

Koufax Wins 20th, Beats SF Giants; Twins Murder Senators

Dodgers Finally Begin To Hit

By United Press International
Sandy Koufax, the majors' first 20-game winner, still was in a state of semi-shock today.

Not because of those 20 victories so much, but because of all those Dodgers players who kept crossing home plate Thursday night in an 11-1 romp over the Giants.

Koufax hadn't seen so many runs in more than two months. The Dodgers had scored a total of two for him in his previous two tries for his 20th victory.

But they did the job up brown before a record crowd of 54,978 at Chavez Ravine Thursday night, breaking out for five runs in the third inning to turn the contest into a "laughing" and increase their National League lead to 6½ games over the second-place Giants.

"With a big lead like that, I let them hit the ball," said Koufax.

Not too much, though.

Get Three Hits

The Giants were able to collect only three hits and that included Orlando Cepeda's 23rd homer which produced their only run in the second inning.

Koufax, whose record now is 20-5, struck out five and walked only one in becoming the first Dodger left-hander to win 20 since Preacher Roe did so in 1951.

Southpaw Billy Pierce, who replaced Giant starter Bob Bolin in the second inning, got the side out in that frame but was chased in the third when the Dodgers put together six hits, including a two-run homer by Frank Howard, for five runs.

The Dodgers then batted around again in the fifth when they added three more runs on four hits. Ron Fairly drove in four runs with three of the Dodgers' 15 hits while Willie Davis kept things going with two doubles and a single.

Giants Appear Goner
The setback just about cooked the Giants' chances even though Alvin Dark refused to look at it that way.

"The loss won't have any effect on our club," he said. "We'll be back tomorrow. Before this game, I said we'd have to win five of our last seven games with the Dodgers—now it's five of six."

Even should the Giants win the next three games of the current four-game series, however, they still would leave Los Angeles 3½ games out with less than a month to go.

Only two other games were played in the National League Thursday, with the Mets beating the Pirates, 7-4, and the Cubs defeating the Phillies, 2-1.

Major League Marks Broken During Twin-Bill Slaughter

By United Press International
They sounded the all-clear in Washington today.

That means it's okay for everyone to come out now because the Minnesota Twins finally have left.

Before departing, however, they did everything but level the nation's capital with a terrifying bombardment that broke two major league records and tied two others.

The Twins caused all that devastation by burying the Washington Senators, 14-2 and 10-1, Thursday in what was innocently advertised as an American League doubleheader.

Baby-faced Harmon Killebrew was the Twins' ring-leader with three home runs, raising his season total to 32, while rookie Jimmie Hall, Vic Power and Bernie Allen hit two apiece.

Bob Allison, Rich Rollins and Zorro Velasquez settled for one each as Minnesota collected 29 hits in the opener and 15 more in the finale.

The spectacular long-ball exhibition set major league records for most homers hit in four consecutive games (17) and for three straight (15).

For the statistically-minded, the eight homers by the Twins in the opener equaled a major league record for a single contest, and another mark was tied in the same game when six players on one team hit homers.

The 12 homers for a doubleheader tell one shy of the major league record of 13 established by the 1939 Yankees but they were more than enough to help Lee Stange to his eighth victory in the opener and rookie Dwight Siebler to his first major league win in the nightcap.

Stange gave up eight hits, including a homer by Uen Retzer, which was Washington's only extra-base hit of the day, and Siebler hurled a three-hitter.

Three Squads Bid For Berth
PORTLAND (UPI)—Two of the three teams bidding for the Northwest berth in the American Amateur Baseball Congress tournament collide Saturday night.

Gordon's Fireplace of Portland, runner-up in the Oregon tournament, will meet Washington champion Cheney Studs of Seattle. The winner meets Archer Blower of Portland in a best-of-three series beginning Sunday.

Archer is the state champion and defending national champion.

Pete Burnside, who relieved in both games for Washington, was tagged for three of the homers as was Ron Moeller. The losers, Don Rudolph and Jim Duckworth, each gave up two.

Washington manager Gil Hodges missed it all. He was home in Brooklyn with the virus. Ed Yost handled the club.

In other AL games, the White Sox beat the Indians, 7-2, the Red Sox nipped the Yankees, 4-3, and the Tigers won their eighth straight with a 6-1 decision over the Angels. The Orioles and Athletics were idle.

TEE TALK

There will be no regular scheduled play Friday for the women golfers of Reames Golf and Country Club because of the Labor Day weekend.

Qualifying for the club championship will continue throughout this week for the 18-hole players. For the 9-hole group, this will be changed to a handicap tournament subject to sufficient number of players qualifying.

All interested are reminded to turn in their qualifying scores at the pro shop.

The junior handicap tournament will start at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 29. All children of Reames members who have turned in five 9-hole scores are eligible to compete for the trophies.

A Sweepstakes Tournament will be held Monday, Labor Day, at the Reames Golf and Country Club for both men and women with a 50 cent entry fee.

The players begin at 1 p.m. There will be low net and low gross prizes, KP and long drive prizes. The KP is closest to the pin on a par three hole.

There will be a mixed two-ball tournament this Sunday.

The father-son tournament was held last Sunday with Lee and Richie Flink winning hands down with a fine three-under par 141.

Murdo and Reed Morrison were second at 145.

Alan Clark had a hole-in-one during this tourney. The 18-year-old dropped in his ace on the seventh hole, the first of his life.

He used a five iron. He was playing with his dad Maury and Stan and Bob Strickland. It is a 155-yard hole.

It was also announced that a buffet dinner will be available at the clubhouse.

Herald & News Tennis Tourney Begins Saturday

The 16th annual Herald and News Tennis Tournament gets under way Saturday morning early at Moore Park with over 150 entries listed for action, according to tournament director Earl Brooks.

The tournament, one of the biggest ever, gets under way at 8 a.m. and is slated to run through Monday when the finals will be held.

Brooks reports that some of the top tennis talent in the Northwest will be present for the tourney. He also said that Jimmy Jackson, men's singles champion two years ago and runner-up last season, will be back to take a crack at Bill Rose's title. Jackson also will defend his doubles title with Portland's Harry Doyle as a partner. They are the third ranked doubles team in the Northwest.

Local interest is high with Brooks, Ray Tice, Jerry Jennings, Beverly Jennings, Sue Jennings, Linda Brooks, Gertrude Brooks, Larry Tice, Harold Tice and Allan Clark turning in entries. Beverly Jennings has been winning quite a few tournaments this summer and could garner this one.

Denny Todd, recently released from the service and a former KU net star, will be back as well as Sev Garcia, a teacher at Merrill. There also have been some top entries from California and other parts of Oregon. Sherry Sevall, one of the top junior female netters in the state and a native of Roseburg, will be here. Ellis Williamson of Eureka, a runner-up here in past years, is back. Wayne Roberts of Redding will be back to defend his 16 and under boys title.

Another of the top netters will be Dick Blacksmith, the Oregon Collegiate Conference champion of Southern Oregon College and a Grants Pass resident. He is improving constantly and might give someone some trouble.

Mary Rose of Portland is supposed to be back to defend her women's singles title. Steve Miller of Crescent City, Calif., is another top junior entry. Redding is bringing a big contingent of junior netters. Michele Nance of Eureka, who won the Eureka and Redding titles, will be here to give Mrs. Rose tough competition.

Many more junior netters are expected with entries from here, Redding, Eugene, Albany, Salem, Fort Jones and Lakeview. The events slated are as follows: The men's singles, men's doubles, women's singles, mixed doubles, junior men's singles, boys' singles, junior men's doubles, and junior girls' singles.

Imwalle will have help from three lettermen ends. They are Rich Schwab, Paul Burleson and kicking specialist Buck Corey. Lowell Dean, Ray Johnson, Milt Kanebe and Ron Berg return at tackle, but the ranks get thinner at guard and center. Ron Stratten, out with an injury last year, is the only returning center and Ron Jones the only letterman guard.

Dave Wilcox, a second unit end last year, was moved to guard in spring practice to help out.

The Ducks open their season against Penn State Sept. 21 in Portland.

UO Gridders Begin Saturday

EUGENE (UPI)—Fall football practice at the University of Oregon begins Saturday with 19 lettermen heading a 63-man squad.

Coach Len Casanova is well supplied with backs, but only one starting linemen, end Dick Imwalle, returns from the team that won six games, lost three and tied one last fall.

The all-veteran backfield includes All-American Mel Renfro and Larry Hill at halfbacks, Bob Berry at quarterback and La Bain, moved over from halfback, at the fullback spot.

Quarterback Doug Post and halfbacks H. D. Murphy, Ron Martin and Monte Fitchett also won letters last year.
