

Babe Ruth All Stars Lose To Tulsa, 9-2; Battle Oakland

FARMINGTON, N.M. — Klamath Falls' fighting Babe Ruth team came up with too little, too late Wednesday afternoon in the second round of the Babe Ruth World Series when they failed to solve the soft curve offerings of southpaw Eli Gourd and went down to defeat 9-2. The Nationals battled the Oakland, Calif., team today in the loser's bracket game at 2:30 p.m. with the loser getting the long ride home and the winner continuing life in the tournament.

Coach Bob Moore will start his son, Bob Jr., in an attempt to move the Klamath team into the winner's circle again. "It took us six innings to solve that pitcher's offerings," Moore said. "We hit the ball well but it just would not drop in for us until the sixth inning. We were too late then I guess I went too long with Bobby (Williams) but you just don't give up on a kid like him. He has been that way a few times before and pitched his way out of it. He just didn't have it today," he related. "We are disappointed in the early going of the game in the way we played, but we came on in the last few innings and played good ball. Some of the balls we hit were right on the nose but right at someone," he said.

Klamath has played better baseball games this year, Williams has pitched better games and the kids have hit better. But despite the four errors they committed, they were beaten by a better team on this particular night. Tulsa had its hitting bats for this game. They had very nearly been no-hit Tuesday night by a fired up host Farmington team before winning in the last of the seventh with two out when a Farmington outfielder dropped a fly ball to right field and allowed both runs to score in a 2-1 victory which was sheer robbery.

Gourd in return had served up his sweeping slow curve ball for five full innings without the Klamath team getting a hit. He had set the Oregonians down in order for four straight innings. He had allowed only a walk to Bob Moore in the first inning.

Kim Badley broke up that no-hitter in the sixth when he led off with a double. Williams who just his first game of the season, simply didn't have his stuff in this game. He was in trouble from the beginning and some of the fielding behind him wasn't the best.

A double play got him out of a possible jam in the first inning. Klamath did not threaten in the first although Moore reached first on the free pass. Dave Lyman popped out for the third out. Oklahoma threatened in the second but did not score and left the bags jammed when Alan Mezger pulled down a long drive to center field with a line running catch with his back to the plate. Tulsa got its first run in the third frame. After Gary Marrs fled out to center, Dickie Ashby slapped a single to right. Williams got Jerry Hill to fly out to left but Bob Banfield, who went three for three, drove a double to deep center field which the wind caught and caused a misjudgment by Mezger in center. It cleared his head for a double to score. Aldred Lyman made a fine catch of a pop-up behind home plate to finish the inning.

Gourd continued his mastery over Klamath although Moore and Lyman drove deep fly balls to the outfield which were pulled down. The lid blew off in the top of the fourth when the Sooners played four runs for the winning margin. Williams got Mike Barkley on a strikeout but walked opposed batter Gourd. Catcher Rick Amilian stroked a single to the left on an 8-2 pitch and Marrs followed with another single to left to score Gourd. After getting Aldred to pop up to Rick Brostehous at second, Hill picked on a 1-0 pitch of Williams and drove it over the right field fence for a three-run homer with the aid of the still wind which also brought intermittent rain. Klamath was unable to make up that margin.

Lyman replaced Williams to strike the third man out, but was not that fortunate in the sixth. Marrs singled, Aldred reached first on an error, as did Hill, both by shortstop Russ Smith. Banfield then drove a two-run single to

Klamath came up with its first run and broke up Gourd's no-hitter when Badley led off the sixth with his straightaway double to center. Centerfielder Marrs tried to get to the ball on the line drive to save Gourd's no-hit game but it dropped in front of him and got by for the double. Steve Huettl, batting for Smith, walked. Rick Brostehous lashed a single to left to score Badley for the first run. Mike McNary grounded to pitcher Gourd who threw to third to get Huettl out. Moore then hit what was probably the longest ball of the tournament when he drove a Gourd pitch to deepest centerfield, 360 feet away, which the centerfielder caught against the fence and then pegged perfectly to second to get McNary going to second after the catch for the double play.

The final run came in the seventh with a big rally which fell off with just one run scoring. Lyman led off the inning with a single and Williams and Kenny Pound made outs. Greg Brostehous kept things alive with a booming double to left center but a fine play held Lyman at third. Badley walked to fill the bags and Mike Keck hit for Huettl and drew another walk to force home the second run. Rick Brostehous finished the threat with a liner right back at the pitcher.

Medo-Bels Open Playoffs; Host Scott Valley Sunday

Klamath Falls' Medo-Bels go after new laurels Sunday afternoon when they play host to Scott Valley to begin a sudden-death playoff for the President's Cup in the Northern California League.

The Medo-Bels won the league season, edging Weed in the standings when they won their final game of the regular season and Weed lost.

Hi Hatfield indicated that Blake Griggs would be ready to go on the mound for the Medo-Bels on Sunday. Lineup for the local club will include Griggs pitching, Tony Sellar behind the plate, Dean Dunson first base, Jim Keller, second; Ron Owens, third; Sherrn Allen, short. The outfield will find Don Greesel in left, John Bianchi in center and Ray Taylor in right.

Bill Mansfield will be available for relief duty.

Game time for the clash is 2 p.m. at Gem Stadium.

The winner of this Sunday game will play the victor in the Weed-Dunsmuir game in the finals.

It's a complete sudden death playoff for the cup, Hatfield indicated, adding, "One loss and you're out."

Commenting on the club, Hatfield said, "We've got an excellent bunch of ball players, and we certainly hope the fans come out Sunday to boost them on to victory."

Provides Winning Margin

Pepitone had better luck with his bat than with his fists since it was his two-run double in the first inning of the nightcap that provided Williams with his winning margin. Tom Tresh banged two doubles to figure in all the Yankee scoring in the opener.

Steve Barber went only 5-2-3 in the first game for Baltimore but still received credit for his 11th victory, top figure in the league. The Orioles broke the game open with six runs in the second inning. A seventh-inning pinch-hit single by Bob Rodgers drove in the winning Los Angeles run in the second contest.

Rookie Gary Peters won his ninth straight game for the White Sox. He received ample support from Tom Meraw with four hits and Pete Ward, who had a home run.

Don Lock and Don Zimmer each blasted home runs and Ron Moeller picked up his first win of the year for Washington although he needed relief help from veteran Ed Roebuck.

The Twins scored eight runs in the fourth inning and added four more in the fifth to make it a downhill job for Camilo Pascual to gain his 10th victory against six defeats.
