

Spahn Goes From Movie Set To Handcuff Bums

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Versatile Warren Spahn played a Nazi soldier by day and his accustomed role at night and he killed the people with both performances.

The 42-year-old Milwaukee southpaw made his debut as a Hollywood actor Friday and then hurried out to the ball park to beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-1, and slice their National League lead to 1/2 game.

The fun-loving Spahn said he wasn't sure which gave him the bigger kick.

When he showed up on the set to play a Nazi sergeant in ABC's television "Combat" series, he was given a submachine gun which he carried in his left hand.

Told to grasp the gun in his right hand, Spahn quipped: "I fire better with my left."

That was the hand he used to gain his 14th victory of the season and the 343rd of his career Friday night against the Dodgers.

Scattered Nine Hits
Spahn scattered nine hits, drove in one of the Braves' runs with a sacrifice fly in the sixth, and scored another on Frank Bolling's single after doubling off reliever Larry Sherry in the ninth.

Dead end on winning 20 games for the 13th time in his career, Spahn beat the Dodgers for the fourth time this year and was ahead from the first inning when Eddie Mathews hit his 19th homer with one on off 14-year-old Dick Calmus.

The Dodgers' only run off Spahn also came in the first when Tommy Davis singled home Maury Wills from second.

The Cardinals took advantage of the Dodgers' loss to gain a full game on them by beating the Colts, 4-1, while the Giants moved to within 6 1/2 games of first place with an 11-3 win over the Reds. The Phillies defeated the Pirates, 4-2, and the Cubs edged the Mets, 6-5.

Gibson Won 14th
Bob Gibson won his 14th for the Cardinals with a five-hitter over the Colts. St. Louis scored all four of its runs off Dick Farrell (10-10) in the first inning.

The Cardinals took advantage of the Dodgers' loss to gain a full game on them by beating the Colts, 4-1, while the Giants moved to within 6 1/2 games of first place with an 11-3 win over the Reds. The Phillies defeated the Pirates, 4-2, and the Cubs edged the Mets, 6-5.

Willie McCovey drove in three runs with three hits while Tom Haller and Chuck Hiller each homered as the Giants used a 16-hit attack to knock over the Reds. Bob Bolin, who relieved starter Jack Sanford in the fourth, blanked the Reds the rest of the way for his eighth victory. Jim Maloney (12-6) suffered the loss.

Dennis Bennett picked up his seventh victory for the Phillies against only two defeats although screwballer Jack Baldschun had to throttle a Pirate threat in the seventh.

Wes Covington's 14th homer with one on off loser Don Schwall in the third put the Phils ahead for good and they scored what proved to be the winning run in the fifth on an error by third baseman Bob Bailey. Jim Pagliaroni homered for Pittsburgh.

Billy Williams hit a pair of two-run homers, his 20th and 21st, and drove in five of the Cubs' runs in their victory over the Mets. Paul Toth, first of three Chicago pitchers, was credited with his fifth win in 13 decisions while Larry Bearnarth dropped his sixth decision against two victories.

Major League Results
By United Press International
National League
New York 100 111 001-5 8 2
Chicago 002 020 10x-6 8 1
Stallard, Bearnarth (3), A. Jackson (7), Craig (8) and Gonder, Toth, Hobbie (6), McDaniel (9) and Bertelli. Winner - Toth (5-8), Loser - Bearnarth (2-5), HRs - Hunt, Williams, Carmel.

Pittsburgh 000 010 100-2 7 2
Philadelphia 002 010 01x-4 8 0
Schwall, Francis (6), Haddix (7), Sisk (8) and Pagliaroni. Bennett, Baldschun (7) and Dalrymple. Winner - Bennett (7-2), Loser - Schwall (6-9), HRs - Covington, Pagliaroni.

Los Angeles 000 000 000-6 13 1
Los Angeles 100 000 000-1 9 3
Spahn (16-5) and Torre. Calmus, Rowe (1), Sherry (8) and Roseboro. Loser - Calmus (2-1), HRs - Mathews, Aaron.

St. Louis 400 000 000-4 8 0
Houston 000 000 010-1 5 1
Gibson (14-7) and McCarver. Farrell (10-10) and Bateman.

Cincinnati 010 200 000-3 10 1
San Francisco 300 402 11x-11 9 0
Maloney, Coates (4) and Edwards. Sanford, Bolin (4) and Haller. Winner - Bolin (8-4), Loser - Maloney (10-6), HRs - Haller, Hiller, Coleman.

American League
(1st game)
Minnesota 010 200 000-4 6 1
Baltimore 002 001 30x-14 19 1
Stigman, Moore (4) and Battey. Pappas (12-8) and Brown. Loser - Stigman (12-13), HRs - Johnson, Robinson, Wertz.

(2nd game)
Minnesota 001 001 000-2 8 1
Baltimore 100 410 00x-6 11 0
Perry, Roggenbuck (15), Dailey (8) and Zimmerman. Roberts (12-10) and Orsino. Loser - Perry (9-9), HRs - Snyder, Gentile, Hall.

(1st game)
Kansas City 100 000 001-2 6 4
Detroit 001 061 50x-17 15 1
Lovich, Wyatt (1), Fischer (6) and Lau, Lary (3-6) and Freeman. Loser - Lovrich (1-1), HRs - Wert, Cash, Delgreco.

(2nd game)
Kansas City 000 000 101-2 9 0
Detroit 011 011 20x-6 12 0
Wickersham, Lovrich (7), Wyatt (7) and Edwards. Regan (9-7) and Triandros. Loser - Wickersham (10-11), HRs - McAuliffe, Edwards, Charles.

(13 Innings)
Bos. 000 000 110 000 1-3 5 1
Clev. 010 001 000 000-2 8 0
Wilson, Radatz (9) and Nixon. Ramos (6-6) and Azcue, Romano (10). Winner - Radatz (13-4), HR - Whitfield, Yastrzemski, Bresoud, Clinton.

Chicago 001 001 000-2 10 0
New York 000 021 40x-7 11 0
Wilhelm, Brosnan (7), Hollen (8) and Martin, Carreon (7). Bouton (17-6) and Howard. Loser - Wilhelm (12-8).

Los Angeles 016 120 700-17 19 1
Washington 000 000 000-0 2 1
McBride (13-8) and Rodgers, E. Sadowski (8), Ridzik, Roebuck (3) Duckworth (5), Burnside (7) and Retzer. Loser - Ridzik (4-4), HR - Wagner.

Pacific Coast League
By United Press International
Northern Division
Spokane 85 54 614 -
Hawaii 72 65 526 12
Tacoma 69 69 508 16
Portland 63 75 457 22
Seattle 63 78 453 22 1/2

Southern Division
Oklahoma City 74 66 529 8
Dallas-FW 69 70 496 4 1/2
San Diego 68 69 496 4 1/2
Salt Lake 64 72 471 8
Denver 64 76 457 10

Friday's Results
Denver 4 Dallas-FW 2
Oklahoma City 9 Salt Lake City 1
Portland 3 Seattle 4
San Diego 5 Tacoma 2
Spokane 4 Hawaii 2

CASEY TALKS THINGS OVER — Something new in the autograph realm was initiated in Chicago Friday by Casey Stengel, manager of the 10th place New York Mets. He left his dugout (left photo) before the game with the Cubs and straddled the box seat railing, casting a wary eye at customers who could write, (Right photo) "Do you mean it, boy? You really want an autograph from the Mets' manager," he appears to be asking.

Green Bay Sets Out To Win Unprecedented Third Title

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of 22 dispatches sizing up the prospects of professional football teams for the 1963 season.

By GENE W. HINTZ

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—The Green Bay Packers, minus two regulars and plus a new "man-on-the-move" offense, set out this fall to win an unprecedented third successive National Football League playoff championship.

Only the Packers in 1929, 1930 and 1931 have ever won that many consecutive titles in the NFL and that was before the playoff system was inaugurated in 1933.

Coach Vince Lombardi, who has yet to experience a losing year despite taking over a team that had won just one of 12 games this year before he arrived in 1959, had two immediate problems to solve when practice sessions started a month ago.

—He had to replace Paul Hornung, the league's "Mr. Everything" who was banished by Commissioner Pete Rozelle or at least a year because of gambling.

—He had to replace veteran defensive end Bill Quinlan, who was traded to Philadelphia by way of New York after a run-in with Lombardi on the West Coast last fall.

Lombardi admits Hornung can't be replaced as such, so he's revamped his offense slightly to both deal with that problem and give fullback Jimmy Taylor a lighter share of the offensive load.

Taylor, the NFL's top scorer and ground gainer last year, seems to have recovered from a winter bout with hepatitis, but has been hampered during the exhibition season by a sore knee.

Replacing Quinlan could be tougher, Henry Jordan, a perennial all-pro tackle candidate, has worked out at end. But Lombardi would be happier if Urban Henry, a transplant from the Los Angeles Rams, or rookies Lionel Alldridge of Utah State or Tony Liscio of Tulsa could take over.

Henry and Ron Kostelnik, a reserve defensive tackle, have occupied Jordan's tackle spot.

Needs Strengthening
Linebacker, usually a strong point, may need bolstering and Lombardi looks to either Dave Robinson, the No. 1 draft choice from Penn State, or Ken Iman, a reserve center, to help there.

The regular linebacking trio of Ray Nitschke, Bill Forester and Dan Currie is considered the best in the league. But Currie had a bad leg last year and Nitschke has been hobbled with a back injury for most of the exhibition season.

The strong point of the offense is the line, which has all-pros Fred (Fuzzy) Thurston and Jerry Kramer at guards, Jim Ringo at center and Forrest Gregg at tackle. Bob Skoronski and Norm Masters share the other tackle spot.

The ends, always strong, are enforced by the addition of three outstanding rookies this year—Bob Jeter of Iowa, Marv Fleming of Utah and Jan Barrett of Fresno State. They'll find it hard, however, beating out Ron Kramer, Max McGee and Boyd Dowler. Veteran reserve Gary Barnes also is available.

Quarterback Bart Starr could hold the key to a successful season. The 1962 NFL passing leader is backed up by John Roach and rookie Terry Gang of Drake, but an injury here could be disastrous.

Part of Earnings
However, it is extremely important to note that Palmer's prize money of $125,000 will be only about one-fourth of his total earnings for 1963, some of his close friends point out. They estimate that his television money from a flock of exhibition matches and his income from various companies in which he is interested will exceed $400,000—a giving him a total of more than a half-million dollars for the year.

In this connection, it is important to note that intimates of former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson estimate that Floyd's income from all sources averaged about $500,000 a year during the seven years since he first became champion.

Corcoran pointed out that the rich sport of golf has provided other stars with big money this year: Jack Nicklaus, $79,000; Julius Boros, $69,996; Tony Lema, $62,313, and so on.

Lives Near Green
Corcoran, who spent his boyhood as a caddy near Belmont Spring outside Boston and who now lives in his own bungalow just off the 15th green at the Winged Foot Club at Mamaroneck, N.Y., said:

"Golf has become the most popular world-wide spectator-participant sport. In the United States alone we have nearly 7,000,000 golfers and probably 50,000,000 or more spectator enthusiasts, judging by the popularity of its television."

As an indication of the boom in Linkville, Fred emphasized that only this week "golf went under lights" on Wednesday night at Sewell, N.J., 40 players teed off at 10:30 p.m. and played over a specially lighted course.

He said the great Walter Hagen, now 70, was the first man to earn a million dollars through golf but it took him a lifetime.

Stars of the future probably will be millionaires before they're 26, he predicted—not only in the United States but in many of the world's 34 other countries that are now members of the International Golf Association.

was a master at executing that play.

Replacing Quinlan could be tougher, Henry Jordan, a perennial all-pro tackle candidate, has worked out at end. But Lombardi would be happier if Urban Henry, a transplant from the Los Angeles Rams, or rookies Lionel Alldridge of Utah State or Tony Liscio of Tulsa could take over.

Henry and Ron Kostelnik, a reserve defensive tackle, have occupied Jordan's tackle spot.

Needs Strengthening
Linebacker, usually a strong point, may need bolstering and Lombardi looks to either Dave Robinson, the No. 1 draft choice from Penn State, or Ken Iman, a reserve center, to help there.

The regular linebacking trio of Ray Nitschke, Bill Forester and Dan Currie is considered the best in the league. But Currie had a bad leg last year and Nitschke has been hobbled with a back injury for most of the exhibition season.

The strong point of the offense is the line, which has all-pros Fred (Fuzzy) Thurston and Jerry Kramer at guards, Jim Ringo at center and Forrest Gregg at tackle. Bob Skoronski and Norm Masters share the other tackle spot.

The ends, always strong, are enforced by the addition of three outstanding rookies this year—Bob Jeter of Iowa, Marv Fleming of Utah and Jan Barrett of Fresno State. They'll find it hard, however, beating out Ron Kramer, Max McGee and Boyd Dowler. Veteran reserve Gary Barnes also is available.

Quarterback Bart Starr could hold the key to a successful season. The 1962 NFL passing leader is backed up by John Roach and rookie Terry Gang of Drake, but an injury here could be disastrous.

Part of Earnings
However, it is extremely important to note that Palmer's prize money of $125,000 will be only about one-fourth of his total earnings for 1963, some of his close friends point out. They estimate that his television money from a flock of exhibition matches and his income from various companies in which he is interested will exceed $400,000—a giving him a total of more than a half-million dollars for the year.

In this connection, it is important to note that intimates of former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson estimate that Floyd's income from all sources averaged about $500,000 a year during the seven years since he first became champion.

Corcoran pointed out that the rich sport of golf has provided other stars with big money this year: Jack Nicklaus, $79,000; Julius Boros, $69,996; Tony Lema, $62,313, and so on.

Lives Near Green
Corcoran, who spent his boyhood as a caddy near Belmont Spring outside Boston and who now lives in his own bungalow just off the 15th green at the Winged Foot Club at Mamaroneck, N.Y., said:

"Golf has become the most popular world-wide spectator-participant sport. In the United States alone we have nearly 7,000,000 golfers and probably 50,000,000 or more spectator enthusiasts, judging by the popularity of its television."

As an indication of the boom in Linkville, Fred emphasized that only this week "golf went under lights" on Wednesday night at Sewell, N.J., 40 players teed off at 10:30 p.m. and played over a specially lighted course.

He said the great Walter Hagen, now 70, was the first man to earn a million dollars through golf but it took him a lifetime.

Stars of the future probably will be millionaires before they're 26, he predicted—not only in the United States but in many of the world's 34 other countries that are now members of the International Golf Association.

Pitchers Bombed As AL Batters Have Field Day

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer

They started batting practice in the American League at 6 o'clock Friday night and still were at it by midnight.

A barrage of 142 hits, 64 runs and 19 homers rattled off all those lively bats and sent pitchers scurrying for bomb shelters in the seven games played.

The cannonading produced such lopsided scores as the Los Angeles Angels' 17-0 rout of the Washington Senators; the Detroit Tigers' 17-2 shellacking of the Kansas City Athletics; and the Baltimore Orioles' 14-4 assault on the Minnesota Twins.

Detroit and Baltimore won two night doubleheaders, each club winning the nightcap by a modest 6-2 score. In the other games, the New York Yankees drugged the Chicago White Sox, 7-2, to widen their league lead to 11 games, and the Boston Red Sox edged the Cleveland Indians, 3-2, on Lou Clinton's 13th-inning homer.

The Homers
Russ Snyder of the Orioles and Norm Cash of the Tigers led the homer-hitting with two each. Leon Wagner walloped his 24th for Los Angeles; Jimmie Hain his 23rd for Minnesota; Jim Gentile his 21st for Baltimore, and even 30-year-old Vic Wertz of the Twins got into the act with his third of the year.

Ken McBride of the Angels, who finally gained his 13th victory in his seventh try since July 24, benefited from the lustiest batting support—and the best fielding—of the night. While he held the Senators to three hits, the Angels rapped 19 hits for 17 runs and executed six double plays. The six double plays were one short of the major league record set by the Yankees in 1942.

Jim Bouton scattered 10 hits and Joe Pepitone drove in three runs in the Yankees' win over the White Sox. The triumph was Bouton's 17th. Hoyt Wilhelm pitched four perfect innings for the Sox before Pepitone's single started a two-run spurt that sent the veteran knucklerback down to his eighth defeat against only two victories.

Milt Pappas, also enjoying 19-hit support, held the Twins to six hits in the opener and Robin Roberts pitched an eighth-inning in the nightcap for the 25th triumph of his career.

Detroit made 27 hits and 23 runs in its doubleheader sweep over Kansas City. Frank Lary pitched a six-hitter in the opener for his second win of the year and Phil Regan held the A's to nine hits in the nightcap.

The timeliest homer of the night was Clinton's for the Red Sox in the 13th inning against Pedro Ramos of the Indians. Ramos pitched a five-hitter and struck out 13 but yielded homers to Carl Yastrzemski and Ed Bressoud prior to Clinton's Dick Radatz, who relieved starter Earl Wilson in the ninth and pitched shutout ball for the last 2 1/3 innings, was credited with his 13th victory against four defeats.

Major League Standings

By United Press International
American League
W. L. Pct. GB
New York 81 45 .643 ...
Chicago 70 56 .556 11
Baltimore 72 58 .554 11
Minnesota 69 57 .548 12
Boston 61 65 .484 20
Cleveland 62 67 .481 20 1/2
Detroit 58 66 .468 22
Los Angeles 59 71 .454 24
Kansas City 57 69 .452 24
Washington 46 81 .362 35 1/2

Los Angeles at Washington (night) — Newman (6-3) vs. Rudolph (7-14).
Minnesota at Baltimore (night) — Stange (6-4) vs. Hall (5-3).
Chicago at New York — Herbert (11-8) vs. Ford (17-7).

Sunday's Games
Kansas City at Detroit (2)
Boston at Cleveland (2)
Los Angeles at Washington
Minnesota at Baltimore
Chicago at New York (2)

Friday's Results
Baltimore 14 Minnesota 4, 1st, 2nd
Baltimore 6 Minn. 2, 2nd, night
Detroit 17 Kansas City 2, 1st, 2nd
Detroit 6 K C 2, 2nd, night
New York 7 Chicago 2, night
Boston 3 Clev. 2, 13 ins, night
Los Angeles 17 Wash. 0, night

Today's Probable Pitchers
Kansas City at Detroit — Drabowsky (5-9) vs. Lohich (4-6).
Boston at Cleveland — Turley (2-9) vs. Donovan (9-10).

National League
W. L. Pct. GB
Los Angeles 76 50 .603 ...
St. Louis 71 56 .559 5 1/2
San Francisco 70 57 .551 6 1/2
Philadelphia 70 59 .543 7 1/2
Milwaukee 67 61 .523 10
Cincinnati 68 63 .519 10 1/2
Chicago 65 62 .512 12 1/2
Pittsburgh 64 62 .508 13
Houston 47 81 .367 31
New York 40 87 .315 27 1/2

Friday's Results
Chicago 6 New York 5
Philadelphia 4 Pittsburgh 2, night
St. Louis 4 Houston 1, night
Milwaukee 6 Los Angeles 1, night
San Francisco 11 Cin. 3, night

Today's Probable Pitchers
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia (night) — Cardwell (11-12) vs. Short (5-9).
New York at Chicago — Willey (7-11) vs. Koonce (1-2).
St. Louis at Houston (night) — Taylor (7-5) vs. Brown (4-9).
Milwaukee at Los Angeles (night) — Lemaster (9-8) vs. Podres (11-8).
Cincinnati at San Francisco — Taitouris (8-6) vs. O'Dell (11-6).

Sunday's Games
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia
New York at Chicago
St. Louis at Houston
Milwaukee at Los Angeles
Cincinnati at San Francisco

Home Runs
National League — McCovey, Giants 34; Aaron, Braves 33; Mays, Giants 30; White, Cards 22; Santo, Cubs 22.

American League — Stuart, Red Sox 33; Killebrew, Twins 28; Allison, Twins 26; Howard, Yankees 24; Wagner, Angels 24.

Runs Batted In
National League — Aaron, Braves 106; White, Cards 91; Boyer, Cards 87; Pinson, Reds 83; Santo, Cubs 82; McCovey, Giants 82.

American League — Stuart, Red Sox 93; Kaline, Tigers 81; Wagner, Angels 78; Powell, Orioles 72; Ward, White Sox 70.

Pitching
National League — Perranoski, Dodgers 13-2; McBean, Pirates 13-3; Koufax, Dodgers 19-5; Spahn, Braves 16-5; Marichal, Giants 19-6.

American League — Radatz, Red Sox 13-4; Bouton, Yankees 17-6; Peters, White Sox 14-5; Pascual, Twins 16-6; Ford, Yankees 17-1.

Hanan Strokes
Seventh Ace
COOS BAY (UPI) — A hole-in-one is not a great rarity in golf—but there were two things unusual about the one Dick Hanan got at Coos Country Club this week.

For one thing, it was his seventh.

And it came on a 231-yard, par 4 hole.

Hanan's drive off the sixth tee at the country club Wednesday bounded into the cup on the short par 4 hole for his sixth hole-in-one at that course. The 40-year-old Hansen scored his first ace at the age of 13 or 14, he doesn't remember which, at nearby Bandon.

Sets Tourney Site
NEW YORK (UPI) — Maui, Island in Hawaii will be the scene of the 12th annual International Golf Championship and Canada Cup matches Dec. 3-6, 1964.

Sidney L. James, chairman of the executive committee of the International Golf Association, announced Tuesday that the matches will be played at the Royal Lahama golf course at Kapaeha, Maui.

Nelson No-Hits Salt Lake City

By DAVE ROWE
UPI Sports Writer

The big noise in the Pacific Coast League Saturday was the fine pitching performance by Gerald (Jerry) Nelson, 29-year-old righthander from Oklahoma City who turned in a no-hit game, beating Salt Lake City 9-1.

The 6 foot 3 Beaumont, Tex., hurler, chalked up his 13th victory against five losses as his teammates pounded Dick Lemay and Wayne Carlander for 17 hits, one of them a home run by George Williams in the first inning with nobody aboard. He had four for five for the evening.

Nelson has made a habit of low hit games recently. He had a one-hitter against Denver Aug. 7, a four-hitter Aug. 15 against Dallas-Ft. Worth and worked six innings Aug. 19 to help his club to a 3-2 victory over Denver although he didn't get credit for the win.

The lone Bee run came in the fourth inning when Jesse White walked, went to third on a two-base throwing error and scored on a sacrifice fly.

The victory was Nelson's 10th straight as he faced only 39 men. Spokane snapped a 12 game winning streak for Hawaii, 4-2 to boost their first place advantage to 12 games. Dick Bernardino accounted for all the Spokane runs, driving in two with a homer in the second and then singling home the deciding markers in the ninth.

Hovie Reed annexed his 16th victory of the season while El Grba, just back from the mainland, gave up seven hits to absorb his sixth loss against seven victories.

San Diego appears to be making its bid for higher honors. The Padres moved into a tie for second place in the southern division with its victory over Tacoma. The loss was the Giants eighth straight as Ted Wills chalked up his 13th victory against nine losses. He went the distance to best Bill Hands. Bobby Klaus got a homerun as did Art Shamsky while Jim Saul had a two run homer for the Padres.

Dallas-Ft. Worth dropped a 4-2 decision to Denver with Bob Uecker and Steve Demeter homering for Denver and Tony Oliva getting his 20th for the Rangers. Ribant's record now is 14-7 while the loser, Bob Baillargeon now has 6-6.

Portland jumped to a 4-0 lead and then hung on for dear life to take a 5-4 victory from Seattle. A three run homer by Chet Boak was the decisive blow for the Beavers and gave Jack Aker the victory. Seattle's ninth inning rally of two runs fell one short.

Linescores:
Salt Lake 000 100 000-1 0 1
Oklahoma City 313 020 00x-9 17 1
Lemay, Carlander (3) and Baragan; Nelson and Campbell. LP—Lemay. HR—Williams 1st none on.

Denver 000 102 010-4 9 0
Dallas-FW 100 100 00-2 8 2
Ribant and Uecker; Baillargeon, D. R. Williams and McCabe. LP—Baillargeon. HRS—Uecker 4th none on; Oliva 4th none on; Demeter 9th none on.

Tacoma 010 000 100-2 8 3
San Diego 110 200 01x-5 7 1
Hands, Pregrenzer (7) and Barton; Wills and Saul. LP—Hands. HRS—Klaus 1st none on; Shamsky 2nd none on; Saul 4th one on.

Seattle 100 000 102-4 14 2
Portland 003 000 11x-5 11 1
Ritchie, MacLeod (7) and Gibson; Aker, Montezuma (9) and Bryan WP—Aker. LP—Ritchie. HR—Boak 3rd 2 on.

Spokane 020 000 002-4 7 0
Hawaii 011 000 000-2 4 1
Reed and Brumley; Grba and Kirkpatrick. HRS—Bernardino 2nd one on.

Pacific Coast League
By United Press International
Northern Division
Spokane 85 54 614 -
Hawaii 72 65 526 12
Tacoma 69 69 508 16
Portland 63 7