

July Bride Chooses Blue, White Theme

Patricia Ann Ambers chose a blue and white color scheme for the July 20 double ring ceremony in which she became the bride of L. Dale Stenseng.

The altar of Klamath Lutheran Church was flanked by beauty baskets of blue and white gladioli and pews were marked with light blue satin roses on a background of dark blue satin starbursts with cascading streamers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Ambers Sr. and was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Clara Stenseng, Clearbrook, Minn.

Chaplain William A. Thoresen of Kingsley Chapel officiated at the 2 p.m. service. Mrs. Alfred Sorensen was the organist. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davenport were soloists.

The bridal gown was of imported Chantilly lace with Queen Anne collar trimmed with pearls and sequins. A cascade of lace and tulle tiers swept into a chapel train. A pearl and crystal crown held the elbow length illusion veil and she carried a white cascade of roses and carnations.

The gift table was attended by Mrs. Robert Van Wyck and the guest book by Beverly Lloyd, Milwaukee, cousin of the bride. Packets of rice tied in blue net with blue satin ribbon and miniature wedding bands were given.

Joyce Ann Johnson was maid of honor, dressed in a dark blue tulle sheath with matching bell-shaped overskirt. Blue slippers and brief blue veil topped with satin rose completed her outfit. She wore white gloves and carried a cascade of light blue carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Greg Lundmark, Willamina, sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Donald Ambers, sister-in-law of the bride. Their frocks were light blue and white.

blue taffeta, styled like that of the honor attendant, and their flower girls wore dark blue carnations.

Greg Lundmark, Willamina, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Donald Ambers Jr., brother of the bride, and Robert Stenseng, Clearbrook, Minn., the bridegroom's brother. The ushers also served as candlelighters.

Mrs. Ambers chose for the ceremony a champagne lace dress with matching hat and shoes of rose pink. Mrs. Stenseng wore a light green linen dress with white accessories. Both mothers had pink rose corsages.

Blue and white gladioli were used for the reception decor in the church parlors. The five tiered wedding cake, decorated with blue roses and doves, was served by Mrs. Bob Arrington, Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. Charles Carty, Albany, aunts of the bride. Two other aunts, Mrs. Robert Robertson, Portland, and Mrs. Walter Ambers, this city, poured punch and coffee.
