

Toxic Pesticide Kills Steelhead

PORTLAND (UPI)—A highly toxic chemical pesticide has killed almost the entire population of more than 70,000 young steelhead in the Oregon Game Commission's Whistler's Bend impoundment, the commission said today.

The experimental rearing pond is located on the North Umpqua River in southwestern Oregon.

Phil Schneider, game commission director, said the young steelhead were stocked in the impoundment in April to grow to migratory size. They were scheduled for release in the Umpqua system in the spring of 1964.

The chemical was identified as dieldrin which has a long life expectancy, Schneider said. The kill was so complete that biologists said less than 1,000 fingerlings remain in the pond. The toxic hydrocarbon was still present, and there was little hope for any survival, he said.

Possible sources of the chemical, Schneider said, were found to be a grasshopper control on the watershed from four to seven years ago, spraying of pasture lands adjacent to the impoundment, or the widespread application of dieldrin in the Glendale area in 1962.

Aldrin is an insecticide which breaks down to dieldrin.

Houston Blanks Cards

HOUSTON (UPI)—Ageless Hal Brown's four-hit pitching and timely hitting by rookies Rusty Staub and John Bateman powered the Houston Astros to a 4-0 win Saturday night over St. Louis and stalled the Cards' bid to overhaul league-leading Los Angeles.

Houston's second-largest crowd of the season and the largest ever to see the Cardinals, 23,119, honored St. Louis' Stan Musial in special pre-game ceremonies.

A life-size statue of Dick Kerr, lifelong friend of Musial and honest hero of the scandalized 1919 World Series, will be erected in Houston's new domed stadium in Musial's honor.

The game was a pitcher's battle between the 38-year-old Brown and St. Louis' Ron Taylor for six innings. The Cards broke the ice in the seventh on Pete Runnels' lead-off single, a Card error and Staub's screaming line double off Bill White's glove at first scoring Runnels.

Milwaukee Slips Past Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Bob Shaw's clutch relief pitching halted a Dodger rally in an uneventful seventh inning and spared Denver Lemaster and the Milwaukee Braves a 2-1 victory over Los Angeles Saturday night.

Despite their third consecutive loss, the Dodgers retained a 5½ game lead in the National League over the San Francisco Giants when the St. Louis Cards bowed to Houston.

Shaw entered the game with Dodgers on first and second, no outs, and the count 3-and-0 on Maury Wills, Lemaster, who gained credit for his 10th win, had wild pitched on a third strike to permit Doug Camilli to reach first and a wild throw by first baseman Gene Oliver put relief pitcher Bob Miller on base.

But Shaw got Wills to hit into a double play and induced Jim Gilliam to fly out after a brief rhabarb. With the count 2-and-2 on Gilliam, catcher Joe Torre biterly protested a third called ball and was ejected.

The Braves got both their runs off loser Johnny Podres — who failed for the fourth straight time to survive the fourth inning—in the third. Frank Bolling singled and scored when Frank Howard of the Dodgers couldn't field a bloop double by Hank Aaron, the ball rolling by the big Los Angeles outfielder.

Torre's sacrifice fly to Howard scored Aaron from third after the latter advanced on the error.

Miller took over in the fourth with one man out and the bases loaded, getting Aaron to hit a short fly to Gilliam that was converted into a double play. Miller retired the Braves without a run after that, boosting his string of scoreless innings in relief to 14.

The only Dodger run came when Wills doubled to deep left center in the fifth, with Miller scoring.

Mets Shut Out Chicago, 5-0

CHICAGO (UPI)—Carleton Wiley scattered six hits for his fourth shutout and the New York Mets scored three runs off three pitchers in the ninth inning Saturday for a 5-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Wiley struck out only one batter and issued no walks. He was never in trouble in working to his eighth win of the season and New York's 41st win in 128 games. It also was the Mets' first victory after six consecutive setbacks at Chicago.

Try Out With Leafs

TORONTO, Ont. (UPI)—Two members of the Swedish national hockey team have accepted invitations by Toronto coach Punch Imlach to try out with the National Hockey League champion Maple Leafs.

Goalie Kjell Svensson and left winger Carl Oberg, both 23, will be given a "good look," Imlach said Tuesday.

Kaline's Single Beats A's

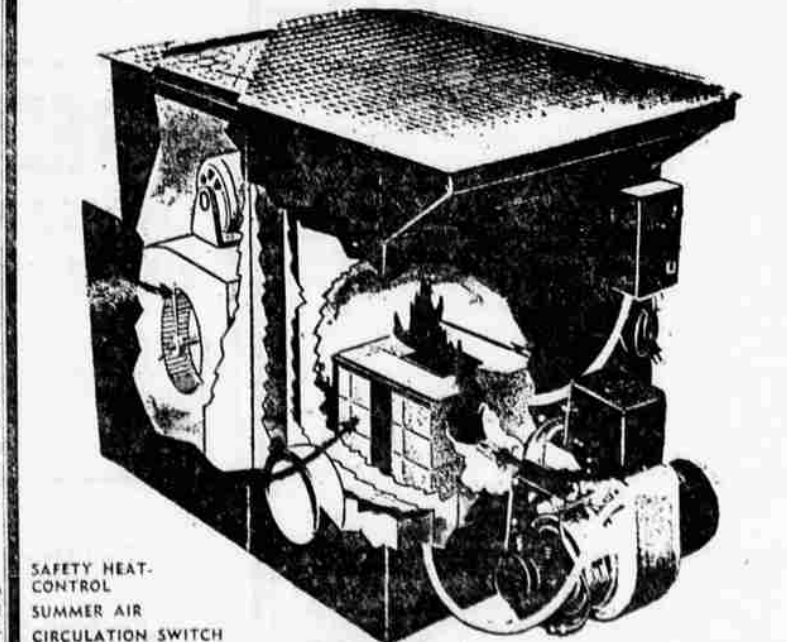

DETROIT (UPI)—Al Kaline sliced a line single to right field off Moe Drabowsky with none out in the last half of the 13th inning to score Billy Bruton and give the Tigers a 4-3 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Kaline, who slugged a two-run homer in the first inning, collected the 13th inning single — his third hit of the game — after Bruton led off the inning with a bunt single and went to second when Dick McAuliffe walked.

Drabowsky went all the way for the A's and was saddled with his tenth loss of the season even though he blanked Detroit for ten straight innings. Drabowsky has won five games.

Rams Win Behind T. Baker

PORTLAND (UPI)—Rookie Terry Baker returned to his home town for the first time as a professional last night and led the Los Angeles Rams to a 20-17 National Football League exhibition victory over the Dallas Cowboys.

A crowd of 29,349, the largest ever to see a pro football game in Multnomah Stadium here, roared as Baker completed 12 of 29 passes for 192 yards.

Baker drew strong support in the second half from the Rams' defensive unit, which held the Cowboys scoreless for the last 30 minutes and didn't let them pass their own 20-yard line in the third quarter.

The Rams, trailing 17-10 at halftime, added three points on a 23-yard third quarter field goal by Danny Villanueva and won it on the first play of the fourth quarter on a 44-yard pass from Baker to Pervis Atkins.

Dallas led throughout the first half. Quarterback Don Meredith directed the Texas club on an 80-yard drive the first time it got the ball.

Amos Bullocks got the touchdown on a five-yard pass from Meredith and Sam Baker converted for a 7-0 lead.

Villanueva retaliated later in the period with a 28-yard field goal but Sam Baker kicked a 45-yarder early in the second quarter for a 10-3 lead.

Terry Baker took the Rams 20 yards with the aid of a 17-yard pass interference penalty after a fumble recovery midway in the second quarter. Art Perkins scored from a yard out and Villanueva's conversion made it 20-10.

The Cowboys came back with a 74-yard drive late in the half with Meredith passing three yards to Frank Clarke for the score. Sam Baker's conversion gave Dallas its 17-10 halftime lead.

Hiller Singles To Win Game For Giants, 4-3

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Chuck Hiller lined a bases-loaded single into right field to score Felipe Alou from third base to give the San Francisco Giants a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds in 12 innings Saturday.

The loss went to John Tsitouris, who pitched 11 and one third innings of fine ball before he became wild in the bottom of the 12th.

After striking out Ed Bailey, Tsitouris hit Alou and Jose Pagan.

Conley's Comeback Short, She Loses

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (UPI)—Mrs. Anne Quast Wells fought off a valiant last-ditch rally by spunky Peggy Conley Saturday to win the U.S. Golf Association Women's Amateur championship for the third time.

The 25-year-old high school teacher from Mount Vernon, Wash., calmly sank a 13-foot putt on the 35th hole to win, 2 and 1, in the 63rd renewal of this golf classic at the Tacoma Golf Club.

Mrs. Wells' victory dashed 16-year-old Miss Conley's hopes of becoming the youngest person ever to win the event since it started in 1885.

Mrs. Wells, who captured the Women's Amateur in 1958 and 1961, came back from a two-hole deficit early in the second round. She forged ahead on the ninth hole, went 3 up at the 12th, lost the 14th but held on to win.

Her victory made her the seventh player ever to win the women's amateur three times.

It was the third time this year that Miss Conley had lost a major tournament in the finals. She was runner-up to Janis Ferraris of San Francisco in both the USGA Girls' Junior and the Western Junior. Miss Ferraris was eliminated from this tourney by Mrs. Wells in the quarter-finals.

Pirates Wax Phillies Snap Skein

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Strung-armed Don Cardwell held the Philadelphia Phillies hitless for 5 2/3 innings Saturday night and went on to hurl a four-hitter as the Pittsburgh Pirates won, 7-0, to break a six-game winning streak the Phils held over them.

Cardwell, who tossed a no-hitter while with Chicago in 1960, was almost two-thirds through a potential encore when Wes Covington spoiled his bid. The Phils outfielder lined a single to center with two out in the sixth to end Cardwell's hopes.

The Pirates scored twice in the third and sixth and three times in the ninth. Bob Clemente blasted his 13th homer off the light tower above the rightfield fence in the third to score Manny Mota ahead of him.

Downes Wants Fight

LONDON (UPI)—Former middleweight champion Terry Downes announced Friday he would like to fight Chic Calderwood for the British light-heavyweight title in early October.

Downes, out of action since knocking out Jimmy Beecham of Miami, Fla., last March, also indicated he might challenge Laszlo Papp of Hungary or current middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria.

LA Angels Decision Senators

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Felix Torres drove in four runs with a double and two singles Saturday night and Billy Moran accounted for three more runs with a pair of triples in leading the Los Angeles Angels to a 10-2 rout of the Washington Senators.

The Angels collected 16 hits as every starting player except pitcher Fred Newman hit safely at least once. Newman gained his first major league victory although he was relieved in the sixth by Julio Navarro.

The Angels started the scoring in the first inning on a walk to Albie Pearson, singles by Jim Fregosi, Leon Wagner and Torres and a sacrifice fly by Moran.

They added three more in the fifth on singles by Pearson, Fregosi and Wagner and a double by Torres. The first of Moran's two triples widened the Angels' lead to 8-1 in the seventh.

Wagner's double, Moran's second triple and Bob Rodgers' single produced two more runs in the ninth.

Jim King drove in both Washington runs, with a double in the sixth and a fielder's choice in the eighth. Don Rudolph gave up six Los Angeles runs in the first five innings and was charged with his 15th loss.

Whitey Ford Hurls Yank Win, Nears 20-Win Mark

NEW YORK (UPI)—Southpaw Whitey Ford, closing in on the second 20-victory season of his career just as the New York Yankees are closing in on the pennant, scattered six singles Saturday to give the Yankees a 3-0 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

It was the 18th victory for Ford, a total he has topped only twice before. He did not walk a single batter and he struck out eight, leaving him only 10 strikeouts short of the Yankee team record of 1,530 held by Red Ruffing. The Yankees gave Ford two runs in the fifth inning in his duel with Ray Herbert, and Johnny Blanchard closed the scoring by hammering a two-out homer in the eighth inning.

It was the 13th homer of the year for Blanchard and the 10th hit since July 22.
