

Klamath Temple Scene Of Olsen-Page Nuptials

On Aug. 24 the Klamath Temple was beautifully decorated with pink gladioli and ferns for the marriage of Sue Ann Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Page, to Gary Paul Olsen of Kalspell, Mont. He is the son of the Rev. A. F. Olsen and Mrs. Olsen, Kalspell. The double ring ceremony was performed at 8 p.m. by the Rev. Elmer Kretzinger and the Rev. Lonnie Sehorn.

Mrs. Elvin Hess was the organist and Mrs. Melvin Page, Beaverton, sister-in-law of the bride, was the soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father.

Her gown was fashioned with fitted bodice of hand-clipped Chantilly lace with long bridal point sleeves and scalloped Sabrina neckline. The front of the bodice was reembroidered and accented with seed pearls. The very full skirt of pure silk was slightly pouled in front with fullness held by a lace motif. Edging the skirt were three tiers of lace which extended in back to a chapel train.

Her veil, borrowed from Rev. Kretzinger's daughter, Mrs. Barbara Umans of Des Moines, was fingertip illusion, held in place by a delicate tiara of pearls and sequins. A white orchid centered her Bridesmaids were Dona Cooper, this city, Joyce James, Sacramento, cousin of the bride, Janie Olsen, Kalspell, sister of the bridegroom, and Sue Witt, Klamath Falls.

Tammy Hoffman, the bride's cousin, was the flower girl. Her orchid dress matched that of the attendant.

Scotty Perkins, Livermore, Calif., was ring bearer.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Robert Olsen of Kalspell. Ushers were Jim Schaberg and Paul Schaberg, both of Salem, Larry Kempfer, Medford, and Melvin Page, Beaverton, brother of the bride.

The bride's cousins, Phillip Mahaney, Oakdale, Calif., and Danny Shelby, this city, were candle-lighters.

Mrs. Page chose for the occasion a beige lace over satin dress trimmed with chiffon. Her hat and accessories were champagne color. Mrs. Olsen wore a pale green brocade dress with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of orchids.

The reception after the ceremony was in the church annex. Background for the bride's table was an arch of wild huckleberry with capucine pink roses, white bells and ribbon streamers.

The three-tiered white cake had pink rose trim and was topped with a heart-shaped white satin pillow studded with pearls. It was served by the bride's aunt, Effie Caviness, Modesto, Calif., and Mrs. Noel Schaberg, Salem, aunt of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Violet Stafford served coffee and Mrs. Elmer Kretzinger, punch.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Olsen left for a honeymoon trip through Oregon, Washington and into Canada, she was wearing a sapphire blue double knit suit with matching accessories and the bridal orchid as a corsage.

Mrs. Olsen is a graduate of Henley High School. Her husband is employed by the state survey department and will attend Oregon Technical Institute. They will reside at 1108 Martin Street.

Schaberg, Mrs. Paul Schaberg, Mrs. Richard Rahmsen, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Harry King, all of Salem; Mrs. Ralph Smith, Willows, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clesler and Dick and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clesler, Portland.

Tofell-Scott Nuptials Solemnized In Roseburg

The wedding uniting in marriage Kathleen Mae Scott of Roseburg and James Emil Tofell, Malin, was performed in St. Joseph's Church, Roseburg, on Aug. 3. The Rev. Marion Corbin officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glen Scott, Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Tofell, pioneer family of the Malin area.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white silk organza fashioned with a princess embroidered bodice with scalloped neckline and cap sleeves. The floor length bouffant skirt flowed into a chapel train and was embroidered to match the bodice. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of pearls. Her bouquet of stephanotis and white rosebuds was arranged in a frame around her white prayer book, from which hung a pale blue crystal rosary made by the bride's maternal grandmother.

The double ring ceremony was performed in front of a background of white and pink gladioli and daisies in floor baskets, with the traditional candelabra in the background.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Joseph Scheffeld, Portland, a d bridesmaids, Mrs. Scott Kirk, Eugene, and Patti Sinner, cousin of the bride, Vancouver, Wash., wore rose-colored chapel veils and white organza dresses with bell skirts. They carried rose carnations and aurora borealis crystal rosaries made by the bride's maternal grandmother.

Tom Tofell, Malin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Len Dobry, Malin, and Robert Scott, Roseburg, were groomsmen. Ushers were Jack Kopacz, Lakeview, Ted Pauck, Ashland, and James Scott, Roseburg.

Barbara Martin, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Fabian, sang "Ave Maria" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Scott, mother of the bride, wore a coral pink silk sheath with white accessories. Her corsage was white gardenias. Mrs. Tofell wore a pale yellow silk crepe sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow and brown orchids.

A buffet luncheon was served in the garden of the Scott home to the wedding guests immediately following the ceremony. The dinner prepared by Mrs. Scott was served by Mr. and Mrs. H. Fenwick of Roseburg. A lace covered table centered by a white and pink wedding cake with the bridegroom's cakes on each side was decorated with pink rosebuds.

Assisting in serving and pouring were Mrs. B. F. Dodge, Eugene, Mrs. R. W. Sinner, Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. W. D. Harper, Mrs. Alton Andrews, Mrs. Rae Brittle, Mrs. F. C. Riley and Mrs. Brit Weaver, all of Roseburg.

When matched to wall color, an even greater illusion of space can be achieved. If your problem is a big living area, make a conversation corner with an area rug. Area rugs can define and set aside one living area from another in the same room. Just be sure the rug is large enough so that at least part of the furniture sits on the rug, so your group looks cozy and inviting rather than skimpy.

At Adair's we can help you select the carpeting that will give your room an entire new look. With today's choice of deep dyed colors, and the big choice of miracle fibers and blends, you no longer have to choose an ordinary dull color "so it won't show the dirt."

Beauty Tips FROM ME to YOU MARY MARTIN

Here are a few hints for the women who like to wear their hair straight. First, and most important your hair must be properly shaped to fit your features—this can only be achieved by an expert, and after having it cut properly remember regular trims are a must. A light permanent might be necessary to give body to your straight hair particularly if it is the "fly-away" kind. Constant brushing, frequent shampooing and conditioners are important to add luster. For beautiful straight hair must be healthy hair.

Julienne Thompson and Jan Riley were in charge of gifts and Marc Roberts and Tom Hill, pupils of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book and assisted in serving.

Leaving for a wedding trip to Carmel, Lake Tahoe, San Francisco, Reno and Los Angeles, the bride wore a pale pink and white linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple is now at home in the Oak Hill Apartments, 1237 Main Street, Roseburg. Both are teachers in the Roseburg city school system.

The bride is a graduate of Roseburg High School and attended Mt. Angel College and University of Portland. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Malin High School and Southern Oregon College, where he was a member of Theta Delta Phi men's national honorary scholastic fraternity and served as publicity chairman for Southern Oregon his senior year.

TIP FOR SHORTIES
If you're short and don't have a slim waistline, beware of wide belts. They may look chic on others, but they will saw you in half and create a dumpy effect.

Carpeting is one of the most important parts of your decorating scheme. For a small room, carpeting, wall to wall, can give the impression of space.

When matched to wall color, an even greater illusion of space can be achieved. If your problem is a big living area, make a conversation corner with an area rug. Area rugs can define and set aside one living area from another in the same room.
