

Ex-Bums Hot In American; Mays Leads Giants To Victory

Williams Pitches Yankees To Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Ain't it just like those daffy Dodgers!

They can't do anything right in the National League but you ought to see them operate in the American.

Wait Alston undoubtedly will be delighted to know that two of his old buddies, Ed Roebuck and Don Zimmer, are performing exactly like pennant winners with Washington.

And the Dodger skipper also may break out in cheers to learn that another of his ex-employees, big Stan Williams, suddenly has become one of the hottest pitchers on the Yankees' staff.

Combined Efforts

Roebuck and Zimmer, each of whom send Alston best regards, combined their efforts Thursday to produce a 5-4 victory for the Senators against the Angels.

Zimmer had two hits and drove in two runs while Roebuck registered his first American League victory during a four-inning relief stint.

Williams, coming off a one-hitter in his previous start, fired a six-hitter against the Red Sox and struck out seven as he hurled the Yankees to a 10-2 triumph.

The former Dodger right-hander got most of his help from Johnny Blanchard.

Blanchard, subbing for the injured Roger Maris in right field, drove in six runs with a grand slam homer and a two-run homer.

Alston also may be interested in knowing that Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, sitting pretty with an 8½ game lead, now is playing his jayvees, possibly to let them earn their letters.

Linz Had Three

In addition to Blanchard's two blasts, Phil Linz, filling in for Tony Kubek, collected three of the Yankees' 13 hits, and part-timer Hector Lopez contributed a double and two singles. Boston's only extra base blow was Dick Stuart's 30th homer in the ninth inning.

Minnesota bombed Baltimore 13-3, and Detroit crushed Kansas City 11-1 in the only other American League games scheduled.

Rookie Jimmie Hall drove in five runs and Vic Power had four hits in the Twins' runaway against the Orioles. In addition to a pair of singles, Hall belted his 20th homer to tie a club record for homers by a left-handed hitter.

Had 16 Hits

Minnesota raked five Baltimore pitchers for 16 hits, including Don Mincher's 13th homer and Bob Allison's 26th that helped Lee Stange coast to his sixth victory. Losing pitcher Milt Pappas (11-8) was kayoed in the third inning.

The Tigers turned their game with the A's into a rout with seven runs in the fourth inning. Bill Bruton's bases-loaded single, fielder Bobby Del Greco's legs for a three base error, was the crusher that helped knock out loser Diego Segui.

Southpaw Hank Aguirre checked the A's on eight hits to even his season record at 11-11. Equally important to him was the fact that he singled home one of the Tigers' runs. He'll do that now and then — like once every three years.

Final Arguments In Butts' Suit Against Post Today

ATLANTA (UPI)—Final arguments in Wallace Butts' $10 million libel suit against the Saturday Evening Post began today and are expected to run so long that a federal judge has set Monday for their conclusion.

Both sides have two hours each to make their summations in the suit that has seen dramatic confrontations of coaches and college presidents in a costly controversy over whether the Post was truthful and justified in reporting that Butts gave away vital football secrets to a rival coach.

Butts, who served as football coach and then athletic director at the University of Georgia for nearly 25 years, sued the Post after the magazine reported in its March 23rd issue that he disclosed vital plays to Alabama coach Paul (Bear) Bryant nine days prior to the 1962 Alabama-Georgia game in which Alabama defeated Georgia 35 to 0. Alabama had been favored by 17 points in the season-opening contest.

Contents Conversation Heard

The Post contends that an Atlanta insurance man, George Burnett, overheard the telephone conversation through an electronic error.

Both Butts and Bryant have denied the Post story and Butts got on the witness stand for the third time Thursday to swear he is telling the truth.

Federal Judge Lewis R. Morgan said each side will have an hour to argue its side in today's session.

Then he will recess court until Monday when the arguments will be concluded and he will give his charge to the 12-man jury which for two weeks has heard testimony from a score of witnesses who have diagrammed plays on a blackboard and even took to the courtroom floor to explain such football maneuvers as the "pro set" and the "slot."

Butts was the final witness in his suit.

Resigned Last February

The roly poly little man who resigned last February as athletic director at Georgia prior to the publication of the magazine article was grim-faced as he faced the packed courtroom.

William Schroder, Butts' attorney, asked: "Is everything you have testified so far in this case true, so help you God?"

"Yes sir," Butts answered.

Other testimony in the windup of the trial put Dr. Frank Rose, president of the University of Alabama, on the stand and included the reading of a deposition by Chicago beer distributor Frank Scooby.

Rose said his investigation of the reported telephone conversation between Butts and Bryant showed Bryant received no helpful information from Butts.

Los Angeles Snaps Losing Streak

By United Press International

If you're interested in one good reason why the San Francisco Giants are giving the Los Angeles Dodgers another slow hot-foot, take a closer look at Willie Mays.

Wonderful Willie got off to a slow start this season and the Giants had trouble keeping pace with their California neighbors. But Mays is warming to his task again, and in the Giant scheme of things he's the man who keeps the fire burning.

Just three weeks ago today, Mays was hitting .277 with 22 home runs and 3 runs-batted-in. Respectable, but not up to par for a man with a .315 lifetime batting average. Oh, yes, San Francisco trailed the Dodgers by eight and one-half games at that time.

In big ways and small, Mays has lifted the Giants back into the race over the last few weeks. His latest contribution was a routine single that drove home two runs, including the winning tally, as San Francisco whipped the Cincinnati Reds 6-3 Thursday night.

Hitting .293

The Say-Hey Kid now sports a .293 mark with 29 homers and 73 RBI's. The Giants, coincidentally, have won 17 of their last 23 contests and trail Los Angeles by three games.

The Dodgers broke a three-game losing slump by overcoming the Milwaukee Braves 7-5 in the National League's only day game Thursday, and in other night contests the Houston Colts defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2, the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Chicago Cubs 4-3, and the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the New York Mets 8-2.

Cincinnati got off to a 1-0 lead on Vada Pinson's 15th home run in the first inning, but the Giants retaliated with four runs in the fifth to go ahead for good. Mays drove in the final two runs of the inning after Joe Nuxhall hit Willie McCovey with a pitch to load the bases. Tom Haller homered for the Giants in the sixth and they added another run in the eighth.

Sanford Pitched Five

Jack Sanford pitched only five innings for San Francisco, but it was enough to register his first triumph against the Reds since 1961. Billy Hoelt hurled scoreless ball over the final four innings to enable Sanford to even his season record at 12-12.

Strong relief pitching by Ron Perranoski enabled the Dodgers to top Milwaukee, Ace Los Angeles Southpaw Sandy Koufax was knocked out after just one-third of an inning, the damaging blow being a three-run homer by Gene Oliver. Tommy Davis slammed a two-run homer to give the Dodgers a 5-4 lead in the third and they scored the winning run on John Roseboro's sacrifice fly in the seventh.

A three-run homer by John Bateman provided the difference for Houston and the Cardinals added to their own downfall with careless baserunning. Don Nottebart gained credit for his seventh victory although he needed ninth inning help from Hal Woodeshick.

The Phillies rallied for four unearned runs after two were in the seventh to overcome a 3-0 Chicago lead built on Ellis Burton's three-run homer. Starter

OLDSTER GETS ACE

MINOCQUAN, Wis. (UPI)—Life can be sweet for an 83-year-old golfer when he scores an ace. Carl Hauser of Litchfield, Ill., holed out on the 151-yard second hole of the Minocquan Country club Thursday and finished a nine-hole round with a 51.

Cal McLish won his 12th game.

Don Cardwell went all the way for the Pirates to pick up his 10th triumph and he aided his own cause with a two-run single during a four-run uprising by Pittsburgh in the fourth inning. Starter Galen Cisco was the loser for the Mets.

Roseburg AL Nine Tops Billings

ROSEBURG (UPI)—Roseburg, Selah, Wash., and Lewiston, Idaho, picked up first round victories Thursday in opening action of the District 7 Regional American Legion Junior Baseball tournament here.

Roseburg, behind the pitching of Ran Cool and hitting of Jim Beamer, took an 8-4 win from Billings, Mont., in the third game before an estimated 3,000 fans.

Lewiston defeated Anchorage, Alaska, in a slugfest that ended 15-8, and Selah banged out 22 hits for an easy 16-1 victory over Cheyenne, Wyo.

In the first game Selah was never in any trouble. Don Waldhauer was the big hitter for the Washington entry, getting four hits in six tries and driving in four runs.

In the second game the Idahoans slammed 16 hits for 15 runs behind the batting of Jim Minnette and Jim Naslund. Both were three for five at the plate and each batted in three runs.

Roseburg was led by Ran Cool's pitching as he struck out 14 men. His battery mate, Beamer, helped him out with two hits in three tries, both of them triples.

Tonight, Roseburg plays Lewiston at 8:30 p.m., and Billings goes against Selah at 6 p.m. Cheyenne met Anchorage at 1:30 p.m.

The tourney is a double-elimination affair.

Cascade Blanks Portland, 9-0

PORTLAND (UPI)—Cascade blanked Local Loan of Portland 9-0 in state ABC baseball action Thursday night as Bud Edwards pitched a six-inning no-hitter. The game was called at that time because of tourney rules which say a team seven runs behind after five innings loses.

A. B. Smith of Portland edged Camas 4-2 in the other game.
