

Hot Summer Days Bring Much Splashing In Local Swimming Pools

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News
Sunday, Aug. 18, 1963

Today's page tells the story of hot days, cool water and much fun. Enjoying the Estlin Balsiger pool above, left to right, are Alice Hunsaker, Debbie Pierce, Gary Pierce and John Hosley.

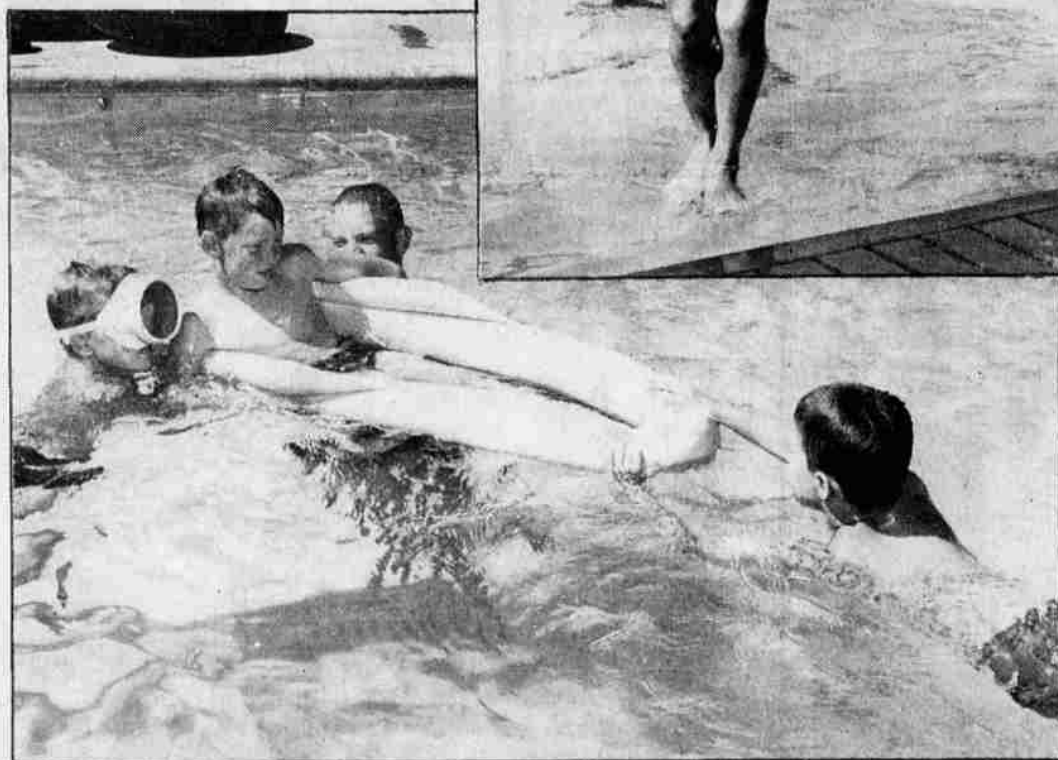

At right, John Quinn appears to walk on water of the pool at the Jerry Rainwater home. Partially hidden by John's jump from the deck are Dick Quinn and Rick Rainwater. Mike Rainwater is at right.

Activity in the Charles Bailey pool is pictured at top right. Tim Bailey, on pool edge, and Rolland Bailey, in water, watch Ann Bailey dive. In foreground are Joyce Parr, Kim Taylor and Ramona Goddard.

At right, double jump is made into the pool at the Julian Eccles home by Ralph Eccles, left, and Bill Jones.

Four having fun in the Balsiger pool at left, from the left, are Mark Pullium, Mark Hosley, Bill Balsiger and Dan Hull.

Before a plunge into the Eccles' pool, Jill Eccles, right, assists Anne Morrison with her pretty flowered swim cap.

At far left, Dan Balsiger lends a helping hand to brother John.

Mrs. Julian Eccles in the picture at left watches fast game of water jai-a-lai between Reed Morrison, left, and Ted Eccles.

— Photos by Kettler