It's Skill, Not Luck

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Several years ago one of my fellow oldtimers pointed out a young bridge player to me and said, "There is the luckiest kid I have ever seen."

It seems that West had cashed the ace and king of hearts and shifted to the nine of clubs. The kid had won with the king, played a spade to dummy's ace and then another spade. My friend, sitting East, had won the king (dropping his partner's queen) and cashed his jack. Then he led another club. The kid had won with the ace; led the queen of clubs, gone into a short huddle and ruffed with dummy's last trump.

This left him in dummy with nothing but six diamonds. He had led the ace of diamonds; dropped my friend's singleton king and made his two spade contract with an overtrick.

In "All Fifty-two Cards" the kid, who is Marshall Miles, explains the play.

He points out that West had passed originally with a long heart suit headed by the ace and king, plus the queen of spades. Many players would open the hand; all players would if it also included the king of diamonds.

In addition it appeared that West had 7-2-2-2 distribution. East was marked with the singleton king of diamonds and Marshall had decided to have a little fun and act like a dope who had ruffed his own winner by mistake and then been forced to drop a singleton king.

CHORD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:
East South West North
1 ♦ Double Pass 1 NT.
Pass
You, South, hold:
♠ A Q 8 7 ♥ A K 6 5 ♦ 3 ♣ 10 8 6 2
What do you do?
A—Pass. You don't have a five-card suit and your partner almost surely doesn't have four cards in either major.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding one no-trump your partner has bid two diamonds over your double. What do you do?

Inquest Set In Explosion

BUTTE, Mont. (UPI) — Silver Bow County Coroner Andy Aleksich said Tuesday he expected no further developments from a Saturday dynamite explosion here until Thursday morning when an inquest will get under way.

The number of victims of the blast has been left at one, a man tentatively identified late Monday as Emil Guay, 34, Butte. Aleksich based identification on a license plate and front hood of Guay's automobile. The pieces were found among the wreckage of four cars and fragments of at least one body found at the blast scene. The explosion involved 3,500 pounds of stolen dynamite at a slag dump on the outskirts of Butte.

Earlier, authorities said at least two others fled before the explosion that rocked the entire mining city. They did not discount the possibility four persons may have been killed.

Capitol Tower Closes Friday

SALEM, (UPI) — The Capitol tower will close Friday and will not reopen until Memorial Day next year, it was announced today by the secretary of state's office.

The Capitol building itself will be open to visitors all weekend, including Labor Day.
