Nicklaus Hits Par In Series Victory

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus did it again. It was, he said, "my five iron on the 13th hole which did the job" — the job being the $50,000 first place money in the World Series of Golf.

It was the second year in a row that burly Jack came up with the biggest golf purse of the year.

He shot a final round 35-35-70 Sunday, matching par for the 7,165-yard Firestone Country Club course. That gave him a total of 140 — even par — for the two rounds.

It was one stroke better than Julius Boros wound up with. He had a final round 37-32-69, but his late charge left him one shot behind Nicklaus with a total of 141.

"It seems like I'm always a furlong behind," said Boros, who at 43 is having the greatest year of his golfing career. "But if I have to lose, like I did yesterday, it is a pleasure to lose to 'Ohio Fats'."

"Ohio Fats" is the way most of his fellow golfers refer to Nicklaus.

Palmer Is Third

On the key 13th, a par-four 460-yarder, Palmer drove into the trees, hit another tree on his second shot and wound up with a double bogey six.

Nicklaus hit his five-iron second shot — the big one — 12 feet from the cup and sank the putt.

Although Boros finished second, he had not been in contention at that point. He got back into the running by sinking a 22-foot birdie putt on the 17th.

The magic number separating the New York Yankees from their 29th American League championship is down to four today.

All the Yankees need to nail down their fourth straight pennant and their 13th in 15 years is to win four of their remaining 18 games. The clincher should come this week. The Yankees open a four-game series in Kansas City tonight and then play four weekend games in Minnesota.

The only clubs that still have a mathematical chance of catching New York are the Chicago White Sox and Minnesota Twins. But any combination of four Yankee victories and four losses by Chicago and Minnesota would seal the title.

Al Downing, who wasn't even in the majors at the start of the season, helped the Yankees along to their inevitable destiny when he pitched them to a 5-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers Sunday. It was the fifth straight success for the Yankees and boosted their league lead to 1 1/2 games over the White Sox.

Perhaps even more important, the game involved a matter of principle for the world champions since it gave them the season series over the troublesome Tigers, 10 games to 8, and practically assured them a similar edge over all league rivals.

After the game, manager Ralph Houk explained: "It helps the morale of your club to win over every other team. We wanted to beat them all."

The Sox reclaimed second place from Minnesota by sweeping a doubleheader from the Twins, 5-2 and 5-4, and in other contests the Cleveland Indians beat the Washington Senators, 6-2, the Boston Red Sox topped the Baltimore Orioles, 6-3, and the Kansas City Athletics nipped the Los Angeles Angels, 2-1.

How wacky can that National League pennant race get?

Eight St. Louis pitchers gave up 24 hits in a pair of weekend games against the Pittsburgh Pirates, yet the Cardinals managed to win 'em both and pull within 3 1/2 games of the scrambling Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers, meanwhile, suffered two straight losses to San Francisco and manager Al Dark of the Giants chirped, "We're not out of this yet," although the defending champs are 8 1/2 games back with only 18 to play.

Keane, though, couldn't have been too happy with his pitching staff when the Cardinals pulled out of Pittsburgh Sunday night. He watched the Pirates clobber five of his hurlers for 13 hits Saturday but the Cardinals still managed to pull out a 6-5 victory.

Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves became a 20-game winner for the 13th season by beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2; the New York Mets edged the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, and the Houston Colts nipped the Chicago Cubs,

Don Drysdale suffered his 16th defeat, 5-3, Saturday and relief ace Ron Perranoski was clipped to a 5-4 victory Sunday.

Asked how he would have felt about them had he lost, Nicklaus smiled: "They're pretty good guys. 'I say that not because I won $50,000 but because I mean it. I was a little upset Saturday, well, Sunday was another day.'"

Palmer, who will be 34 on Tuesday, refused to blame an aching right shoulder for his finish. "I just didn't play well enough," he said.
