Skidding Trail Bike Strikes Keno Lady

A 65-year-old Keno woman received multiple bruises yesterday when she was struck by a trail bike after it skidded on loose gravel and ricocheted off a parked car in Keno, Oregon State Police disclosed today.

The accident was one of two which occurred on Klamath County highways during the weekend, police reports indicate.

In satisfactory condition at the Klamath Valley Hospital is Jane Morgan who was struck by a motor bike operated by Sam Louis Wilkins, 53, also of Keno, about 11 a.m., Sunday.

Wilkins lost control of the cycle and it skidded into a rear fender of a parked automobile registered to Thomas Sanders of Keno. The bike then veered into Mrs. Morgan, who was standing near the parked car. The victim was transferred to the local hospital by Sanders.

The accident developed when a station wagon operated by William Andrew Gall, 41, Portland, came over a rise in the road and was unable to stop in time to avoid striking the rear of one of two automobiles parked on the overpass.

The impact sent the rear car, driven by Charlotte Edna Lane, 48, Weed, into the rear of the other automobile, operated by Willard Hilton Morrow, 34, also of Weed.

Dorothy Pepper, 58, of Walnut Creek, Calif., one of two passengers in Mrs. Lane's car, complained of a whiplash and a head injury but she apparently was not hospitalized, police records indicate. The other passenger, Olive Akeley, 50, also of Walnut Creek, was apparently not injured, nor were the others involved in the accident.

Morrow was accompanied by his wife, Frieda, 28, and their two daughters, Joy, 5, and Rebecca, 3. The passenger in Gall's car was Chester Shockey, 43, of Portland.

The Gall and Lane vehicles received extensive damage and were removed by a local towing company, while the Morrow automobile left the scene under its own power.

Park Staff Gets New Assistant

Donald M. Robinson joined the staff of Crater Lake National Park as assistant superintendent on Aug. 19. W. Ward Yeager, superintendent, announced recently Robinson comes to the park from Cabrillo and Channel Islands national monuments in Southern California, where he served as superintendent from 1953 to 1963.

Robinson's first employment with the National Park Service occurred in Sequoia and Kings Canyon national parks, where he served as park ranger in 1947-1948. In 1948 he moved to Cabrillo National Monument in the same capacity, which he filled in 1953. During that period Channel Islands National Monument also came under the same administration.

Robinson was born in Pasadena, Calif., in 1919 and moved to San Diego in 1923. He attended San Diego State College, receiving a bachelor's degree in business administration, with a minor in zoology in 1936. He also attended California Western University during 1935, pursuing work in personal management.

Robinson served with the United States Navy from 1940 to 1946 and with the United States Naval Reserve from 1946 to 1954. He attained the rank of lieutenant commander in his capacity as a line officer with specialization in mine warfare.

He was a charter member of the San Diego Kiwanis Club and was active in Elks. Accompanying Robinson to the park were his wife, Dagmar, four sons, Don Jr., 17; Dana, 15; Fred, 10; and Jeffrey, 7. They will make their home at park headquarters.

Bird Rivals Old Faithful

A myna bird who yelled "All gone" when he wanted ice water as he traveled to Yellowstone Park with his owners, Mr. and Mrs. George McNulty of Klamath Falls, attracted as much attention from park visitors as did Old Faithful.

The bird, 1 year old, lives up to his name, Rowdy. One of his pet phrases to his master, when he becomes irked, is "You think you're president."

Rowdy cooled off with ice water he placed under his wings and on his back as he rode to Yellowstone in the family car.

Mr. and Mrs. McNulty joined a son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hamilton, a n d three children, Robert, 10, now in college, Gordon, 17, entering college this fall, and Barbara, 15, of Chicago.

Hamilton, a graduate of Klamath Union High School, has been public relations employe for the last 10 years for Wilson and Company, meat packers of Chicago.

His work takes him to New Zealand, Australia, Canada and throughout the U.S.

He received citations as outstanding Marine during World War II after enlisting immediately following Pearl Harbor and earned his high school diploma after his war service. He is a graduate of Massey College in New Zealand. The Klamath Tribe presented him with a $1,000 scholarship to complete his college work. He married a girl from New Zealand.

This was the first vacation trip in 20 years for Mr. and Mrs. McNulty. McNulty is a retired rancher. Mrs. McNulty, in business in Klamath Falls for many years, is owner of Dorothea's Book Store and Smart Shop.

Youth Charged In Hit And Run

A 19-year-old Klamath Falls youth was cited for hit-and-run driving early Saturday morning police said, after his car struck a parked pickup truck on Alameda Avenue.

Police said the youth, John Sandmeyer, 1935 Lawrence Street, was cited for the offense an hour and a half after the crash when his father, John Sandmeyer Sr., reported the incident to police headquarters.

The father told police his son had become frightened after the crash and driven off.

Police said the youth was northbound on Alameda when he lost control and his car struck the parked pickup, owned by George Chamberlain, 339 Alameda.

Damage to Sandmeyer's 1961 Landolt and Chamberlain's 1955 pickup truck was listed as major. The crash occurred at 1:03 a.m.

Burglars Take Candy At Pool

The concession stand at the municipal pool, 1805 Main Street, was burglarized Saturday night or Sunday morning and $4.83 in candy was taken.

Police said it was the second time in recent weeks that the stand had been hit by burglars. Each time, only candy was taken.

In the latest theft, the door to the stand was pried off the hinge. The incident occurred between 3:30 p.m. Saturday and 1:05 p.m. Sunday.

Water Mishap Injures Youth

An 18-year-old Applegate, Ore. youth is under observation at the Klamath Valley Hospital today for head injuries he received in a water skiing accident at Lake of the Woods about 3-15 p.m., Sunday, Oregon State Police have reported.

Injured was Jackie Stephenson, who sustained a bump on the head after he lost his balance and struck his skis while water skiing. He was examined by a doctor at the lake and then transferred to the local hospital by Police Ambulance.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable degree of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). ## Fire Burns Barn, Truck And Camper

Fire departments in the county had a busy weekend making runs to two grass fires, a grease fire on the Crystal Springs Road fire on the Crystal Springs Road which destroyed the barn and a camp trailer, pickup camper and washing machine that were stored in the barn.

The county volunteer fire department was called to the Calvin Noble barn at 5:34 p.m. Friday, but the fire was beyond control by the time the firemen arrived. There were no estimates of the damage.

The county firemen also made a run to a hill off Washburn Way in back of the Great Northern roadside to extinguish a grass fire that destroyed about five acres of grass and range before the volunteers could get it under control. The fire was reported at 12:05 p.m. Saturday.

Assisting the county volunteers on this run were firemen from KFPFA, OTI and Kingsley Field units.

The suburban volunteers at 12:25 p.m. Saturday went to the Arnold McSwain residence, 5311 1/2 Almont, and extinguished a fire in McSwain's kitchen that started when grease in a frying pan overheated. There was considerable damage to the wall and ceiling in the kitchen and smoke damage throughout the house, firemen said.

The city fire department with the help of a unit from the city substation extinguished a grass fire in a vacant lot at the corner of Vine and Richmond at 12:28 p.m. Sunday.

The fire caused minor damage to a fence at 1916 Vine Avenue, firemen reported.

Hit And Run Crash Leads To Citation

A 21-year-old Chiloquin man was booked for drunken and hit-and-run driving Saturday afternoon following a rear-end auto crash that injured him and two other persons.

Knowlton Merritt Jr. was taken into custody, police said, as he attempted to leave the scene of the crash on South Sixth Street, near Adams.

Merritt suffered bruises and abrasions. The driver of the other auto, Andrew Moran, 63, of 2429 Pershing Way, received back injuries, and his passenger, Rose Moran, 48, was hurt when an air compressor in their panel truck hurtled forward to strike her. None of the injuries was considered serious.

Police said Merritt was eastbound at "high speed" when he attempted to pass the Moran vehicle, also eastbound. They said Merritt misjudged the distance and his 1963 hardtop struck the rear of the panel truck.

A witness to the crash called police and when the first officer arrived a few minutes later, he arrested Merritt as he was driving off. Police said he didn't leave his name and address.

A passenger in the Merritt car, Douglas G. Shirey, 23, of 2408 Homedale, was unhurt.

Damage to both autos was listed as major.

Woman Draws Morals Charge

Donna Louise Robinson, 22, of Portland was arrested on Main Street Sunday by a city police officer and charged with prostitution.

The woman, who lists her occupation as "strip teaser," was held at city jail.

Thieves Steal Supply Of Food

Enough food for a king's feast was stolen from the Sportsman's Cafe Saturday morning by burglars who broke into the store-room.

Entry to the building, 629 South Sixth Street, was gained by breaking a lock off a rear door. The theft occurred between 2:30 and 8 a.m. Saturday.

Taken were two cases of oysters, two cases of tuna, a case of shrimp, a case of seafood sauce, three cases of steak sauce and, for dessert, two cases of peaches.

Also stolen from the storeroom was a fire. The value of all the items was placed at $84.15.

High-Speed Chase Ends In Foot Race And Arrest

A car being chased through Klamath Falls early Sunday morning at speeds up to 93 miles per hour ran two police roadblocks, hitting one patrol car, struck a telephone pole and wound up in a ditch near Kingsley Field after the driver bailed out.

The chase resumed on foot and the driver was nabbed in the yard of a Summers Lane home after attempting to enter the house.

He was identified as 21-year-old Charles Raymond Hodges of Medford. Hodges was booked for reckless driving and failure to heed red light and siren.

Police gave this account of the lengthy pursuit:

An officer on routine patrol spotted Hodges' 1959 sedan traveling south on Oregon Avenue at 45 miles per hour at 12:32 a.m.

The officer followed the car onto Upham Street and then onto Eleventh Street. At that point, the patrol car's red light and siren were turned on, but Hodges increased his speed. The officer radioed for aid and a roadblock was set up on Eleventh Street between Main and Pine streets.

The car ran a red light at Eleventh and Pine and squeezed by the roadblock.

It ran the red light at Eleventh and Main and a stop sign at

Trio Cited For Sodomy

Two Portland men and a Chiloquin man were arrested by police here Saturday on Portland warrants charging them with sodomy.

The trio was arrested after being spotted in a car on Main Street. Police said two of the men were wearing eye make-up and lipstick, and one also was wearing a woman's wig.

Booked at city jail en route to Portland were Freddy Allen Ferris, 20, of Portland, a police victim confined to a wheel chair; Ronald Lee Schiedler, 22, of Portland; and Leonard Moore, 23, of Chiloquin, owner and driver of the car.

Police had been looking for the three since being advised a week ago of the outstanding warrant. Bail on each man was set at $2,500.

Hunters Warned Of Closed Area

Archers intending to participate in the deer hunting season which opens Aug. 31 and continues through Sept. 22 are reminded that certain areas along the Green Springs Highway are closed to trespass due to extremely hazardous fire conditions. George Wardell, supervisor of the Klamath Forest Protective Association, said today.

The area affected by the closure extends from the Klamath River west to Jenny Creek and then from the California-Oregon boundary north to Buck Lake. Also off limits is the Aspen Lake and Oak Mountain regions, Wardell said.

The penalty for anyone trespassing on the KFPFA closures is a fine from $10 to $100, or not less than two days or more than 60 days in the county jail, or both.

Wardell urged hunters to be mindful of the forest fire danger when using matches and cigarettes.

Horse Injures Dorris Rancher

DORRIS—A 31-year-old rancher was injured Sunday evening when a horse he was riding fell on him. Oregon State was listed in "satisfactory" condition at Klamath Valley Hospital this morning.

Peace Ambulance reported that the accident occurred about 8 p.m. Sunday on Storey's ranch three miles west of here. The back injuries weren't considered serious.</
