

Lakeview Pioneer Family Has Reunion

LAKEVIEW—A family reunion for descendants of one of Lake County's pioneer couples, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harvey, was held in late July.

The two-day event included a social afternoon Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerber, where the large family group gathered from far and near to visit and reminisce, a cocktail hour and dinner party Saturday evening at Hunter's Lodge Mural Room, and an open-house family picnic on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hank Keupel.

Jane Goodman, who married "Bud" Harvey on Jan. 28, 1885, was born in a covered wagon while her parents were crossing the plains to Oregon. Her husband was born in Pike County, Mo., and came to Lakeview in 1876 at the age of 22. Bud was a freighter in the early days and stayed with his six and eight horse teams until the railroad came to town. He freighted from Reno, Red Bluff, Redding, anywhere that freight for Lakeview originated. Later he hauled supplies to sheep camps and cattle ranches and did general hauling around town. He was away from home for many weeks at a time. He died in 1937 and his wife in 1940.

Of the twelve children born to the couple there were eight present for the reunion. Charlie and Virgil are deceased. In Lakeview during the weekend were Margaret Hartig of Crescent City; Nellie B. Graves of Nampa, Idaho; Winifred Barbara Morrison of Alameda, Calif.; William R. Harvey, Nevada City, Calif.; Pearl Hendrickson, San Carlos, Calif.; Walter Perry Harvey, Lakeview; Rita Martin, Oakland, Calif.; and Irma L. Graham, Seattle, Wash. Unable to be present were Warren Harvey (twin brother of Walter), of Richmond, Calif., and Ole Stanley of Stockton, Calif.

DON'T FORGET PLANTS

Planning a "quickie" vacation or trip? Don't forget your indoor house plants will need watering while you are away. The Society of American Florists suggests you place plants on thoroughly soaked bath towels in the bath, kitchen sink, or laundry tub. Set the faucet so one drop of water will fall every few seconds on the bath towels. They will conduct the moisture to the plant's soil through the hole in the bottom of the pot.

Beauty Splash Is Skin Treat

By ALICE HART

The bath is enjoying a renaissance. In its heyday, bathing was to Roman business what expense account dining is to Madison Ave.

use. The Romans appreciated the pleasure of discussing business and personal affairs while luxuriating in perfumed baths and invigorating steam rooms.

Then came the dark days when British kings and queens boasted that they bathed but once or twice in a lifetime.

But now the daily scrub has become so important in our society that many husbands must suspect their wives spend more for soap than for sustenance.

History and the pocketbook aside, bathing is an integral part of any woman's beauty routine. At this point in the sunning season, it is even more important. Your skin needs special treatment to offset the drying ravages of sun's rays and salt or chlorine in water. Your nerves, too, need a respite from the "boiling-broiling" state produced by infinite cookouts, hot days and the rush of children through the home.

Set aside 20 minutes a day—in the morning and 10 at night—to wash away some of that tension and give your complexion a boost.

For an invigorating scrub, you will need a sponge, long-handled brush or loofah scrubber, soap and a thick, soft towel. Use a bath oil in the water to help maintain the proper moisture balance in your skin.

Couple Wed In Portland

Carole Dianne Siegner, Portland, and Roger Kenneth Sawyer, Sweet Home, were married Aug. 10 at the Community Church of Cedar Hills, Portland.

The bride is the daughter of former Klamath Falls residents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Siegner, and is a graduate of Klamath Union High School.

The Rev. W. J. McGettigan officiated at the ceremony. Church decorations were white and peach gladioli and white tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of silk organza with Sabrina neckline and full skirt ending in a chapel train. The bodice and skirt front were accented with appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace with touches of seed pearls and crystal beads. A shoulder length veil was held by crown of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid which she wore on her going away outfit. She carried an heirloom lace handkerchief made over 100 years ago by her great-great-grandmother.

Mrs. Charles Kujawski, Klamath Falls, was matron of honor. Her frock was of orange sherbert organza over taffeta with full overskirt. Her flowers were white gladioli with a peach accent.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Reiling, formerly of this city, and Margaret Starr, Newberg. Margaret Collins, Springfield, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

They were dressed like the honor attendant and carried cascades of peach gladioli.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hall, Anaheim, Calif. His best man was his brother, Glenn Sawyer, Sweet Home. Ushers were David Atkinson, David Horner, Stephen Gilbert, all of Sweet Home.

Mrs. John Cramer was the organist.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Assisting were Mrs. Harley Schwarz, Missoula, Mont.; Mrs. Ivan Collins, Springfield, Mrs. W. D. Siegner and Mrs. L. E. Cassidy, both of Portland, Mrs. Alan Siegner, Corvallis, Peggy Hall, Anaheim, and Gene Collins, Springfield.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bride's parents at their home in Cedar Hills.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer will make their home at 985 Sycamore Drive in Corvallis while attending Oregon State University.

Party Fun

SUMMER LAKE — Mary Lenninger entertained teen-age friends with a party at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Hand, Saturday evening, Aug. 17. A treasure hunt, relay races, and dancing were followed with refreshments near midnight.

Guests included Linda Penington, Eric Nelson, Dan Thompson, Chris Jones, Doug Clark, Terry Ann, Janice, and Elaine Foster, Velma and Jimmy Roper, Jack DeLarm and Edna Vernon, Paisley, Marvin and Ronnie Markus and Dave Mercer of Silver Lake.

Birthday

MAJIN — Five candles marked the age of little Mary Ann Smalley, on her birthday, Aug. 12, when she was honored with a lawn party.

Seven little guests helped her enjoy the day, by playing games and bringing gifts. Birthday cake was served to Tommy, Louann and Diane Reeves, Gary and Kimberly Derry, Mark and David Womack.

Others present were Mrs. Jerry Derry, Mrs. Dick Reeves, Mrs. George Smalley, Mrs. Dick Derry, Mrs. Dan McAuliffe and Janice McAuliffe, and Mary Ann's mother, Mrs. Jerry Smalley.
