

Mourning Dove Season Opening

Mourning dove hunting season in Oregon and California opens on Sunday, Sept. 1, and runs through Sept. 30.

Legal hunting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset. The bag limit is 10 doves per day in either of the two states. After the opening day, not more than 20 doves may be had in possession at any time.

In the state of Oregon, the season and shooting hours for band-tailed pigeons is the same as that for doves. Daily bag and possession limit is eight birds.

A migratory bird hunting stamp (duck stamp), is not necessary for the hunting of doves or pigeons, according to William Fuchs, enforcement agent for the U.S. Fish area. Hunters are asked to relay information on banded birds to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington 25, D.C.

Legal shooting hours during which mourning doves may be taken in Klamath County are listed below for the guidance of hunters in this area. Times are Pacific Standard Time.

Layne To Get Honors

By United Press International

They're going to roll out a barrel of sentiment in Detroit tonight to honor one of the most hard-nosed competitors the game of football has ever seen.

Bobby Layne, the tough Texan who ruled the huddles of the Detroit Lions and the Pittsburgh Steelers with an iron hand, will be honored during halftime festivities when these two clubs clash in a pre-season game.

One of the greatest quarterbacks in National Football League annals, Layne established NFL records for career passing yardage and touchdowns before he retired after the 1962 season. The highlight of "Bobby Layne Night" will be the official announcement of a scholarship fund in his name at the University of Texas, his alma mater.

The only other scheduled exhibition game tonight pits the San Francisco Forty Niners "walking wounded" against the Dallas Cowboys at Bakersfield, Calif. The Forty Niners may be hard pressed to find 11 men to man the 11 positions. The Cowboys have compiled a 1-2 slate to date.

In other NFL developments, middle linebacker Ray Nitschke of the Green Bay Packers brushed off criticism of New York's Sam Huff for his violent tackling of teammate Jim Taylor in last year's championship game as part of "his job." The Packers were preparing for a Labor Day rematch with the Giants, whom they have now beaten five consecutive times.

The Los Angeles Rams dropped defensive back John Griffin and acquired Nat Whitmyer, a castoff of the Cowboys, for the same position. The Chicago Bears will spend tonight in a Chicago hotel where they will be under an 11 p.m. curfew prior to Saturday night's meeting with the St. Louis Cardinals.

In American League camps, the San Diego Chargers disclosed that their outstanding end, Don Norton, will miss the entire 1963 season because of a ruptured disc suffered Tuesday. The New York Jets, in the role of hungry dogs waiting for something to drop off the table, snapped up tackle Charlie Janette, who was released Wednesday by the Kansas City reported that offensive stars Curtis Clinton, Abner Haynes and Stone Johnson had recovered from minor ailments and were ready for Saturday night's game with the Houston Oilers, a rematch of last season's championship encounter.

All-Oregon Final Slated

TUALATIN (UPI)—An all-Oregon final was set today in the Pacific Northwest Golf Association junior golf tournament at the Tualatin Golf and Country Club.

Steve Dunning of Warrenton, defeated Steve Cole of Seattle 2 and 1 while Scott Smith of Lake Oswego, ousted Jerry Jensen of Kirkland, Wash., 2 up in semi-final action Thursday.

QUARTERBACK CORNERED — Senior quarterback John Parisotto is cornered in the backfield while attempting to find a receiver for the pass he never got off. He was swarmed under by an unidentified defensive player during a scrimmage session Thursday. The Pelicans underwent two drills Thursday with a scrimmage session highlighting both.

Medo-Bels Host Weed Nine Sunday

The Klamath Falls Medo-Bels will take on the Weed semi-pro nine at Gem Stadium Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. for the President's Cup, a trophy which the Medo-Bels now hold.

The Medo-Bels won the President's Cup last season after finishing out of the money in the league competition. This year they won the Northern California League championship after losing their first two games.

Manager Hal Hatfield has only 10 ball players which include himself. He will open, of course, with those nine on the diamond. Bill Mansfield will be on the hill for the Medo-Bels. Ron Owings will be behind the plate, Dean Dunson at first, Blake Griggs at second, Dave Sigard at third, Sherrn Allen at shortstop, Don

Of those nine, the leading stick man is Owings at .405. Griggs has a .380 margin, Gresdel a .219, Bianchi a fine .354, Sigard a respectable .333, Taylor .264, Dunson .228, Mansfield .348 and Allen a .257 mark. Hatfield has two hits in four trips for a .500 mean. Hatfield lost Tony Sellari, the fine catcher, when he went back to Oklahoma to play football at the university. Others are on vacations and such.

The team is batting a neat .326 for the season. All the big hitters are back except Jim Keller, pitcher-infielder who has a .314 mark. Griggs will be ready for relief work should Mansfield need it.

Erv Lind Team Wins Again, 5-0

STRATFORD, Conn. (UPI)—The Erv Lind Florists of Portland made it three shutouts in a row Thursday night as they ousted Minneapolis from the Women's World Softball Tournament, 5-0.

The Florists faced a tough doubleheader today against Phoenix, the only team to beat the Portlanders so far, and Whittier, Calif. A loss in either game would eliminate the Portlanders.

Spokane Can Clinch PCL Title At Home Tonight With Beavers

By DAVE ROWE

UPI Sports Writer

The Spokane Indians could clinch their second Pacific Coast League championship at home tonight when they play host to Portland. The Indians are 11½ games in front of Hawaii in the Northern Division and have 12 games to play.

It's a far different story in the Southern Division where Oklahoma City's lead over Dallas-Ft. Worth is 24 games and three over San Diego.

Thursday night, Oklahoma City shut out Dallas-Ft. Worth, 9-0; Salt Lake City nipped Hawaii, 5-4, in 10 innings; San Diego bumped Spokane, 4-1; Tacoma beat Seattle, 6-2, and Portland edged Denver, 6-1.

Miles Mc Williams, called up from the Sally League, got his first PCL home run and it won the game for the Padres. The blow came in the sixth inning off Phil Ortega with two men aboard.

The winning pitcher was veteran Jim Owens, who took over for starter Ray Rippelmeyer. Rippelmeyer was forced to retire in the second after being hit on the pitching hand by a line drive off the bat of Dick Nen.

The victory gave San Diego a 9½ edge over Spokane for the season. Gene Wallace's pinch home run in the eighth was the only Spokane score.

The Salt Lake City game also was won by a home run when Billy Cowan blasted one off Hawaii's Tom Morgan in the 10th inning. The blow beat a 9-30 curfew set by both clubs before the start of the game.

Bob Perry paced the 13 hit Hawaii attack with a home run and John Kennedy had three singles. Bill Ott had a home run in the second and other runs were scored on key doubles by Bob Will and Cowan.

Freddie Burdette picked up the victory in relief while Morgan was the loser.

Oklahoma City clung to its slim lead in the Southern Division by scoring two in the first and seven in the second against Dallas-Ft. Worth. That ended the scoring for both clubs. Bob Boyd banged a homer in the first with one man on and Joe Wooten got one with none aboard in the second.

Dave Giusti went the distance for the 89ers, allowing only three hits.

Tacoma punched across five runs in the first inning and coasted to victory over Seattle. Ron Herbel ended an eight-game losing streak, pitching six-hit ball. He had home run help from John Glenn, Don Gile and Bill Hain.

Roy Emerson Unawed By Yankees

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—Roy Emerson of Australia sets out today to regain the U.S. tennis championship, completely unawed by the new American threat by Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif.

Emerson, 1961 champ and seeded second to Wimbledon winner McKinley this year, hopes to give Australia its eighth straight U.S. crown. About the American threat, he said with a twinkle in his eye:

"We'll just have to see about that. I'm playing as well as I ever did and I like the grass at Forest Hills. It suits me fine."

Emerson, finalist to grand slammer Rod Laver last September, was matched against Chauncey Steele III of Cambridge, Mass., in an easy first rounder marking the opening of the men's championship flight after two dreary days of qualifying matches.

Third-seeded Ralston, star of the U.S. Davis Cup victory over Mexico, fifth-seeded Ken Fletcher of Australia and sixth-seeded Bobby Wilson of England also were down for opening matches.

Ralston drew Walter Johnson of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., while Fletcher plays Premjit Lall of India and Wilson goes against a qualifier to be determined in a morning match.

A dandy first rounder pits two "top tenners" — Alan Fox of Los Angeles (4) and young Charley Pasarell (10) of Puerto Rico.
