

NEW OFFICERS — Betty Ann Chapman, seated, who has been elected president of Theta Rho Girls Club No. 40 of Merrill, held her first initiation Aug. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the IOOF Hall. Initiates, left to right, were Vickie Chapman, Elaine Smith and Caroline Lyman. They will be installed as heralds at the next meeting, Sept. 5.

TOASTMISTRESS ELECT — Beverly Ellis, left, is president of the Ewauna Toastmistress Club which meets at 7:30 p.m. each second and fourth Monday of the month at the Winema Hotel. Meetings begin in September. Second from the left is Mrs. Glenn Miller, secretary. Second from right is Rowena McDonald, club representative, and right, Mrs. C. W. Campbell, treasurer. Not shown is Helen Taw, vice president. The first meeting will be Sept. 9.

25th Anniversary Of Toastmistress

Toastmistress clubs all over the world are observing the 25th anniversary of their founding as an international organization. But even before that, Toastmistress clubs had wanted the opportunity to develop poise and self-confidence. So the program offered by the Toastmistress Club has evolved to meet a variety of needs.

Practice in making extemporaneous and prepared speeches helps the person who speaks to a large group as well as the person who leads a small group such as a Cub Scout den. Developing a larger vocabulary and use of correct grammar makes for a more interesting conversationalist. Learning to communicate more effectively is of value to everyone.

Acquiring a working knowledge of parliamentary procedure helps not only a presiding officer but also equips a person to effectively aid the processing of business at a meeting.

Personal grooming is of prime importance to women today, so Toastmistress education has extended to cover etiquette, grooming and protocol.

A Toastmistress Club is a practice field where a member receives constructive evaluation so that she knows what she needs to improve.

Ewauna Toastmistress Club is a youngster in the international organization—just five years old. But its members are as enthusiastic about the benefits of Toastmistress training as those of the first club. Members' occupations include homemaker, salesperson, doctor, teacher, an illustration that Toastmistress training can benefit women in all situations.

The public is invited to attend Ewauna's first meeting of the fall, Sept. 9, at 7:30 p.m. at the Winema Hotel.

Garden Club Organized

NEW PINE CREEK—A valley garden club was organized recently at the Grange Hall with 23 paid members. Sixteen were present.

Following organization the club will meet regularly on the second Wednesday of each month at the old cookhouse at Willow Ranch. Mrs. Clara Cloud has granted the use of its facilities for club activities.

Mrs. Floyd Clark was elected president and Mrs. Ramona Pochop, vice president. Other officers elected were Mrs. Dean Morrison, secretary, and Mrs. Clem Mulkey, treasurer. Charter membership has been extended until the next meeting on the afternoon of Sept. 11 when all interested women will be welcomed to join as charter members.

At this meeting the discussion topics will be "Fall Plantings" to be conducted by Mrs. Clara Cloud. "Holiday Suggestions" will be discussed by Mrs. Maxine Smith.

Amaranth Picnic

The Amaranth Court held its annual Southern Oregon Little Grand Picnic at Diamond Lake Sunday, Aug. 18, with Friendship Court No. 11 as host court.

Other courts represented by members and families were Medford, Newport, Salem, Bend, Eugene, Portland, Roseburg and Oregon City. There were 104 persons present, including Grand Royal Matron Laulette Norton and Grand Royal Patron Frank Guerin.

A potluck dinner was served in the old-fashioned way by Chairman Thelma Colvin assisted by Associate Patron Carl Colvin and Conductress Pearl Nason.

A number of prizes were presented during the afternoon.

Nile Club Meeting

Ruby Sheridan of Miller's Department Store will talk on new fall millinery for members of the Zuleima Nile Club at a 1 p.m. luncheon meeting at the Winema Hotel, Sept. 4.

She will illustrate her talk with new fall hats.

Black is still the grande dame of all the colors. Especially in shows. It adds depth to kids' n, brilliance to patent, an importance to matte finishes.

NEW BRIDE — Mrs. Thomas Joseph Baker, who exchanged wedding vows Aug. 24 in Alturas, is the former Carol Sue Taylor of Klamath Falls and later Alturas. The young couple will make their home in Daly City, Calif.

Taylor-Baker Vows Repeated In Alturas

ALTURAS — Carol Sue Taylor and close friends at the Paul Baker home. Chris Baker attended the guest book. Robie and Kathy McKim, nieces of the bride, and Eugenia and Tracy Baker, sister and brother of the bridegroom, passed the rice packets to the guests.

The bride and bridegroom left for Lake Tahoe for a short honeymoon before moving to their new home in Daly City.

Carol is a recent graduate of the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. She has taught school in Alturas during the summer school session and will teach in the Bay Area this fall. She graduated from Klamath Union High School in Klamath Falls.

Tom, who is finishing his last year at San Francisco State College, will attend Hastings Law School.

Her white satin wedding dress was made floor length. With it she wore seed pearl earrings and a single string of pearls. Her illusion veil fell to the shoulders from a pearl tiara.

Her flowers were white roses and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert McKim of Philadelphia, Penn., sister of the bride and her only attendant wore a polished pique sheath dress with draped bustle back in pale pink. She carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, John Baker. His brothers Tim and Steve ushered guests to their seats. A younger brother, Roy Paul, was altar boy.

Following the wedding there was a small reception for the family.

How you treat your hands every day adds up to how they look on nights out. Remember to use hand lotion or cream often. Keep your nails short enough so that they won't break or split when you are performing your household tasks. Clean each day with an orange stick — not metal file. File with an emery board to shape the tips and they will have less tendency to split. Apply cuticle cream every night and your nails will always be ready for a special glamour manœuvre.
