. H. Balsiger Memorial Trophy, which consists of 50 rounds at 16 yards and 50 handicap rounds. The shooters fired for the Nelson Reed double trophy after that with Irvine Crume winning his second leg. The entire shooting group then shot for backer-uppers for steak dinners.

The next shoot at the Klamath Gun Club will be Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 3 and 4, when the Klamath Gun Club holds its annual State Registered Shoot with events beginning at 9 a.m. each day.

Sternberg Gets Big Boost

SEATTLE (UPI) — Brian Sternberg, University of Washington pole vaulter paralyzed from a trampoline accident, and the Jerry Loventson Foundation received a big boost today.

The Kansas City Chiefs and Oakland Raiders of the American Football League agreed to major reductions in their share of a game at the University of Washington Stadium Aug. 17.

All proceeds above actual expenses for the game will go to the foundation for Sternberg's cure.

developments, the Denver Broncos plan to start three rookies in the starting backfield in Saturday night's exhibition tussle with the Houston Oilers, but the Oilers, adopting a "stay put" attitude, will start old pro George Blanda at quarterback along with veterans Billy Cannon and Charlie Hennigan.

The Buffalo Bills defense, led by defensive ends Ken Rice and Jim Moss, smashed the offense and ruined the passing accuracy of quarterbacks Warren Rabb and Manch Wheeler.

Roller Team Loses 7-1

The Skateland Wheels' roller hockey team, now participating in the National Roller Hockey tournament in Portland, is one of the four finalists in the tournament.

The Skateland Wheels, who went through this region's league play without a loss in 10 games, suffered its first defeat of the year at the hands of the Brownsville, Tex., club, 7-1. Brownsville and another Texas team, from Lubbock, will be in the finals with Klamath Falls and Longview, Wash.

The Klamath team, in its first year of competition, downed San Francisco in the first game of the double elimination tournament, 2-1. The Wheels team is the only team left in the finals with a defeat. The other three teams are undefeated.

Lubbock downed Pottstown, Pa., 9-1. Longview blanked Fresno, Calif., 4-0. Lubbock stopped San Francisco, 11-2. Longview topped Pottstown, 2-1, and Brownsville stopped Fresno, 8-2.

Footballers Close Drill

CHICAGO (UPI) — The College All-Stars will get their last light drill today in preparation for Friday's attempt to end the Green Bay Packers' winning streak in the 30th annual football All-Star game.

The Packers, champions of the National Football League, have won their last 19 exhibition games, including a 42-20 victory over the All-Stars last year. The pro team has won the last four All-Star games.

Green Bay, with almost all veterans from last year's team still on hand, was a solid favorite to win by two to three touchdowns. The Packers will hold their last workout tonight under the lights of Soldier Field, where the game will be played.

Neither coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers nor Otto Graham, in his fifth game as All-Star coach, has named a starting line-up.

Another Gem

Another Dodger fielding play that gave the Mets' Roger Craig his 17th straight season loss was Tommy Davis' leaping catch of Jim Hickman's drive to the left field wall in the eighth inning with one man on base.

The Dodgers left today on a 16-game road trip with their league lead 4 1/2 games ahead of second-place San Francisco and 5 ahead of third place St. Louis. Both the Giants and Cardinals lost Wednesday night, allowing the Dodgers to gain a notch. Last year, at the end of July, the Dodgers were in first with a four-game lead over the Giants.

The road trip begins with a three-game series against the Houston Colts, starting Friday night. The Dodger pitching rotation will be Don Drysdale, Sandy Koufax and Johnny Podres.

Podres missed his turn Wednesday night because of renewed soreness in his left elbow. Manager Walt Alton said before the game, "I'd rather lose Podres one turn than for three weeks. We don't want to take any chance
