

Cubs Slow Down Dodgers' Drive With 5-4 Win

By United Press International
Lindy McDaniel received credit for his eighth victory of the year and Ron Santo hit two homers, including a decisive 10th-inning blow, Thursday when the Chicago Cubs slowed the Los Angeles Dodgers' pennant march with a 5-4 triumph.

Both of Santo's homers Thursday were off Larry Sherry. No. 19 tying the score in the fifth inning and No. 20 breaking up the game in the 10th, Al Ferrara, Frank Howard and Bill Shusteron homered for the Dodgers, who now lead the second-place San Francisco Giants by 8½ games.

The Giants were idle Thursday but the New York Mets beat the Cardinals, 3-2, the Cincinnati Reds downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-3, and the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 1-0, in other NL action.

Al Jackson ended a seven-game personal losing streak and won his seventh game for the Mets on the wings of Duke Carmel's eighth-inning homer off ex-teammate Bobby Shantz. Carmel also had two singles and Al Moran a double and a single to lead the Mets' seven-hit attack and Charley James homered for the Cardinals.

Homers by Frank Robinson and Tommy Harper paced Cincinnati's John Tsitouris to his eighth win although he needed help in the ninth from Bill Henry. Roy Sievers homered and drove in three runs for the Phillies but wasn't enough to prevent Chris Short from suffering his ninth loss.

Bob Friend scattered six hits for his 13th victory as the Pirates moved past the Braves into seventh place. Bill Mazeroski base on Donn Clemons' ninth-inning single and scored from first in the fifth inning double to hand Bob Sadowski his fifth loss against one win.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT PLAYERS — Jim Johnson, left, watches as Hal Bailey lines up a putt on the second hole of Reames Golf and Country Club course. This pair will be two of the four finalists Saturday. Johnson plays Duke Zamsky in one match and Bailey takes on Lee Flink in the other. The winners play Sunday for the title. Flink is defending champion.

Commissioner Frick Rejects Night World Series Plans

CHICAGO (UPI) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick has rejected, at least for four years, a proposal that weekday World Series games should be played at night to permit many more TV fans to see the games.

The suggestion was made by Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, who estimated that switching the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday games to night would "increase the audience at least 50 per cent and perhaps double it."

"It's not under consideration," Frick said. "I couldn't do anything about it for four years anyhow. Our television contract doesn't expire until 1966, and we can't change that."

Changing the starting time of the World Series games would be decided by Frick, since the commissioner handles all World Series arrangements, but he said he wouldn't make any switch "without consultation" with both the National and American Leagues.

Oldest Backfield Prepares Slate

By United Press International
The oldest backfield in pro football prepares to launch another season Saturday afternoon when the New York Giants open their exhibition slate with the Chicago Bears at Ithaca, N. Y.

The Giant quartet of quarterback Y. A. Tittle (36), flanker Frank Gifford (33), and running backs Alex Webster (32) and Phil King (27), which returns intact from the 1962 season, boasts a combined 36 years of National Football League experience.

Place-kicking rookie Gary Kroper of Wisconsin continued to impress coach Vince Lombardi of Green Bay as the Packers prepared for Saturday night's game with Pittsburgh. The Packers traded defensive tackle Ron Gasset to the Los Angeles Rams for a future draft choice.

Lou (The Toe) Groza gave another fine exhibition in Thursday's drills with the Cleveland Browns. Groza, who has been with the Browns since their inception, has reportedly been "very sharp" since he took off eight pounds before camp started.

Peters Scores Sixth Straight Win For White Sox; Yanks Win

By United Press International
Gary Peters is a living refutation of the proposition that three strikes are always "out" in baseball.

A 6-foot, 2-inch, native of Grove City, Pa., Peters "struck out" in three trials with the Chicago White Sox but got a fourth "swing" from manager Al Lopez and is making it pay off with an 11-5 record that finally has earned him recognition as a first-rate major league pitcher.

After three years of failure, Peters finally won his first big league game on May 6 this year and since then has worked in the White Sox's regular rotation. He scored his sixth straight victory Thursday night when the Sox beat the Kansas City Athletics, 5-3, and he shapes up now as a 16-4-18 game winner.

The victory enabled the White Sox to remain eight games behind the runaway New York Yankees, who beat the Washington Senators, 3-1, in an afternoon game. The Minnesota Twins whipped the Los Angeles Angels, 3-0, the Cleveland Indians downed the Baltimore Orioles, 2-0, and the Detroit Tigers nipped the Boston Red Sox, 6-5, in other AL games.

Ralph Terry pitched a six-hitter to win his 13th game behind a 13-hit Yankee attack that included two hits each by Tom Tresh and Phil Linz, struck out five and was never in serious trouble.

The third-place Twins swept to their seventh victory in eight games behind the six-hit pitching of Dick Stigman, who raised his season record to 12-10. Vic Power had three hits and Rich Rollins and Zoilo Versalles two each to lead the Twins' nine-hit attack. Paul Foytack suffered his fifth loss against four wins. Old-fashioned baseball was the name of the game at Baltimore as Dick Donovan pitched a three-hitter and Joe Azcue stole home in the seventh inning for the Indians. Donovan, who raised his record to 7-10, allowed only one Oriole to reach second base and faced only 29 men during the game.

Rocky Colavito's 360-foot single past a drawn-in Boston outfield drove in the winning run for the Tigers, who beat relief ace Dick Radatz for the second time in two days and saddled him with his fourth loss against 12 victories. Norm Cash hit a three-run homer for the Tigers and Gary Geiger had three hits for the Red Sox.
