

Toastmistress Meet Slated

"Golden Harvest" will be the theme for the meeting of Ewauna Toastmistress Club to be held at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Sept. 9, at the Winema Hotel.

New officers will be installed by Margaret Davies.

Invocation and pledge will be given by Becky Campbell. Lexicologist, Lois Jacob, will present the word study for the evening.

An exercise in impromptu speaking will be conducted by the topicmistress, Lillian Hill. Norma Goldsby will serve as timer.

Toastmistress Florence Wilson will introduce the program: A speech by Rowena McDonald, induction of a new member, Barbara Smith, a "harvest" of ideas gleaned from the international convention.

Sorting the harvest of the meeting will be the general evaluator, Margaret Gregory.

The public is invited to attend Ewauna's first meeting of the Friends Bid To Reception

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold J. Sacher are invited to an open house on Sunday, Sept. 15, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. The party will be at the Sacher home, 2507 Nile Street, between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

Assisting with the plans are the couple's sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Holden Sacher and Mr. and Mrs. Deane Sacher.

BOSSES SCORE
NEW YORK (UPI)—In a poll by a watch company (Bulova), secretaries said 42 per cent of the men for whom they work generally are away from their desks only an hour or less at midday. Some 26 per cent said an hour and 15 minutes usually is the lunch hour length.

Schulze-Hafar Vows Recited

Barbara Arnold Hafar became the bride of Jack R. Schulze in a double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Robert C. Groves on July 28 at the First Presbyterian Church. Tessa Green was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Estelle Arnold and Leslie S. Arnold and was given in marriage by her father.

For the afternoon ceremony, she chose a delft blue silk street length sheath with tunic skirt accented with a quilted pattern. The dress was fashioned with elbow length sleeves and scoop neckline. A brief veil, white gloves and blue slippers completed her ensemble. For the wedding bouquet, white stephanotis was arranged over a white Bible.

Preceding the bride to the altar, which was decorated with white gladioli, tinged with blue and tied with blue ribbon, was her sister, Mrs. Chris Lampropoulos, who served as matron of honor.

Her sheath frock was of apricot organza over taffeta fashioned with Sabrina neckline and elbow sleeves. With it she wore beige accessories, white gloves and hat of beige flowers and veil. Her flowers were tangerine and apricot shades of carnations.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Schulze, this city. His best man was his brother, Greg Schulze of Hayward, Calif. Ushers were Lynn Arnold and Chris Lampropoulos.

Mrs. Arnold was dressed in a beige silk sheath with matching accessories and Mrs. Schulze chose a champagne lace jacket dress. Both mothers wore corsages of pink roses.

After the ceremony, guests assembled in the Fireside Room of the church to greet the newlyweds. The three-tiered cake was accented with blue trim to match the tapers in flanking silver candleholders.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. Carol Arnold, Mrs. Evelyn McKay, Cleo Lampropoulos and Mrs. Marge Seutter.

Following a honeymoon in Canada, the new Mr. and Mrs. Schulze have returned to Klamath Falls to make their home. For traveling, Mrs. Schulze wore a royal blue three-piece suit with black patent accessories and her bridal bouquet as a corsage.
