

DATE SET — Former Klamath Falls residents now residing in Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hunsaker, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter on Aug. 31. Engaged are Margene Hunsaker and Daniel J. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Harold Robertson, Reinbeck, Iowa. The future bride, graduate of Klamath Union High School, has attended Utah State University the past three years and is affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority. Her fiancé attended the University of Iowa before entering the Air Force. Presently he is stationed at Kingsley Field.

GOLDENWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Hunsaker have been married 50 years and to celebrate the occasion their children were hosts at a reception Aug. 4 at the First Baptist Church. The Hunsakers have spent most of their married life in Klamath Falls.

A nine-ounce can like the one sliced pineapple comes in makes a cake tin large enough to hold one-half cup of batter.

Aloha OES Installation

For the recent 64th installation of officers for Aloha Chapter of Eastern Star, the Masonic Temple was decorated with baskets of azalea pink roses and mock orange placed at each star point station. The east was banked with fern and roses. The motto for this year, "Faith, Hope, Prayer," was lettered in gold above a cutout of "praying hands."

The presiding worthy matron and patron, Leona Selby and Sanford Selby, opened the meeting and introduced the installing matron, Leona Angel. Other installing officers were Harold Rush, patron; Reno Oldham, chaplain; Martha Powell, marshal; Lillian Haneline, honorary marshal; Alma Cofer, organist.

The 1963-64 officers entered and circled the altar to take their obligations. Carrie Rush and Orval Alley, installed as worthy matron and patron, were escorted to the East through an archway of roses formed by the Friendship Gems.

Others installed are Ruth Renie, associate matron; Jake Renie, associate patron; Helen Crapo, secretary; Pearl Gisvold, treasurer; Ruth Holcomb, conductress; Peggy Harnsberger, associate conductress; Eva Alley, chaplain; Ora Gienger, marshal; Argil Stanbery, organist; Ruby Hale, Adah; Faye Rutherford, Ruth; Betty Stevens, Esther; Frieda Griffith, Martha; Lena Reinmiller, Electa; Gladys Sheldon, warder, and Richard Griffith, sentinel.

Throughout the ceremonies, Alma Cofer played appropriate background music. Carol Keesling, accompanied by Marie Obenchain, sang two solos, "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "How Great Thou Art." Roy Lundgren gave a reading and solo, "Faith Unlocks The Door," accompanied by Argil Stanbery.

Tables for the reception in the banquet room were arranged to form a star. Each was decorated with roses held by angel statuettes. Presiding at the reception was Bess Fraser, chairman, assisted by Edith Palmerston, Doris Peyton and Myrtle Schieferstein.

Pouring were past matrons, May Phinney, Sallie Wood, Lynn Martin, Clairice Epperson and Alpha Phelps.

The guest book was in charge of Norma Uerlings, past matron. Two other past matrons, Orva Beard and Viola Dickson, attended to programs. Phyllis Poole, PM, and Dorothy Elliott took charge of the gift table and Hester Dexter and Nell Killian pinned on corsages.

ALOHA OFFICERS — Newly installed officers for Aloha Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, are pictured. Front row, left to right, Jake Renie and Ruth Renie, associate patron and matron; Carrie Rush and Orval Alley, worthy matron and patron. Second row, same order, Frieda Griffith, Gladys Sheldon, Ora Gienger, Peggy Harnsberger, Ruth Holcomb, Eva Alley. Third row, Argil Stanbery, Faye Rutherford, Helen Crapo, Pearl Gisvold, Lena Reinmiller, Ruby Hale, Richard Griffith is in back.

FAMILY GATHERING — The home of Molly McGinnis in Bly was the setting for a recent dinner party. "Aunt Molly," as she is known to most, will be 89 years old in August and lives with her son, Walter. Pictured in front, left to right, are Mrs. Edward McGinnis, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Charles Shultz, West Point, Ind.; Molly McGinnis, Mrs. Roy McGinnis, Turner; Mrs. Carol Holtman, Lafayette, Ind. In back, same order, Edward McGinnis, Mrs. Elmer McGinnis, Elmer McGinnis, Klamath Falls, Roy McGinnis, and Orval McGinnis, Susanville.

Local Couple Wed 50 Years

The many friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Hunsaker congratulated them on their golden wedding anniversary at a reception Sunday, Aug. 4, at the First Baptist Church.

The affair was planned by the couple's four sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hunsaker, Fort Klamath; Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunsaker, Salem; Dr. Dale Hunsaker, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hunsaker, White Plains, N. Y.

Appropriate to the golden occasion were the yellow gladioli and roses used for decoration. The four tiered cake, topped with bells and the number 50, was trimmed with yellow roses. On the table with the cake was a gold horn of plenty filled with yellow roses.

One of the many gifts centered the gift table, a treasure chest of gold-wrapped coins atop a rock-like stand and encircled with yellow gladioli, a gift to the couple from his fellow-workers at Crater Lake Machinery Company.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. Hunsaker's sisters, Alice Hershberger, this city, Ruth Green, Medford, Vale Stayr and Marguerite Orrell, both of Eugene, and Clover Higdon, this city.

Linda Kay Hunsaker, granddaughter of the honored pair, held the guest book for the signatures of approximately 150 guests, many of whom came from Eugene, Bend, Lebanon and Salem. Also present were several former schoolmates of Mrs. Hunsaker's from New Pine Creek.

Ray L. Hunsaker was born near Klamath Falls in a house close to the present-day Idella's Store. He attended local schools and worked as a freight team driver for his father, the late Robert (Bob) Hunsaker. They drove teams over the old Topsy Grade from Ager to Linkville.

A frequent passenger was the late Judge Henry Benson, who served at many courts in the area.

Wayne Lindsey Hunsaker, born in Missouri, came west with her parents when a small child. They settled first in New Pine Creek, later moving to Bonanza. She attended Bonanza schools and the old Klamath County High School on the hill above the city.

The couple were married by the Rev. George Feeze, minister of the First Methodist Church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sparks, who were their attendants. Their honeymoon trip to Crater Lake was made by wagon and team via Aspen Lake and the west side of Klamath Lake. The marriage license was issued by the late C. R. DeLap, father of Charles DeLap.

The Hunsakers have spent most of their married life in Klamath Falls. In addition to their four sons they have six grandchildren.

For approximately the past 40 years both have been active members of the First Baptist Church and in recognition of their service the church members presented the Hunsakers with a handsome floor lamp on their wedding anniversary.

Before refilling salt and pepper shakers give them a good sudsy washing. Use a toothpick to loosen any seasoning clogging the holes.

WOMEN TEACHERS MEET — Delta Kappa Gamma local chapters, Alpha and Alpha Lambda, met for luncheon to honor the state president of the honorary for women teachers. Pictured at that time, left to right, are Dea Jean Wright, first vice president, Alpha; Dorothy Adams, Alpha president; Alice Otis, state president; Wilma Marvin, first vice president, Alpha Lambda, and Nell Stewart, second vice president, Alpha Lambda.

— Photo by Mollenkopf

President Visits Delta Kappa Gamma

Members of Alpha and Alpha Lambda, local chapters of Delta Kappa Gamma international honor society for women teachers, enjoyed a colorful buffet luncheon at the Winema Hotel Saturday, July 20, honoring the state president, Alice Otis, Grants Pass, on her official visitation. Alice Otis brought greetings from state officers and gave a brief account of her recent trip to the regional Delta Kappa Gamma convention held in Rapid City, N.D., June 27-28-29.

Dorothy Adams, president of Klamath Falls Alpha Chapter, presided at the head table and introduced the guest speaker, Leola Thompson, accompanied by Dea Jen Wright at the piano. The group in singing several Delta Kappa Gamma songs. Lorys Peery of Alpha Chapter was presented a small going away remembrance from members of her chapter. She will be leaving soon to make her home in Billings, Mont.

Tables were attractively arranged with traditional red roses and gold Delta Kappa Gamma symbols. In charge of table decorations were Ruby and Vivian Alloway of Alpha Chapter and Lela Thurman and Alma Garrison of Alpha Lambda Chapter. Members are reminded of the Bond planning session to be held in Bend Sept. 7.

$26.95

$29.95

$34.95

carcoats with built in heaters

Cotton Corduroy, imported Cotton Suede, 38" stadium coats with an inside surprise: wool plaid or luxurious pile linings!

...the wedding

arranged by our bridal salon where brides-to-be find skilled assistance in planning weddings small or large... informal or lavishly elegant.

BOOTS: the fashion-right footwear with stretch pants.