Two Red Leaders Will Ask Commies To Draw Up Sides

PULA, Yugoslavia (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Tito intend to call a summit conference of Communist parties to stand up and be counted for either Moscow or Peking in the ideological dispute, veteran diplomatic observers said today.

The observers said the two Communist leaders have worked out a joint policy for battling a Red Chinese bid for leadership of the Communist camp.

During Khrushchev's current 15-day visit to Yugoslavia, the Soviet premier and Tito have reached an understanding for a new "collaboration" between their two countries. Both have been targets of bitter Chinese criticism.

The quarrel revolves on Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence based on the belief that communism will overcome capitalism without resort to a nuclear war that could destroy the world. The Peking regime insists on a more militant policy calling for armed rebellion to spread communism.

An announcement Tuesday night said Khrushchev and Tito had discussed the international Communist movement, with emphasis on "strengthening the unity" of the movement.

Communist China has split the movement with attacks on the Soviet Union and specifically on Khrushchev. Peking lumps Khrushchev and Tito as "running dogs of Western imperialism."

Khrushchev, currently on the ninth day of his visit, has gone out of his way several times in public to slap the Chinese.

There are about 80 Communist parties in the world. Most follow the Moscow line, and would be expected to appear at the projected summit conference, probably in Moscow.

POLLY'S POINTERS Luggage And Keys

POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY—When a family has several pieces of luggage, it is always a scramble to know which key opens which bag. We use different shades of nail polish to put a dot on the lock of a bag and a dot of the same color on the key which opens it. You will be saved a lot of time and patience trying all your keys in the different bags—MRS. F.E.U.

DEAR POLLY—Cupboard space is at a premium in the small house. Where we live since my husband retired, there are two small closets in the bedroom and I find the limited space works better since I put all the long clothes in one closet and half-length things like skirts, jackets, blouses and shirts in the other one. I had two shelves put under the half-length clothes to provide a place for bedding, linens and other things that require shelf space—R.H.

DEAR POLLY—One of the quickest and easiest ways I know to wash the ceiling and walls of a porch is to use the hose plus a long handled car washing brush. One can reach every crevice and edge—G.E.J.

Police Break Theft Ring

PORTLAND (UPI)—Portland police said today a widespread car theft ring has been broken up and four young men arrested here.

Held on grand larceny charges are Vernon Chester Waite, 24, of Sweet Home; Carl R. Mehlbrech, 18, of Gladstone; Francis Wayne Reining, Jr., 19, of Cornelius; and John Alfred Rothlisberger, 18, of Hillsboro.

Investigating officers said at least seven stolen car cases have been cleared in Portland. The late model cars reportedly were taken to brushy areas in Washington County and stripped.

Officers said that Reining, Rothlisberger and Waite were on bail from Washington County where additional car theft charges were pending against them.
