Louisiana Merchants Lower Race Bars Without Incident

By United Press International
Merchants lowered racial bars without incident in another Southern city Tuesday.

Lunch counters at 12 retail stores in downtown Baton Rouge, La., and in two big suburban shopping centers were desegregated with advance notice. Negroes were served quietly at the stores during the noon lunch period.

Picketing continued, however, at Baton Rouge's segregated public swimming pool and Negro leaders have asked a federal judge for an early hearing of a suit aimed at desegregation of the city's park and recreation facilities.

Police arrested 138 Negro demonstrators at Athens, Ga., Tuesday for parading without a permit. Officers said 97 of the group were juveniles who were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Fifty-five Negroes were arrested at Sumter, S.C., for marching in the downtown area without a parade permit. All but 16 of this group were juveniles.

At New York, around 40 demonstrators left their picket lines at a Brooklyn construction site and filled up seats in the only restaurant in the area in a move designed to keep workmen from getting lunch. The pickets are protesting alleged job hiring discrimination on city construction projects.

Racial tensions appear to have eased in Chicago where white crowds have staged unruly demonstrations in a recently integrated neighborhood on the city's South Side.

Elsewhere in the nation: Danville, Va.—Six civil rights demonstrators were to go on trial here today on a charge of violating an anti-protest injunction.

Four more demonstrators were arrested on Danville's main street Tuesday under a permanent injunction issued Aug. 2 prohibiting anti-segregation demonstrations.

Washington—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) has withdrawn its request for federal delay in granting funds to Norfolk, Va., educational television facilities. The NAACP said it wanted to make sure the facilities would not promote discrimination in the areas.

Detroit—Negroes today planned to picket the riverfront home of the United Auto Workers Union and the General Motors headquarters protesting alleged racial discrimination at a Chevrolet plant.

Tampa, Fla.—Two more Hillsborough County public schools will be integrated this fall by 14 students, all children of Negro personnel living at MacDill Air Force Base.

Elizabeth, N.J.—Five Negro pickets were arrested Tuesday when they tried to block the entrance to a construction site in ing bias.
