South Plays For Break

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
The last few columns have covered favorable assumptions from Marshall Mills' new book "All Fifty-two Cards." Declarer must find certain cards where he wants them, and he will make his contract only if the cards behave nicely.

Another type assumption is the pessimistic outlook. The contract looks easy, so you start to guard against bad breaks.

Now let's see what can happen to you at five hearts. The contract looks pretty good. You have lost the opening spade but can ruff your other spade and it trumps break favorably you will make an overtrick.

You also have no worries about a 3-1 trump break. You will only make five odd if you don't pick up the queen, but five is all you have bid.

How about four trumps in one hand. East almost surely won't hold them, but maybe West will. Can you do anything about this? Yes, you can.

You win East's club lead with your queen and lead a heart. Then you finesse dummy's jack. If the finesse loses you will still make your contract. Actually it wins, but East shows out. Now you cash the king of hearts, get back to your hand with a diamond, ruff your last spade, and lose a trump trick in the cool of the evening.

Suppose that East had led a spade at trick two? You should ruff in dummy, return to your hand with club or diamond, and take the heart finesse just the same in order to guard against that bad trump break.

Learn about bad breaks and how to change them with a copy of "Win at Bridge." Just send your name, address, and 50 cents to: Oswald Jacoby Reader Service, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N.Y.

Wampler Eyes Post

OREGON CITY (UPI)—Robert H. Wampler, an unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1962, said Tuesday he would seek the Republican nomination for Clackamas County sheriff in 1964.

Wampler, 47, was an Oregon state policeman from 1940 to 1951, and from 1956 to 1958, when he was dismissed on charges of insubordination.

A court appeal of his dismissal ended with a declaration by the Oregon Supreme Court that it did not have jurisdiction.

Police Arrest Young 'Artist'

PORTLAND (UPI)—A second 16-year-old Portland youth, described by juvenile authorities as "a brilliant artist," was charged with forgery of Oregon vehicle operators licenses Monday.

Investigation into juvenile forgers began Saturday with the arrest of a 16-year-old youth who attempted to pass a forged check at a Lloyd Center store here.

Detectives said the boy's only tools were blank art paper and a ball point pen with green ink. Both boys are Grant High School students.

Mormons Slate Giant Confab

PROVO, Utah (UPI)—Bruce Kelly, director of the famous Forest Grove Gleemen singing group, will be master of ceremonies at a special talent show during the first international Explorer conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Kelly will arrive in Provo Monday for the talent show that night in the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse.

More than 4,000 young people from all parts of the United States, Canada, Mexico, Great Britain, Japan, and South America are expected to attend.

Speaker at the opening session Friday will be R. Sargent Shriver, director of the Peace Corps.

Hearing Slated On Crop Charge

PORTLAND (UPI)—The State Sentencing Authority said today it would hold a public hearing here at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 1 into allegations that floodwaters from Harvey Aluminum Co. at The Dalles are causing damage to crops.

At a meeting of legal counsel here today, hearing chairman John Nichols ruled he would accept petitions to intervene by livestock, fruit and tree growing interests in Wasco County.
