

Stuart Leads Anti-Yank Crusade; Dodgers Lose Ground To Giants, Cards

Red Sox First Sacker Leads Team To Two Wins Over Houk

By United Press International
Smoldering Dick Stuart is so burned up that he's liable to foul up the whole World Series.

He's carrying on a whacky one-man crusade to annihilate the Yankees all because their manager, Ralph Houk, passed him up for the American League All-Star team last month.

"I'm gonna try to beat their brains out every time I play against them," Stuart proclaimed.

"Let him try," Houk sniffed. Stuart not only tried Wednesday but succeeded handsomely as he pounded out six hits and drove in as many runs to help the Red Sox sweep a day-night doubleheader from the Yankees, 14-7 and 5-4.

The big outpoken Boston first baseman hit Houk where it hurt the most.

With the Yanks leading 5-2 in the opener, Stuart singled off the left field wall with the bases full to drive in the lead runs during a seven-run fifth inning explosion.

He then blasted a two-run homer in the eighth inning of the nightcap and that blow turned out to be Boston's winning margin. The home run was Stuart's 20th, tops in the AL, and his 84 runs batted in also lead the league.

Pitcher Homers
Bill Monbouquette picked up his 15th victory in the opener with help from Jack Lamabe, who slugged a three-run homer in the seventh. Rookie Dave Morehead won his seventh in the nightcap although chased in the ninth when the Yanks scored all their runs. Ralph Terry (13-12) and Jim Bouton (15-6) were the losers.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Indians blanked the White Sox, 1-0, in 11 innings, the Twins tripped the Orioles, 2-1, in 13 innings, the Tigers defeated the Athletics, 5-2, and the Angels downed the Senators, 2-0.

Willie Kirkland's homer with two out in the 11th inning gave the Indians their first run in 27 innings and a victory over Ray Herbert of the White Sox. Dick Donovan held the White Sox to four hits for his eighth victory in 18 decisions. Herbert, who allowed nine hits, now is 11-7.

Win In Thirteenth
Vic Power's double in the 13th inning followed by Bernie Allen's single broke up a 1-all tie between the Twins and Orioles. Allen connected off Stu Miller, who came on in the 11th for starter Robin Roberts. Russ Snyder put Baltimore ahead with a first-inning homer but Harmon Killebrew tied the score with his 28th homer in the eighth. Reliever Bill Dailey gained his fourth victory in six decisions.

Bill Bruton drove in four runs for the Tigers with a homer and two singles against the Athletics. Phil Regan went the first eight innings to register his eighth victory. Moe Drabowsky homered for the A's but it wasn't enough to keep him from suffering his ninth defeat against four wins.

Dean Chance boosted the Angels into seventh place with a five-hitter against the Senators that earned him his 11th triumph. The Angels scored their first run off loser Claude Osteen on three singles in the first inning and added their final run in the fourth on two singles and a double play ball.

TRADE PLAYER RIGHTS

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Philadelphia 76ers have traded the rights to John Windsor to the San Francisco Warriors in exchange for former Villanova star Hubie White. Windsor played collegiate ball at Stanford and last season was with Kansas City of the now-defunct American Basketball League.

Challengers Win; Aaron's Grand Slam Home Run Defeats Dodgers

By United Press International

Oh no, not again! It sure looks like a rerun of last year's race, with the flailing first-place Dodgers showing the same signs of folding and the surging second-place Giants moving closer to the top each day.

That was the pattern not only a year ago but Wednesday night, too, when the Giants moved within three games of the top with a 7-6 victory over the Reds in 10 innings while the Braves beat the Dodgers, 5-3.

Slump-ridden Jim Davenport and Felipe Alou came off the bench to spark the victory for the Giants, who now have won 16 of their last 22 games. Exactly a year ago they had won 15 to 22.

Davenport, who along with Alou had been benched recently for not hitting, entered the game in the sixth inning and opened the 10th with a double off Cincinnati reliever Bill Henry. One out later, Alou pinch-hit for winning pitcher Don Larsen and singled to right field to score Davenport.

Makes First Start
Rookie right-hander Frank Linzy made his first major league start for San Francisco

but was routed after giving up eight hits and three runs in two innings. The Giants peeked away at Red starter John Tsitouris and went ahead, 5-3, after Willie Mays hit his 28th homer with one on in the sixth and Willie McCovey socked his 34th with a man aboard in the seventh.

Vada Pinson's three-run homer in the bottom of the seventh gave the Reds the lead again but the Giants tied the score in the eighth.

Hank Aaron's grand slam homer in the seventh inning dealt the Dodgers their third straight loss. His wallop came off Don Drysdale, who went down to his 13th defeat against 15 victories.

In contrast to the Giants, the Dodgers have won only nine of their last 22 games.

Cards Also Gain

The third-place Cardinals also took advantage of the Dodgers' setback to move within four games of first place with a 3-2 victory over the Colts. The Phillies beat the Cubs twice, 7-2 and 9-3, to move into a virtual tie for fifth place, and the Mets downed the Pirates, 4-2.

Bob Gibson struck out 10 Colt batters and walked off with his 13th victory for the Cardinals when Bill White broke a 2-all tie by rapping his 21st homer in the seventh inning off loser Ken Johnson. Gibson and Johnson (6-16) each gave up eight hits.

Phils Take Two
Reliever Johnny Klippstein blanked the Cubs on two hits over the final 6 1-3 innings of the first game as the Phillies capitalized on three errors to beat Larry Jackson despite Ernie Banks' 18th homer. The Phils then came from behind to win the nightcap with the help of homers by Johnny Callison and Don Demeter.

East-West Stars

PENDLETON (UPI) — East and West Shrine football teams worked out today for their 12th annual benefit game Aug. 24.

The teams are drawn from smaller schools throughout the state. The East team is training at La Grande and the West team here.

Dennis Bennett (5-2) was the winner.

Alvin Jackson beat the Pirates for the first time in his career to post his eighth victory for the Mets with Larry Bearnath's aid in the eighth. The Mets wrapped up the game when they kayoed loser Don Schwall (6-7) during a two-run rally in the sixth. Frank Thomas and Donn Clendenon hit homers.

Former Hurler

Killed By Car

DANIA, Fla. (UPI) — Former major league pitcher Karl August Drews, 43, was struck and killed early today by a car that he tried to flag down for help when his own car stalled.

Drews, a righthander, pitched with the New York Yankees, St. Louis Browns, Philadelphia Phillies and Cincinnati Reds from 1946 to 1954, compiling a 44-53 won and lost record.

Police said Drews' car stalled at a construction area on the road and he got out to get help. His 17-year-old daughter, Geraldine, remained in the car.

3 million fire wardens!

This summer, the fire hazard in the Pacific Northwest is so great there simply aren't enough fulltime fire prevention people to handle the problem. They need your help!

The forests are littered with explosive blow-down—some 11 billion board feet of timber plus untold volumes of branches and debris felled by Columbus Day windstorms.

Warm summer weather has turned this windfall into "red slash"—a condition best compared with a four-week-old Christmas tree, ready to ignite with the slightest spark. This could result in some of the worst forest fires ever seen in this area. Millions of acres of productive forest lands could be lost. Whole communities are threatened. So more areas than usual have been closed by official agencies to reduce the hazard. These include public and private lands.

Here's what you can do. Please respect all fire closures. Warn visiting friends and relatives of the danger. When you go into the woods, stick to established camping areas. Watch your matches and cigarettes carefully and make sure they are out—really out. Build fires only in facilities provided for them. Never leave any fire unattended. When you leave, put it out completely and cover the ashes with earth.

With your cooperation it should be possible to prevent a major fire disaster this year.
