

UNITED FUND "AMBASSADORS" TOUR PORTLAND AGENCIES — Twelve representatives of United Fund campaign pilot firms last week toured the agencies of the Oregon United Appeal that received funds from the county's UF drive. The ten men and two women gained personal acquaintance with the work of the various homes and child-care agencies that last year provided for 73 Klamath County Court appointed juveniles, babies, upwed mothers and children from broken homes. The agencies spent over $60,000 for Klamath County wards last year and while the county's campaign goal for these agencies was only $21,000, less than $15,000 was actually donated. At left, the group arrives at the first stop, the Louise Home for Girls, for unwed mothers, wayward girls and drug addicts. This private charitable agency is owned and operated by the Albertina Kerr Homes and is inter-racial and nonsectarian. Touring the grounds, right, is the Christie School for emotionally disturbed girls from 6 to 16 are, from left, Mrs. Ross Ragland, Harold Howard, Mrs. Florence Wallace and Gaylord Upington. The home is operated by the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary.

Swim Team Organizes

DUNSMUIR—Mrs. Robert Von Hein is the chairman of the newly organized parents' group supporting the Dunsmuir Dolphins, a local swim team.

Mrs. George Higgins was named secretary at the organization meeting, and Roger Ellis, Harold Walsh, and Francis LeMere Jr., were appointed committee members. The group approved an insurance program, uniform swim suits, and an insignia for next year. Mrs. Von Hein was asked to obtain sample swim team club. The Dunsmuir Dolphins, about 20 youngsters, ages 8 to 15, have been learning race techniques from Peter Wright, local instructor, and have made good showings in meets with Anderson and McCloud. The group intends to slate team signups next May and arrange a meet schedule.

Camp Counselor Awards Given

LAKEVIEW—The camp counselor award, a new feature of the 4-H camping program, was awarded this year to Deanna Johnston and Ray Hopkins, reports Barbara Glodt, extension agent.

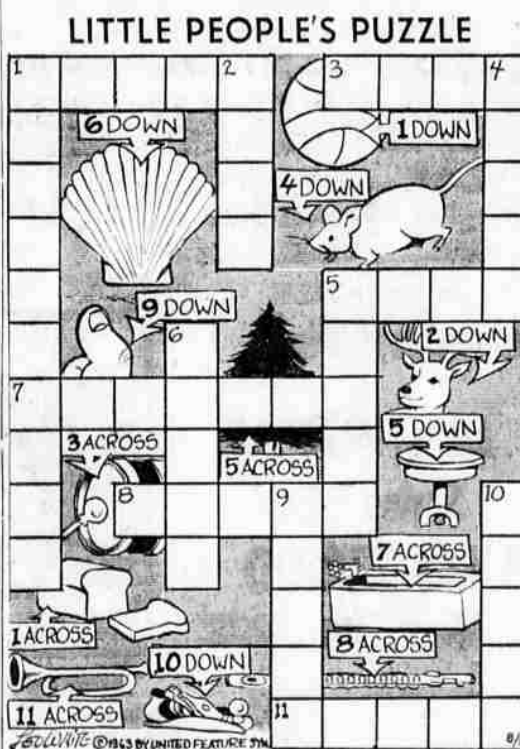

The camp staff made the awards after camp was over, and recipients were announced at an evaluation meeting. Ray and Deanna were chosen from a group of 11 camp counselors.

Criteria considered in making the selections included the enthusiasm and initiative shown by the counselor; leadership ability; health and stamina; ability to be tactful and fair-minded; sincerely and cheerfulness in carrying out the camp program; sensitivity to the feelings of the campers; cooperation; and sense of humor. Also important was the respect demanded of the camper and the ability of the counselor to work with the staff and camper.

PYRAMID'S AREA

The base of the Great Pyramid of Giza, Egypt, covers about 13 acres and its top point stands about 451 feet above the ground, having been reduced by 20 feet during the centuries.

JFK's Area Redevelopment Plans Facing New Troubles In Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy's area redevelopment bill, bruised by an encounter with civil rights, was headed today toward new trouble in the House Rules Committee.

The bill, designed to bring aid to financially depressed areas by authorizing money for public projects, appeared to have enough votes to clear the House Banking Committee but the rules committee chairman, Howard W. Smith, D-Va., has served notice he will do everything he can to stop it.

Ranking committee Democrats agreed to support an amendment barring funds to aid construction of motels and hotels, avoiding a battle over a proposed amendment barring discrimination in any hostels built with ARA funds. They also agreed to trim about $100 million off the $455 million authorization approved by the Senate.

Republicans and conservatives charge the bill, an extension of a previous Kennedy program, is a "boondoggle."
