Perranoski Saving Dodgers; Yanks Stretch Lead To Nine

Cardinals Topple SF Giants, 13-0

By United Press International

Ron Perranoski, who once dabbled in dramatic arts at Michigan State University, is playing a role worth about $250,000 to his Los Angeles Dodger teammates: Horatio at the bridge.

A 27-year-old left-hander from Petterson, N. J., Perranoski is just about all that remains of that once elite pitching staff which was supposed to carry the Dodgers to the National League pennant. You know, that super staff led by starters Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale and Johnny Podres.

Well, the Dodgers' big three have fallen on evil days and the Los Angeles lead would be down to nothing if it weren't for Perranoski.

Since Aug. 6, neither Koufax nor Podres has won a game and Drysdale has won one of two starts, during that period, the Dodgers have won four games — and Perranoski has been the winning pitcher in three of them, including a 9-7 victory over the New York Mets Friday night that enabled the Dodgers to go four games ahead of the San Francisco Giants.

Chance for Record

The victory raised Perranoski's record to 13-2 and means he has a reasonable shot at equalling Elroy Face's major league record of 18 wins in a season by a relief pitcher.

Perranoski picked up his second win in two days when the Dodgers rallied for three runs in the ninth inning with the aid of key hits by Willie Davis, Maury Wills and Jim Gilliam and a sacrifice fly by Ron Fairly.

The St. Louis Cardinals routed the Giants, 13-0, to move within five games of the Dodgers, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-0, the Cincinnati Reds beat the Chicago Cubs, 8-2, after a 10-1 loss and the Milwaukee Braves edged out the Houston Colts, 3-2, in other NL games.

Curt Simmons threw an eight-hit horsecollar around the Giants behind an 18-hit attack that included four hits by Ken Boyer, three by Bill White and two each by George Altman, Julian Javier, Tim McCarver and Simmons. The Cardinals' victory raised Simmons' record to 11-6 and dealt Jim Duffalo his second loss against four wins.

Tie For Fourth

Chris Short pitched an eight-hitter and struck out seven to win his fifth game for the Phillies, who went into a fourth-place tie with the Reds. Tony Taylor had a single and a triple and Johnny Callison and Roy Sievers had key doubles in the Phillies' 11-hit attack. The Phillies have won five in a row and 34 of their last 52 games.

Dick Ellsworth pitched a five-hitter for his 17th victory as Billy Williams and Ellis Burton had three hits each to lead the Cubs' 12-hit opening-game attack. The Reds gained a split, however, when Frank Robinson drove in four runs with a homer and a double to help Joey Jay win his fifth game against 16 defeats.

Gene Oliver's ninth-inning single scored Lee Maye with the winning run for the Braves, who had tied the score at 2-2 in the eighth inning on run-producing hits by Frank Bolling and Eddie Mathews. Bob Shaw, who shut out the Colts for two innings, won his fifth game while Houston relief star Hal Woodeshick suffered his seventh setback against 10 wins.

White Sox Fall To AL Leaders, 4-2

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Some dugout philosopher once said the Yankees break your leg first, then they amputate it.

They do the job with such thoroughness and dispatch that it usually doesn't hurt a bit. One-two-three and it's all over.

That's exactly the way they carved up poor Juan Pizarro and the White Sox Friday night in a 4-2 victory that ballooned their American League lead to a rather ridiculous looking nine games.

Pizarro had a 2-0 lead going into the ninth inning and all he needed for his 15th victory was three more outs. That's when the Yankees went to work on him.

Tom Tresh, Hector Lopez and Clete Boyer hit homers within a 10-minute span and bang, bang, bang — just like that — it was all over.

Tresh opened the ninth with his 20th homer and, after Elston Howard walked and Jack Reed ran for him, Lopez slugged his 13th homer into the left field stands to put the Yanks in front for the first time.

The shell-shocked Pizarro then yielded Boyer's 12th homer of the season to suffer his seventh defeat compared with 14 victories. Bill Kunkel, who relieved starter Whitey Ford in the eighth, picked up his third victory in four decisions. Ford gave up both Chicago runs. One was unearned and the other came on Pete Ward's 16th homer.

Twins Take Second

Minnesota moved into second place with a 7-5 win over Washington, Baltimore squeaked by Kansas City, 4-3, Boston beat Cleveland, 7-4, and Los Angeles defeated Detroit, 9-6.

Camilo Pascual won his 15th for the Twins although Garry Roggenburk had to throttle a Senator rally in the ninth. Pascual, who now sports a 9-0 lifetime record against the Senators, also had help from rookie Jimmie Hall, who hit his 21st homer and drove in three runs. Jim Duckworth (4-10 was the loser.

Shines In Relief

Stu Miller's fine relief pitching and Jim Gentile's 20th homer carried the Orioles to their victory over the Athletics. Gentile's homer off loser Orlando Pena (8-17) in the fifth inning turned out to be the winning run, with Miller holding the A's hitless over the final 3 2-3 innings to save Dave McNally's fifth win.

Homers by Felix Mantilla, Lou Clinton and Carl Yastrzemski powered the Red Sox to victory over the Indians as rookie Bob Heffner posted his third triumph with Dick Radatz' help in the ninth. John Romano and Larry Brown hit homers for Cleveland. Jack Kralick was the loser.

Little Albie Pearson scored four runs and ignited a winning three-run rally for the Angels with a seventh-inning double against the Tigers. Paul Foytack, last of three Los Angeles pitchers, was credited with the victory over his former teammates to bring his record to 5-5. Phil Regan, third of four Detroit pitchers, was the loser and his record now stands at 8-7.

Islanders Proving Franchise With Attendance, Victory

By United Press International

There is no longer doubt in the minds of Pacific Coast League officials about Hawaii. They know now they have a good thing in the Islander franchise.

In the past three years there was considerable doubt that the Islanders would cut it. However, the team is packing them in nightly and according to unofficial figures, they are leading the league in attendance. In the past week paid admissions totalling 10,710 and 7,142 were reported in two games. More than 4,000 have attended each of the last seven home games.

The Islanders should boost that mark as Tacoma, now in second place, moved in for a six game series Friday. Then the Islanders conclude their home season with northern division leaders Spokane.

Tacoma was 3½ games in front of Hawaii at the start of the series but the Islanders cut the margin to 2½ with a 10-3 victory over the Giants.

It was the sixth straight victory and 11th in the last 12 games to set a club record. A crowd of 5,611 witnessed the contest.

Hawaii jumped to a four run lead in the second and then tallied six in the eighth to ice the contest. Only one of the runs in the eighth was earned. John Pregenzer, third of four Tacoma hurlers had set down 10 straight batters before the roof fell in on him.

Jim McGlothlin garnered his fourth win against five losses in relief while Gerry Thomas took the loss, his 10th against 13 wins.

Oklahoma City, playing without manager Grady Hatton and catcher Jim Campbell, who were fined and suspended three days for a runin with umpire Dick Phillips Wednesday night at Dallas downed Salt Lake City 8-5, banging out 14 hits, one less than garnered by the Bees. The victory went to Ben Johnson who evened his record at 9-9 and Al Lary, first of two Bee hurler, got the loss, his 11th against nine victories.

Six of the 89er runs were unearned, George Williams had a triple, double and two singles to lead the attack with Bob Boyd getting a pair of doubles and a single.

Phil Ortega pitched and batted Spokane to a 12-1 win over Seattle before a fine crowd of 6,513 fans. Ortega had three hits, three runs batted in and chalked up his 10th win in 17 decisions. The Indians collected 12 hits, four walks and took advantage of three Rainier errors for eight unearned runs.

San Diego, with veteran Jim Owens going all the way, scored four runs in the third inning, enough for the victory. They came on five hits, a walk and an error.

Bobby Klaus had three runs batted in and Tommy Helms, Chico Ruiz, Deron Johnson and Jim Saul each had three hits.

Tonight the two teams play in Vancouver because Multnomah Stadium is being used for a football game.

Dallas-Ft. Worth lost ground in its battle for first place with Oklahoma City when it dropped an 8-5 decision to Denver. The Rangers were not under the direction of manager Jack McKeon, who is sitting out a three day suspension for an argument with an umpire.

Dick Kelley, Denver reliever, took the win with Bob Baillargeon absorbing the loss. Three runs in the first and another trio in the third gave the Bears the victory.

The Rangers now are a game and one-half behind Oklahoma City.

Roseburg Alone As Unbeaten

ROSEBURG (UPI) —Hard-hitting Roseburg was the only unbeaten team left in the American Legion regional baseball tournament here Saturday after walloping Lewiston, Idaho, 16-4 Friday night.

The host team collected 16 hits to record its second win on the second day of the six-team, double elimination tourney.

In other games Friday, Billings, Mont., defeated Selah, Wash., 6-1 and Anchorage, Alaska, topped Cheyenne, Wyo. 8-1 to oust the Wyoming team from the playoffs.

Billings met Anchorage at 6 p.m. and Lewiston took on Selah at 8:30 Saturday night. The losers will be eliminated.

Roseburg, which won over Billings 8-4 in its opening game, received seven-hit pitching from Dick Williams. Williams, who gave up only one earned run, struck out 20.

Williams and Jerry Boucock each had three hits apiece and Bob Manning drove in three runs with two hits for the Oregon team.

Gary Coatsworth pitched a four-hitter and struck out 15 for Billings, which came up with two runs in each of the last three innings.

Troy Gerzine and reliever John Crane gave up only six hits in hurling Anchorage's victory. The winners took a 5-0 lead with four runs in the seventh inning on five errors, two hits and a walk.

Mosby Resigns Post At Astoria

ASTORIA (UPI) — Jerry Mosby resigned Friday as athletic director and baseball coach at Astoria High School to take a job as basketball coach and physical education director at the Blue Mountain Community college at Pendleton.

Stagg Receives Many Messages

STOCKTON, Calif. (UPI)— Hundreds of congratulatory messages were read to Amos Alonzo Stagg, who celebrated his 101st birthday here quietly Friday.

Stagg, a coach for 70 years and inspiration to thousands of athletes, was unable to attend a mammoth party in his honor at Simpson's Restaurant in San Francisco.

But a cake with 101 candles was cut in his honor while dozens of his friends and admirers toasted football's grand old man, although the toasting was done with a non-alcoholic beverage. No liquor was served in honor of Stagg's lifelong abstainance.

Stagg made Walter Camp's first All-America team while an end at Yale. Most of his coaching was done at the University of Chicago and College (now university) of Pacific. He is credited with bringing to football such essentials as the T-formation, wingback formations, the forward pass and numbered uniforms.

Women Swimmers Shattering Marks

HIGH POINT, N.C. (UPI) — A bunch of school girls are rewriting the record books at the 1963 national AAU senior women's swimming and diving championships, and the most formidable of the set is a fresh-faced kid from Indianapolis, Ind.

Kathy Ellis, swimming unattached from Indianapolis, shocked spectators Friday with a world record-shattering performance in the 100-meter butterfly. She was clocked in 1:06.5 which was also good enough to eclipse both the American and national meet marks.

The old world record of 1:07.3 was set by Margie Stewart of the Canadian Dolphins, Vancouver, B.C. Margie set the world, national and American marks in the 1962 AAU meet in Chicago, but failed to qualify for the finals in her specialty Friday.

Kathy shares the swim spotlight today with other teen-age swimmers from California, New Jersey, Virginia and a rival from Indianapolis—all of them double winners this year.

So tough is the competition here, in fact, that six national and American marks have fallen, along with a citizen's record. Add Kathy's world record to that and it's quite a showing. All of the records, incidentally, have been set by teen-agers.

Donna DeVarona, 16-year-old star performer from the Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club, Robyn Johnson of the Northern Virginia Acquatic Club in Arlington, Va., and Jean Dellakamp of the Indianapolis A.C. joined the select circle of double winners Friday.

Donna splashed to an American and national meet record in the 400-meter individual medley, finishing in 2:31.8. That was 1.5 seconds better than the records she set in the same event last year.

Donna duplicated the record-setting performance Thursday by winning the shorter, 200-meter individual medley.

Robyn, the oldest of the youngsters at 17, flashed under the wire in 4:46.8 Friday to win the 400-meter freestyle and a second gold medal. She had won the 100-meter freestyle title Thursday.

Jean picked up her second win of the meet in the 100-meter breast stroke with a time of 1:20.7 —good enough to shatter the 1962 citizen's record of 1:22.2 set by Alice Driscoll of Lakeside Swim Club of Louisville, Ky., last year.

Jean, 16, also won the 200-meter breast stroke Thursday.

The fourth double winner is Ginnie Duenkel, 16, of the Summit, N.J., YMCA, who won the 1,500-meter freestyle Wednesday and set a national and American record in the 200-meter backstroke Thursday.

Jan Ferraris Wins Golf Title

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — Janis Ferraris of San Francisco, Calif., defeated Peggy Conley of Spokane, Wash., Friday, 2 up for the 1963 National Girls Junior Amateur golf title.

The two West Coast 16-year-olds said they would play in the Women's National Amateur championships opening at Williamstown, Mass., Monday.

Miss Ferraris, who shot a one-over-par 73 in the 18-hole championship round, appeared nervous at the 17th hole when she chipped to the back edge of the green and missed a 25-foot putt.

Miss Conley also had trouble in the 17th when she missed a 15-foot putt that would have evened the match for the final hole.

On the 18th, Miss Conley bogied while Miss Ferraris parred in 4 to win the match.

Oahu Advances To Pony Finals

VICTORIA, B.C. (UPI) — Oahu of Hawaii has moved into the finals of the regional Pony League baseball tournament here downing Seattle 12-2 in Friday's only game.

Hawaii met Victoria in the finals of the double elimination tournament this afternoon.

The host Victoria team is heavily favored to take the tournament —it has two straight victories, including an 8-3 win over Hawaii.

The Hawaiian team had several stars in Friday's contest. Pitcher Wayne Ho limited Seattle to four hits while striking out 12 batters. Gary Ikemoto and Michael Yonekawa led the island team's 16-hit attack...each had four hits. Raymond Chong provided Hawaii's power with two-ground-rule doubles.

Seattle's loss eliminated them from the tournament as they had been stopped earlier by Victoria. The fourth team in the tournament, Richland, Wash., was eliminated Thursday.
