

Adult Situations Bad For Children

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Our son is 11 years old. He goes to dancing school where he is learning poise and ballroom dancing. Most of the boys and girls in his class are 10, 11 and 12 years old. Last night the class had a party at the home of one of the little girls. It was not a date affair. Each child was brought by a parent and was to be picked up by midnight.

Our son told us this morning that he had a terrible time because of a game called "Heaven Or Hell." The boy takes the girl who is "it" into a closet and for seven minutes he can either kiss her (Heaven) or hit her (Hell). Our son said he didn't want to hit a girl and he didn't want to kiss one either. According to him the girls liked the game but the boys didn't.

My husband is boiling mad over this and he wants to take our son out of the school. I have mixed emotions. Wouldn't it be a shame if he lacked poise and didn't know how to dance when dancing is so important to popularity these days? — BEVERLY HILLS MOTHER

Dear Beverly: Who gave your husband poise lessons? Mine, too — and they survived somehow, didn't they?

Take that kid of yours out of that silly dancing school and put him in a YMCA swimming class. An 11-year-old boy should be playing baseball, climbing trees and wrestling with other boys. He should not be "kissing or hitting" girls in closets.

Parents who push 10, 11 and 12-year-olds into adult situations force them to play-act. The best these poor kids can do is imitate what they imagine is adult behavior. Youngsters such as yours, who are cheated of precious childhood years, become burned out has-bens at 17.

Dear Ann Landers: Is it all right for the landlady to roam freely through our apartment, eating and smoking and sticking her nose into heaven knows what? I am one of six single girls who live in this very convenient building. The units we rent are not sumptuous but to us this is home. We don't own anything of value but the idea that someone can come in and snoop around is maddening.

The landlady will not permit us to change the locks on our doors because she says she must have access to our apartments in case of an emergency. Is there something we can do? None of us wants to move. — THE CLIFF DWELLERS

Dear Cliff: The landlady may indeed have the keys to your apartments but she has no right to use those keys except in a real emergency (fire, escaping gas, etc.). Many leases say so. If yours does not, perhaps it should.

In some states the landlady could be prosecuted for illegal entry if she invaded your apartments just to snoop around.

Dear Ann Landers: I went steady with Rollie for almost six months. Several weeks ago we sat down and had a long talk. We agreed the romance had cooled and that we had lost interest in each other. There were no harsh words — you might say the romance just died of natural causes.

Yesterday when I heard Rollie is dating a girl friend of mine I decided to give him his fraternity pin back. I looked high and low and can't find the pin anywhere. Do you feel I have an obligation to replace it? Or shall I wait until he asks and then tell him "Too bad, Friend, I lost the

Local Lodge Will Host VOA Meet

The executive board and the auditors of the District Lodge Pacific Northwest No. 13, Vasa Order of America, will hold the order's annual meeting in Klamath Falls Saturday, Aug. 31. Headquarters will be in the 100F Hall, Fifth and Main streets.

Klamath Lodge No. 460 VOA will be host lodge. Pete Hedberg is chairman. Ruth Axelson, district master, Kelso, Wash., will conduct the meeting. Representatives from throughout the entire district which embraces British Columbia, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, and members from the Grand Lodge in the Middle West and California will attend. The all-day session will include a 6 p.m. banquet at the Willard Hotel when Crater Lake Chapter Sweet Adelines Inc., directed by Betty Perkins, will sing. Other local talent will be on the program.

A regular meeting and initiation will follow the banquet at 8 p.m. A trip to Crater Lake National Park and a picnic dinner at the Hedberg summer home at Diamond Lake for all those attending and for local members are planned for Sunday, Sept. 1.

GETS BIRTHDAY CAKE

Merrill Schools List Schedules, Fees

MERRILL — Merrill elementary and high schools will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 4, with bus schedules continuing the same as in previous years.

Vote Results To Be Told

PORTLAND (UPI) — Officials of the International Woodworkers of America (IWA) and the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union (LSW) said Tuesday they expect to announce the results of a wage agreement vote by employees of Timber Operators Council plants late Wednesday afternoon.

The workers are voting on whether to accept or reject a three-year contract calling for a wage increase of 30 1/2 cents an hour.

Leaders of both unions have recommended acceptance of the pact, arrived at Aug. 15 after extended negotiations and some strikes against members of the 196-firm employer association. The struck plants have resumed operations, except for those workers who are on their annual vacations.

The IWA regional headquarters here is scheduled to begin counting ballots about noon, LSW officials will conduct a separate count at their offices.

FREEZER FACTS:

Freezer Foods are Nutritious Foods

Frozen foods are fresher than fresh. According to leading nutritionists . . . "Freezing preserves almost indefinitely the quality, taste and vitamin content of food." In other words, frozen foods are good for you and taste good, too!

Freezers can Mean Food-Cost Savings

Buy fruits, vegetables, meats in season, when they are fresh -- and cheapest. Eat them when they are out-of-season, hard-to-get, and dear. Buy foods in quantity -- at quantity prices. Freeze them. Use them as necessary.

Home Food Freezers Spell Convenience

A HOME FOOD FREEZER saves chasing back and forth to market. Saves embarrassment when unexpected guests arrive. Provides an easy solution to the old problem of what to do with all those fish (or all that game) that Dad brought home from his latest expedition into the wilds.

A MODERN HOME FOOD FREEZER PUTS A SUPERMARKET IN YOUR KITCHEN!
