

Norma Lyon Is Honored

Supreme Queen In Medford

Toasts were drunk in pink champagne to Norma Jean Lyon, recently returned from an extensive trip in Europe.

A sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Campbell of the Lakeview Highway, invited the guests on Aug. 17 to hear the interesting account of her travels.

During the evening she displayed numerous mementoes and colored slides of France, Germany, Italy, and Russia.

Honoring the order's supreme queen Mrs. Laurence (Dixie) Layman, Reno, Nev., Zoleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile will hold a ceremonial at Medford Masonic Temple at 1 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 2. A formal banquet for members and their escorts is planned that evening at 6:30 at North's Chuck Wagon.

Among the supreme temple officers accompanying Mrs. Layman on her visit will be Mrs. George Bryant, Coquille, a member of Zoleima Temple who is serving as supreme princess Zenobia. Mrs. Bryant will be toastmistress at the banquet.

This will be the fourth official visit made by the supreme queen, who was installed in June. She has visited temples at Sacramento, Calif., Honolulu, Hawaii, and San Francisco. She will be the guest of Nydia Temple, Portland, on Wednesday, Sept. 4.

During her stay in Medford, Mrs. Layman will also be honored at a no-host luncheon, to which all members of the order are invited, on Tuesday, Sept. 3, at 12:30 p.m., at Mon Desir, Central Point. She will be the guest of past queens of the temple on Tuesday evening at a picnic dinner in Litchia Park, Ashland, after which the group will attend the Shakespearean Festival. Mrs. Earl Newberry, president of the past queen's association, and Mrs. Raymond Reter are in charge.

REWARD FOR LABORS — Mrs. Mary Young, left, general chairman of the building and landscaping committee of the Alturas Garden Club, presented the Sears, Roebuck and Company award for civic improvement to Alturas Garden Club president Mrs. Dorothy Carstens. Looking on is Mrs. Francis Archer, club secretary-treasurer. The Alturas club has received this award for the second consecutive year.

Alturas Club Wins Award

ALTURAS — For the second consecutive year the Alturas Garden Club received the Sears, Roebuck and Company Award for Civic Improvement. Garden Club President Dorothy Carstens was presented a check for $152 by general chairman of the building and landscaping fund, Mrs. Mary Young.

The Alturas Garden Club, over the past few years, has been renovating the old NCO Railroad ticket office building into a club house. The stone building that was built in the early 1900s had been abandoned and left to become a community eye sore until the garden club took it over to renovate and make a historic landmark. Complete repainting and restoration of the inside rooms has been made as well as extensive landscaping which is being developed on a long-range program.

USE POWDER — After a bath or shower, use dusting powder generously to blot up excess moisture and to keep lingerie straps and elastic from chafing your skin.
