South Foils Clever Plot

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
In ordinary competition, East would win the club opening with the ace and lead back the queen. From that point, declarer would go about making his four-spade contract.

This was not ordinary competition and expert East played the jack of clubs at trick one. When it held, East was ready to perform a neat trick. He led his singleton diamond. His plan was to take his king of trumps at the first opportunity and put his partner in with the king of clubs whereupon a diamond ruff would send South to the showers. Unfortunately for East's well laid plan, Dick Walsh of Los Angeles who sat South, saw what East was up to and took steps to counteract his nasty plot.

Dick had to keep West out of the lead and he worked things out nicely. He won the diamond in dummy and took the heart finesse. Then he cashed his ace of hearts, returned to dummy with the ace of trumps and led the jack of hearts.

East played the king whereupon Dick discarded his remaining club. This play of discarding a loser on a loser left East in the lead with no means to get to his partner's hand. East led another club. Dick ruffed, gave East his king of trumps and raked up the rubber.

Q—The bidding has been:
East South West North
1 ♦ Double 2 ♦ Pass
Pass Double Pass Pass
Pass

You, South, hold:
♠ A Q 7 ♥ K 5 3 ♦ 10 8 6 2
What do you lead?

A—The three of diamonds. Declarer is going to play your partner for any missing high trumps and you want to start getting rid of dummy's trumps right away. Your high cards will keep.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding two diamonds West redoubles. North and East pass. What do you do?

Film Draws Mixed Views

LONDON (UPI)—London movie critics gave mixed reviews today to Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton in their latest film, "The V.I.P.s."

The Daily Herald's critic described Miss Taylor as "looking as plump as a Christmas fowl" and said her performance "bored me to monumental tears."

However, both the Express and the Daily Mail agreed that Miss Taylor gave "an 18-carat performance" and the Express called the film "superb entertainment."

Critics viewed the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film Tuesday. Miss Taylor plays the disenchanted wife of a high-living millionaire, played by Burton.

The movie shows 24 hours in the private lives of VIPs (very important persons) waiting in the lounge of fog-bound London Airport.

The Daily Herald described Burton as "a man who looks more like a ruffed bear than a businessman."

The Daily Mirror called it "a very indifferent picture" and said "never was so much talent found wandering in so much corn."
