

Klamath Team Battles Joplin In First Round Contest

Nationals Have Tough Chore Facing Them In Rugged Missouri Charges

FARMINGTON, N.M. — Klamath Basin's All-Star Babe Ruth team today was anxiously awaiting its turn to play Tuesday at noon against Joplin, Mo., in the Babe Ruth World Series Tournament, named for the greatest baseball player that ever lived.

The Basin team is only one of 10 teams competing for the coveted title of World Champions. Four of the 10 teams saw action today in the opening round. Host Farmington battles Frankfurt, Germany, in the 6 o'clock game tonight and Atlanta of the South-east pits its forces against the ability of Oak Lawn, Ill., in the 8:30 game.

Klamath's crew arrived Saturday night to a tumultuous reception by the townspeople, the mayor, fire department and police. They had a short workout Sunday afternoon to sharpen their reflexes. The boys are quartered in homes of Farmington residents while coaches Bob Moore, Harold Howard and Dave Saks are at the El Camino Lodge.

Gaining a spot in the World Series has already been a great honor for the Basin stars. But they hope that it will not end there, for they hope to return to Klamath Falls with the world title.

They have not forgotten that they are against the top teams in the world. They are one crew of 10 that beat out others counting past 2,000 to get to the tournament.

Klamath's first chance comes Tuesday when they take on Joplin, which is one of the three teams in the tournament that has been here before. Joplin was in the World Series in 1954 and 1958. Tulsa, Okla., and Oakland, Calif., are the other two clubs which have been here before.

The National Stars will not have an easy task in their opening Joplin and Missouri in general, is good baseball country. The Boyer clan, several of whom now play major league ball, proves that. Clotis Boyer, now third baseman for the Yankees, played in this tournament, as did many others who now play in the majors. Moore's probable lineup will look like the other lineups he had in the regionals. His own boy, Bob Jr., will open on the mound. Bob Williams will be behind the plate receiving his offerings, Greg

Froehling Upset In Net Tourney

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI)—Great Britain's Roger Taylor and Ian Crookenden of New Zealand upset the top-seeded American and foreigner Saturday to reach the final round of the 82nd annual Newport Casino tennis tournament. It took Taylor, ranked third in Great Britain, 38 games to defeat Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., America's No. 2 netman, 1-6, 6-0, 4-6, 6-3, 14-12 in a match which took more than 2½ hours. Froehling was top-seeded among Americans.

The Missouri lineup was not known as this was written. The other teams in the tournament are Puerto Rico, Frederick, Md., Tulsa, Okla., Calif., and the others mentioned.

The next probable opponent for the Klamath team will be according to how it fares in the first outing. If Klamath wins against Joplin, its next foe will be the winner of the Tulsa and winner of the Farmington-Germany game. If Klamath loses, it will play the loser of the Atlanta-Oak Lawn game in the loser's bracket. This is a double elimination meet, so one loss is all the Klamath team can afford. The second one puts it out of the tournament.

Alston Feels Dodgers 'In' As NL Champs

By United Press International

Once bitten, twice shy. Maybe that's the reason cautious Walt Alston shies away from any pennant talk even though his Los Angeles Dodgers seem to feel they're "in" with a six-game lead and only six more weeks to go.

The Dodgers said good-bye for all time Sunday to the Polo Grounds with a 7-0 and 3-2 sweep of the New York Mets.

One of the Dodgers let the team's feelings be known when he left a clubhouse note which said:

"We'll see you again at Yankee Stadium the first week in October."

Alston, still scarred from last year's loss, said absolutely nothing about the pennant apart from the time-honored, "Well just keep playing one game at a time."

The Dodger skipper wouldn't even say for sure that his club has snapped its batting slump despite five straight victories.

"Let's see," he pondered, "we scored 22 runs in the last four games. Well, at least that's more than we've been getting lately."

Pleased By Pitching

Alston, however, was pleased by the Dodgers' pitching Sunday.

Don Drysdale hurled a three-hit shutout for his 16th victory in the opener and rookie Dick Carius pitched five scoreless innings in relief of Pete Richert to earn his second triumph in the nightcap.

Doug Camilli hit a two-run homer in the first game and Tommy Davis drove in two runs in each contest as the Dodgers gained a full game on both the Giants and Cardinals, who were rained out.

The fourth-place Phillies won their seventh in a row by defeating the Pirates, 3-1. The Braves beat the Colts, 3-2 and the Cubs took two from the Reds, 2-1 and 4-0.

Phil's Score Early

The Phillies tagged Don Schwall for two runs in the first inning on a pair of walks and two singles and went on to defeat the Pirates on Johnny Klippstein's fine relief job. Klippstein took over when starter Ray Culp came up with a sore arm in the third inning and shut out Pittsburgh the rest of the way.

Warren Spahn, set on winning 20 games for the 13th time in his career, got No. 15 with a seven-inning shutout against the Braves. The Braves nipped loser Skyny Brown for two runs in the fourth.

and Roy McMillan singled home the winning run in the seventh. The Cubs' two victories over the Reds gave them a total of 64 for the season and matched their highest win total for any year since 1959.

Lindy McDaniel saved Larry Jackson's 14th victory in the opener when he entered the game with the bases full in the eighth inning and struck out Frank Robinson and Gordy Coleman and got John Edwards on an infield out. Jim Maloney suffered his fifth defeat against 18 victories.

Paul Toth blanked the Reds on four hits for his fourth win in the nightcap. Billy Williams and Lou Brock homered off loser John Tsitouris.

Armstead, Lane
Headline Card

SAGINAW, Mich. (UPI)—Paul Armstead of Los Angeles and Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., the top two contenders for the world lightweight crown, battle here tonight for the "Michigan version" of the title.

The World Boxing Association gave Carlos Ortiz of New York the lightweight crown back Sunday and ordered him to sign for a bout against the Lane-Armstead winner within 60 days "unless the terms and conditions imposed on the champ are unfair."

But Michigan boxing commissioner David Gudelsky, who has pulled Michigan out of the WBA, says, "As far as we're concerned the WBA doesn't exist, and the winner of the Lane-Armstead fight is the world champion."

Last June the WBA stripped Ortiz of his crown because of his refusal to defend against top contender Lane. But while the executive committee and championship regulations committee took the action, the ratings committee continued to recognize Ortiz as world champion.

Yankees Out To Grab Flag By History's Biggest Margin

By United Press International

Now that the Yankees have settled one race, they've started another to see if they can win the pennant by the largest margin in American League history.

They lead now by 10½ and have 41 more games left in which to break the modern AL record of 19½ set by the 1936 Yankees.

The current Yankees kid each other about that mark.

"If those guys could win by 19½," they laugh, "we can win by 20."

They could, too, if they maintain their present rate of 10 victories in the last 13 games.

Even such a staunch die-hard as Al Lopez couldn't voice much hope for flagging down the Yankees after they swept a pair from his White Sox, 8-2, and 8-4, Sunday.

The Yankees hopped on Ray Herbert and four relievers for 12 hits, including Hector Lopez' 14th homer, in the opener, then came back with an 11-hit barrage in the nightcap. Elston Howard led the second game onslaught with a homer, double and two singles.

Ralph Terry (14-12) and Jim Bouton (16-6) were the winning pitchers although each needed relief.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Senators topped the Twins, 7-3, the Athletics beat the Orioles, 5-4, the Indians downed the Red Sox, 7-4, and the Tigers defeated the Angels, 3-2.

Two home runs by Don Zimmer and a three-run blast by Don Leppert helped the Senators beat the Twins. Those three blows overcame Minnesota homers by Rich Rollins and Jimmie Hall and brought Steve Ridenik his fourth victory. Garry Roggenburk was the loser in relief to Jim Perry.

The Athletics rocked Robin Roberts for four runs in the first inning and held on the rest of the way as Dave Wickersham scored his ninth victory. Jerry Lumpe's two-run homer was KC's key blow in the first inning. Wickersham held the Orioles scoreless until Brooks Robinson jolted him for a three-run homer in the eighth.

Cleveland catcher Joe Azcue celebrated his 24th birthday with two homers and a double against 10-0 B on Willie Kirkland also homered for the Indians to help Jim (Mudcat) Grant register his ninth triumph in 20 decisions.

Grant gave up eight hits, including a homer by Bob Tiltman. Dave Morehead (7-10) was the loser.

Don Mossi took over for starter Al Koch in the fourth inning and blanked the Angels on two hits thereafter to gain his sixth victory for the Tigers. Koch, who was tagged for a homer by Al Moran and allowed seven hits in 2 2-3 innings, had the consolation of driving in the winning run with a fourth-inning single off loser Dean Chance.
