

McELHENNY SCORES — New York Giants' offensive left halfback Hugh McElhenney (39), recently acquired from the Minnesota Vikings, made the first score of the 1963 season at Metropolitan Stadium in Minneapolis Sunday by making an 18-yard run in the first quarter to score. He was stopped momentarily but spun his way clear to go over standing up.

Terry Baker Guides LA Rams To 20-17 Win Over Cowboys

PORTLAND (UPI) — Terry Baker may not have won the starting quarterback's job with the Los Angeles Rams Saturday night — but he didn't hurt his chances.

The rookie from Oregon State guided the Rams to a 20-17 National Football League exhibition win over the Dallas Cowboys before 29,340 persons here. It was the Rams' first victory and the Cowboys' initial defeat in three exhibition games this season.

"The starting quarterback job is wide open and always has been," Los Angeles Coach Harland Sware said after the game.

Sware, whose quarterbacks corps includes sophomore Roman Gabriel and veteran Zeke Bratkowski, would not divulge who would open at quarterback against the Cleveland Browns in the Rams' fourth exhibition game.

West Tops East, 6-0

PENDLETON (UPI) — West used a third-period touchdown to defeat East 6-0 in the 12th annual Shrine A-2 and B all-star football game before an estimated 8,000 persons here Saturday night.

The victory gave West a 7-4 edge in the series. There has been one tie.

West's touchdown came when halfback George Prummer of Toledo took a direct snap from center and passed 12 yards to quarterback Tom Jernstedt of Yamhill-Carlton.

Time ran out with East on the West four-yard line.

Jernstedt was named the most valuable player in the contest.

The first million is supposed to be the toughest but those first 20 aren't exactly a snap either. Ask Sandy Koufax.

The frustrated Dodger southpaw, still looking for the first 20 game season of his career, has come right down to the wire twice now only to wind up with a big handful of nothing. Well, not exactly nothing.

The Dodgers did come on to beat the Braves, 2-1, Sunday and fatten their National League lead to 6 1/2 games over both the Cardinals and Giants, so Koufax wasn't complaining.

But it did hurt a bit to come within one out of his 20th victory and his 11th shutout without achieving either. Koufax had a three-hitter and a 1-0 lead until the ninth when Eddie Mathews doubled and then set does not have a victory to show for it.

Dressen Lifting Detroit Tigers Into First Division Spot

Ordinarily, ballplayers don't give a hoot who's elected manager of the year.

But the Detroit Tigers are campaigning all over the American League for their personal candidate — Charlie Dressen.

They honestly feel he deserves the award and hope he gets it, too.

He certainly rates consideration off the job he has done since taking over the Tigers from Bob Scheffing on June 18. Detroit languished in ninth place at the time, and Charlie insisted the club could finish in the first division.

There was some snickering in the audience over that statement although anyone checking the standings today will find the Tigers only a half-game out of the first division.

Sunday's Results

Club could finish in the first division. There was some snickering in the audience over that statement although anyone checking the standings today will find the Tigers only a half-game out of the first division.

"We heard a lot of stories about Charlie before he took over and none of them proved to be true," says Al Kaline. "He's really done a terrific job."

Dressen has at that. The Tigers were limping along at a sickly .400 clip the day he became their manager. They've won 37 and lost 30 for a far more impressive .532 percentage since he took over the head chair.

Five other players with Oregon backgrounds also shared the spotlight.

Bill Swain, former University of Oregon center from North Bend, played the entire game at middle linebacker for the Rams in place of the injured Marlin McKeever.

Amos Marsh went most of the way at fullback for Dallas and gained a net of five yards on 10 carries. Mike Gaechter, formerly of Oregon, played the entire game in the Cowboys' defense.

Beaver, did Dallas' punting and kicked a 45-yard field goal and two extra points.

Bob Lilly, who played high school football at Pendleton before starting a fine college career at Texas Christian, started at a defensive end for the Cowboys.

The crowd was the largest ever to see a pro game in Multnomah Stadium.

Appropriately, Baker provided the Rams with their winning touchdown, a 44-yard pass to Pervis Atkins on the first play of the final period.

Trailing 17-10 at halftime, they collected a 23-yard field goal by Danny Villanueva in the third period.

The Heisman Trophy winner completed 12 of 20 passes for 192 yards and picked up 21 yards in two runs. He had one pass intercepted.

Omaha jumped out to an early lead on Charles Shimerda's grand slam homer in the first inning and took advantage of 12 Roseburg errors to coast to victory.

Ken Fila got credit for the victory, striking out 13 and allowing seven hits in the seven innings he worked. Ran Cool picked up the loss.

Jim Beamer slammed two three-run homers for Roseburg and ended up with seven runs batted in. Rich Backe also hit a homer for Omaha.
