

Solon Claims JFK Using Servicemen In Race Struggle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-La., Wednesday accused the administration of using servicemen as a "tool" in its desegregation campaign.

In a speech prepared for delivery on the House floor, Hebert attacked a Defense Department order authorizing military commanders to make communities discriminating against Negroes "off limits" to servicemen.

Hebert termed the order "economic blackmail." He said it would also mean that servicemen would no longer have the right to determine how they will spend their off duty hours.

Hebert said that until "now" servicemen felt that they belonged to an organization that existed to provide security for the nation. Instead, Hebert said, the military now has become a political tool "of the attorney general, the President and the secretary of defense."

Debt: House leaders called up for debate Wednesday a bill to extend the record high legal ceiling for the national debt. The debt ceiling now stands at $309 billion. Under terms of the proposed bill it would be extended for three additional months until Nov. 30.

Taxes: The House Ways & Means Committee today began work on the final items of the administration's tax program that it must act on before getting down to work on the proposed tax cut. The committee went into its sixth day of work on the program with only a handful left of the structural changes in the tax law recommended by President Kennedy. Committee members hope to finish their work in two or three days and then will turn to the tax cut plan.

Big Weight Lifters Free Family Trio

COLOGNE, Germany (UPI) — Six hulking West German weightlifters smuggled an East German wrestling champion, his wife and son across the Iron Curtain in a tiny bus, it was learned Wednesday.

The weightlifters told a news conference they crammed the Olympic wrestler and his family inside a secret compartment they fashioned in a Volkswagen bus they drove across the border.

They picked up Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kaemmerer and their 7-year-old son at the East German city of Leipzig and drove them west Sunday. The weightlifters said they thought the Communists had caught them at the border.

At the border, Communist guards stopped the bus for 30 minutes. The guards began a thorough check of the bus in which the weightlifters sat, muscled shoulder next to muscled shoulder.

Kaemmerer, his wife and child caught their breath often in the half hour the guards poked around, under and in the bus. Finally, the guards permitted them to go.

Kaemmerer has 10 times won East German wrestling titles. Twice he represented the country in the Olympics.

Hans Muehlewitz, one of the weightlifters, said they planned the operation for "a long time." For the past two years the weightlifters had been talking to Kaemmerer who complained of life in the East. They chose the just-ended Leipzig summer sports festival for the time.

The festival gave the West German weightlifters a good excuse to drive their bus into East Germany. After a token appearance at the festival, they picked up the Kaemmerers and made the 150-mile drive to the West German border.
