

GUEST OF HONOR — Mrs. Phillip A. Rand, right, was honored at a party July 12 given by the 322nd Fighter Squadron Wives at Kingsley. Mrs. Rand will move from Falcon Heights in to Klamath Falls while her husband is attending Air War College. Offering Mrs. Rand punch is Mrs. J. D. Shepherd, chairman of the 322nd Squadron Wives.

Party Honors Mrs. P. Rand

The Kingsley Field 322nd Fighter Squadron Wives honored Mrs. Phillip A. Rand Friday, July 12, at a farewell party at the base Officers Club. The Rands will be leaving Kingsley Field, as Colonel Rand has been assigned to Air War College, Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, Ala., for a year.

Mrs. Rand, however, will be living in Klamath Falls at 3381 Maryland while her sons attend school here next year.

Punch and sandwiches were served at the afternoon party. Symbols of summertime, butterflies, spiders, daisies and bees decorated the room. Flowers were donated by Anna Maria Eck.

Mrs. Rand and Mrs. Edwin J. Witzgenburger, wife of the base commander, received yellow corsages from the 322nd Wives Club.

Bride-To-Be Is Honored

TULELAKE — Ona Lee Terry, who will be an August bride, was honored with a delightfully appointed miscellaneous shower June 21 in the Tulelake Grange Hall.

Her engagement to Dennis Russell of Kingsley Air Force Base, Klamath Falls, was recently announced. His home is in Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Hostesses for the early summer event were Betty Jean Gatliff, Leona Davis, Margaret Hall, Faye Schirman, Cleo St. Peter, Inez Roberts, Mary Peytol, Edna Jamison, Beth Carleton, Carol Thomas, Dennis Abbaard, and Jerry Hanna.

The guest of honor's rainbow colors in pastel shades with pink predominating, were carried out in flower arrangements. A lace table cloth over pink covered the refreshment table.

Ona Lee was assisted in opening her numerous gifts by Beth Carleton, Barbara Roberts and Carol Thomas.

Margie and Janie Retterath of Merrill, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Marvin Retterath, gave aerobic and dance numbers.

PATENT ON PASTELS

If you like to wear pastel shoes during the summer months, your best bet is patent leather. The new patent pastels can be wiped free of soil in a jiffy, and look fresh and pretty for each wearing.

Today's suburban pattern for living calls for "looks" for every wife. The two-way hair style, which will go from weekday casual to weekend glamour, should start with the right kind of permanent. This permanent will give your hair support for a style (casual or pin-up) instead of masses of curls. For the casual look, a few clips shape the hair into a casual close or rolled to the head look; hair can be pinned up for a more elaborate look for special occasions. The right permanent will help hold the set.

Family Get-Together

MACDOEL — Mrs. Josephine Duncan, who will be 90 years old next Oct. 19, was present recently for a five-generation get-together at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Criss.

The younger generations present were children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren in the family line of a second daughter, Mrs. Vera Howell, now making her home with Mrs. Criss.

Mrs. Duncan was born at Mukato, Minn., and came to Klamath County in 1920. The family lived at Malin for many years. Prior to that time they traveled by covered wagon in 1907 from Roseburg to Canby, Calif.

Two daughters of Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Don (Edith) Weber, Grand Ronde, Ore., and Mrs. Al Burgoyne, Glendale, Ore., were the third generation.

Mrs. Leroy Moschkau of Glendale and Mrs. Roy Coate of Albuquerque, N.M., were the fourth generation. Scott Moschkau, 1 year old, and Francine Marie Coate, 4 months, were the fifth generation.

Couple Wed In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — Tamara Lynne Tomlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Tomlin of the Westside, was united in marriage with Gerald Maynard Foster, on the afternoon of Saturday, June 15, at the First Baptist Church in Lakeview with Dr. Alfred Russell officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Foster of Brooklyn, Iowa.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Cecil Bateman and vocal selections were by a trio made up of Mrs. George Johnston and daughters, Kathy and Deanna, and a duet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Tomlin, aunt and uncle of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her floor-length gown of white satin over nylon net was fashioned with a drop back waistline with bow accent, and three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was fastened to a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Mrs. Calvin Hanks, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her frock was of pink nylon net over taffeta with matching lace jacket. Bridesmaid Nova Wyman was dressed in a white nylon organdy gown with pink embroidery, and Deanna Johnson, also a bridesmaid, wore a dress of turquoise nylon net over yellow taffeta. They carried bouquets of white carnations and pink rosebuds. Gail Hanks, niece of the bride, wore a pink nylon net dress over taffeta for her role as flower girl. Ringbearer was Lee Hanks, nephew of the bride.

Calvin Hanks was best man and David Johnson and Ralph Gold were ushers.

The costume of Mrs. Tomlin was a gray and orchid paisley print with white accessories, with a yellow rosebud corsage.

A lawn reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Serving the cake were Mrs. Norma Blalock and Mrs. George Johnston; coffee was poured by Mrs. Al Wright and punch by Mrs. Dan Morrison. Deanna Johnson attended the guest book and Mrs. Calvin Hanks and Mrs. R. A. Hanks were at the gift table.

For a wedding trip to California the bride changed to a white brocade, two-piece dress with white accessories, and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Lakeview High School, and the bridegroom was graduated from the Brooklyn, Iowa, High School. They will make their home in Lakeview.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Al Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Tomlin and Buckey. Molalla, N.D., Valora Brown and Doreen Connie Lou Hubbard, Sheridan, Brown, Bismark, N.D., Mr. and Mrs. Ruth Raabe and her children, Charlene, Rodney and Jimmy, Salem; Mrs. Beatrice Weatherly and daughter, Anne, Silverton; Mr. Falls.
