

Shellhorn-Ball Vows Solemnized In July

The double ring marriage ceremony of Carolyn Lee Ball and Ray H. Shellhorn Jr. was an event of July 14 at First Presbyterian Church. The 3 p.m. service was officiated by the Rev. Robert C. Groves before the altar which was backed with fern and candelabra. White spider chrysanthemums and fern flanked the altar and the center aisle was marked with white rope and pew bows.

Tessa Green was the organist. Soloist was Kurt Fiedler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett R. Ball and was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of embroidered nylon organza with elbow length sleeves and tiny covered buttons accenting the front of the bodice. At back waist, a bow emphasized the fullness of the floor length skirt which ended in a chapel train. Handmade Dior roses held the butterfly veil of nylon illusion. A corsage of white phalaenopsis orchids with lace and ribbons centered the bridal bouquet of white roses, stechnotis and ivy.

The three bridal attendants were dressed alike in short ice green nylon organza frocks made similarly to the bride's gown. Their headpieces were Dior roses of matching material with short illusion veils. Each carried a cascade of white baby chrysanthemums with ivy and green ribbon streamers.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Pete Sasstedt. Bridesmaids were Margerite Shellhorn, Keno, sister of the bridegroom, and Susan Hart.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Shellhorn of Keno.

Best man was Douglas W. Coffman. Ushers were James Dale Easley, this city, and Lester Lingschelt, Keno.

Ingrid Lingschelt was flower girl and the bridegroom's brother, David Shellhorn, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ball wore a gold silk sheath with matching accessories and white lace hat and gloves. A gold orchid was pinned at her shoulder. Mrs. Shellhorn wore a peacock blue organza sheath with matching hat and black patent accessories. Her corsage was a pale pink orchid.

The following reception was held in the church dining room. White roses and lily of the valley decorated the tables. The tiered white cake was trimmed with cream roses and topped with white wedding bells. The pretty confection was made by the bride's mother.

Mrs. Jess Crabtree and Mrs. Frank Sasstedt served the wedding cake and Mrs. Chester Hamaker, the bridegroom's cake. Presiding at the coffee service was Mrs. Peg Cochran and at the punch bowl, Mrs. Howard Hanville. Mrs. Gean Puckett received gifts and Mrs. Gary Zumwalt was in charge of the bride's book.

The bridal pair left immediately for a honeymoon trip to Reno, Lake Tahoe and the coast. For going way the new Mrs. Shellhorn changed to a coral silk ensemble, brocade shoes and bag and white gloves. She also wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. They are now at home at 3228 Shasta Way.

Mrs. Shellhorn is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and is employed at Klamath Medical Service Bureau as secretary. Her husband, graduate of Henley High School and Oregon Technical Institute, is manager of the body and fender department of Thomas Dodge Company.

Special wedding guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Ball, Portland, and Mrs. John Hodson, Colorado Springs, grandmother of the bridegroom.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zirkle and family, Eatonville, Wash.; Katherine Hodson, Colorado Springs; Mrs. Glen Pape, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cartner, Berkeley; Mrs. Brant Long and daughter, Mrs. Howard Mayhew, Janet and Judy, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Van, Salem.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honored at several affairs. Mrs. Jess Crabtree entertained at a food shower and a miscellaneous shower was hosted by Mrs. Pete Sasstedt and Mrs. Frank Sasstedt. Susan Hart and Margerite Shellhorn were luncheon hostesses at a shower at the Willard Hotel.

Parents of the bridegroom were hosts at the rehearsal dinner at their home.

Birthday Is Feted

MALIN—A circus theme prevailed for the seventh birthday celebration of Susan Vowell on July 31 at the Malin Park.

Clever placecards marked the places of Cathy and Shirley Steyskal, Debbie Scott, Linda Sundburg, Bonnie Woodard, Jeff Silva and the honored guest.

Centering the table was the birthday cake, trimmed for the occasion with peppermint sticks and animal cookies to resemble a merry-go-round.

Games and swimming occupied the afternoon after the weiner roast and birthday cake.

Adults present were Susan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman

Vowell, Malin, her grandmother, Mrs. Myrtle Vowell, Klamath Falls. Also present were Mrs. Harold Addington, and Bob and Mrs. Warren Woodard, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Bill Burnett and Mrs. Rudolph Jelinski, Mrs. Hubert Morelock, Malin.
