

Hearty Eating

There's no denying the conquering good flavor of "Conquistador Spaghetti." Ground beef, sliced ripe olives, tomato sauce, sprightly seasonings and a cheese topping give this spaghetti main dish notable flair. Dark and handsome ripe olives help to turn many everyday entrees into elegant eating.

CONQUISTADOR SPAGHETTI

1 package (8 oz.) spaghetti
1 lb. ground lean beef

1/2 cup chopped onion
1 tablespoon salad oil
1 1/2 teaspoons garlic powder
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder
3 cans (8 oz. each) tomato sauce
1 cup pitted ripe olives
Grated sharp American cheese

Cook spaghetti as package directs. Cook beef and onion in oil about 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Stir in garlic powder, salt, chili powder, spaghetti, tomato sauce and olives; cook about five minutes. Sprinkle generously with cheese. Bake in 400-degree (hot) oven five to 10 minutes until cheese is melted. Makes six servings.

JUST LIKE BIG FOLKS — The children's very own barbecue features beans and franks with cheese and bacon. Served in a hot dog bun, it is sure to win ohs and ahs. Tastes great cooked inside or out. Complete the meal with a big mug of milk and sliced oranges and bananas. It's quick to make and mighty nutritious.

Children's Barbecue

When mom and dad have plans for dinner, treat the children to their very own barbecue. No extra fuss for mother, yet the little ones will be delighted.

Picnics or extra-special meals take no time at all when the pantry is stocked with canned bean products. For example, take a can of beans and franks in tomato sauce from the shelf and you're practically ready to serve. Children love beans and franks—9 tender little franks—just waiting to be eaten by all ages and sizes. In the following recipe a frankfurter roll is almost a necessity! For this frank and bean dog, canned beans and franks are combined with green pepper, cheese, and bacon—all favorites with the small fry! If the outdoor grill is not ready, this sandwich tastes just as good made in the kitchen. Whichever way, the children will love it—and have a nutritious meal besides. A big mug of milk... a refreshing dish of oranges and bananas... the picnic is complete!

FRANK AND BEAN DOG

2 slices bacon
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons chopped green onion
Generous dash chili powder
1 can (1 pound) beans and franks in tomato sauce
1 cup shredded mild process cheese
3 frankfurter rolls, split and toasted

In saucepan, cook bacon until crisp; remove and crumble. Pour off all but 1 tablespoon drippings. Cook green pepper and green onion in drippings until tender. Add beans and franks and cheese. Heat, stirring now and then. Serve on rolls; garnish with bacon. Makes 3 servings.
Note: If cooking on outdoor grill prepare as above, using heavy saucepan, on grill about 4 inches above glowing coals. After adding beans and franks and cheese, cover and heat, stirring now and then. Last few minutes, toast rolls on grill.
