Meehan-Elliott Wedding In Roseburg

LAKEVIEW—The wedding ceremony uniting Carol Mae Meehan of Roseburg and David Charles Elliott of Lakeview, was performed by the Rev. John Adams recently, at four o'clock in the afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church at Roseburg.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Meehan of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Carl Lange and Thomas L. Elliott of Lakeview.

Organist was Mrs. Homer Crow and soloist, Danny Fromdahl. The double ring ceremony was performed against a background of white gladioli and daisies in floor baskets, and the traditional candelabra. The aisle bows were of white satin decorated with orange blossoms and tulle in apricot shade.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza fashioned with full length bouffant skirt which flowed into a chapel train. The lace bodice had a round neckline and long sleeves were pointed at the wrist. The fingertip length veil was secured by a pearl-studded, petal type headpiece. Her bouquet included a white orchid in a cluster of stephanotis and white streamers. A family heirloom pearl necklace was a gift from the groom.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Frank Webster Jr., of Eugene. Bridesmaids were Anne Kilkenny of Walnut Creek, Calif.; Karen Guldager of Eugene; and Marcia Holmer of Anaheim, Calif., a sorority sister. They wore identical frocks of apricot-colored tulle in sheath style with round neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The short-veiled headpieces and shoes matched the dresses. All carried white gladioli arm bouquets.

Candlelighters were Glenn Vandergaw of Lakeview and Mrs. Jim Holloway of Canoga Park, Calif. Flower girls were Terri Webster of Eugene and Lori Meehan of Costa Mesa, Calif., nieces of the bride.

Best man was Gordon Elliott, brother of the groom, from Springfield. Ushers were Ted Story, stepbrother of the groom, Cook Laird, both of Lakeview, Jack Kopacz of Ashland, Thomas C. Meehan of Costa Mesa, Calif., brother of the bride, and Frank Webster Jr., of Eugene, brother-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Meehan's costume was a light blue lace sheath with matching slippers and white elbow-length gloves. Her corsage was of white gardenias. Mrs. Lange wore a beige silk sheath with matching accessories, and a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Belle Gordon, grandmother of the groom, wore a blue silk sheath, with a corsage of white gladioli.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sheldon of Mount Shasta announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda, to Robert C. Zucatis, of Sacramento. No wedding date has been set. The bride-elect is a graduate of College of the Siskiyous and Heald's Business College in Sacramento. She is presently employed by a Sacramento insurance firm. Her future husband is stationed at Mather Air Force Base, near Sacramento, where he is studying at Sacramento College. He is the son of Mrs. Margaret Roberts of Sacramento and Frank J. Beauty Tips

from ME to YOU

MARY MARTIN

Don't forget the art of brushing — Brush your hair often. Remember it stimulates and encourages scalp circulation and loosens and removes flakes. Brush your hair in the opposite direction from the way you wear your hair. Oily hair needs brushing for it aids distribution of oil and disperses it down to the dry ends and prevents concentration of oil at the roots.
