

POLLY'S POINTERS

Lost-Found Cache

POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY—I keep a drawstring bag hanging on a hook in my coat closet. This is the family "lost and found" department. When one glove or one sock or a part of a game turns up the finder puts it in the bag. When the other half appears on the scene, its mate is easily located.—MRS. J. K.

DEAR POLLY—I hope my time-saver will be helpful to someone else as I always read the column first to see what is new in time-saving. Vacuum cleaning used to be a real chore in our ranch style home. I decided it was because of all the plugging in, unplugging, plugging of appliances and moving furniture to get at outlets as I moved from room to room. My husband bought me a 25-foot extension cord and now I plug it into one central outlet. My work is done in half the time, unbelievable as it sounds. I wind the cord so it uncoils from the top to prevent tangles, but a small reel could be used if one preferred.—C. L.

DEAR POLLY — My small youngster is such a squirmer I could never get his correct weight until one day I put the scale on my dresser in front of the mirror. He was so tickled looking at his own reflection he stood still long enough for me to get the correct weight.—MRS. J. G. J.

GIRLS—Hold Sonny with a firm grip.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY—It is often foolish to keep the children's boots until another winter as they are sure to outgrow them. I cut the tops off when spring arrives and make rubbers out of the bottoms. They are nice for early mornings when the dew is still on the grass or for playing outside just after a rain.—MRS. B. S. B.

DEAR POLLY—To keep my little boy's shirts tucked neatly inside his trousers, I sewed buttons on his shirts and corresponding elastic loops on the inside waist band of his pants. No more shirt tails hanging out and he always looks neat. This would probably work well with little girls' skirts and blouses, too.

As for my husband's hats which were usually stacked helter-skelter on the closet shelf, I took his hat boxes and stacked them upside down on the shelf. I cut open both side seams and the bottom of the front of each box. Now he can lift up the flap, slip a hat out and they are kept orderly and dust free.—M. S.

JFK Sets Visit

SPOKANE (UPI) — A visit to Grand Coulee Dam by President Kennedy on his western tour late this month has been confirmed, according to John McRae, Spokane County Democratic chairman.

McRae said Sept. 26 was listed as the tentative date for the visit.
