

FAMILY VISIT — Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ricono of North Riverside, Ill., a Chicago suburb, were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Glawe, 4717 Onyx Place, in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Ricono and Glawe are sister and brother. This was the first trip West for the Midwestwesterners since 1958. They were en route to Seattle on a vacation trip and had seen Yellowstone Park on the way to Klamath Falls. Ricono is a dispatcher for the Hot Point Electric Company. Seated, left to right, are Joann Glawe, Clarence Glawe and Alfred Ricono. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. Ricono, Mrs. Glawe with French poodle Gigi, and Steve Glawe.

MEMORABLE DAY — Four of the 19 grandchildren of Mrs. Frances Lavenik, seated, helped her celebrate her 105th birthday on Sept. 2. Left to right are Mrs. Audrey Molatore, Mrs. Ann Federhart, Michael Lavenik and Edward Javoroski. Mrs. Barbara Conlin and Mrs. Agnes Baldwin, this city, are also granddaughters. Mrs. Lavenik and her late husband, Frank, who died in 1948, came to Klamath Falls in 1904 from Poland. There were six children, now deceased, three who died in Poland, and Mrs. Mary Javoroski, Mattie A. Lavenik and Michael Patan Lavenik, this city.

Rhodes-Webb Rites In LDS Church Aug. 17

The best man was Jack Gann of this city. Jim Parker ushered.

The double ring service was read at 2 p.m. Aug. 17 in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by Bishop George Shaffer Jr.

The new Mrs. Rhodes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Abel of Route 1, Klamath Falls. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Frier of Bend.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Abel.

Mrs. Jahalla Shatter was the organist and Mrs. James E. Ramsey, soloist.

For her wedding, the bride wore a pink cotton lace dress, street length, fashioned with matching jacket, complemented by satin cuffs and buttons. She wore an arrangement of pink flowers in her hair, and carried pink gladioli encircled with fern, tied with loops and streamers of satin ribbon.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Maurice Meacham, of Klamath Falls, as matron of honor, wore a lavender brocade and carried lavender gladioli.

Peek-A-Boo Styles Designed By Galanos
NEW YORK (UPI) — Peek-a-boo gowns — touched off by an eye-catching triangular "widow" exposing the tummy — were displayed by designer James Galanos Monday in his fall and winter collection.
In addition to the expanse of bare midriff in clinging evening dresses, the collection featured low-cut fronts and exposed backs and shoulders.
The dresses to cheer girl watchers were made of cloque, wool and velvet.
