

Cardinals Still Coming; Dodgers Holding Strong

By United Press International
The Cardinals keep coming and the Dodgers keep going on the rather risky theory that lightning can't possibly strike the same race twice.

Don't bet on it!
First of all this isn't quite the same race the Dodgers lost last year although the growing similarity certainly hasn't escaped their attention.

The Cardinals, who made it 13 out of their last 14 with a workmanlike 8-0 win over the Cubs Tuesday night, keep applying the pressure but this time the Dodgers aren't buckling.

They also won Tuesday night, beating the Pirates, 4-2, on a record performance by Sandy Koufax, and their three-game lead looks far more comforting than the 1 1/2 game margin they held a year ago today.

Grandpa Stan Musial and pitcher Bob Gibson were the Cardinal pace-makers, driving in three runs apiece while Gibson also hurled a six-hitter for his 17th triumph.

Plays Four Innings
The 42-year-old Musial, who became a grandfather for the first time earlier in the day, played only four innings but drove in two runs with a first-inning home-off loser Glen Hobbie and another with a single in the second. Musial's homer was his 11th of the season and 474th of his career while Gibson's three-run homer in the second-inning was his third of the year.

Shortstop Dick Groat returned to the St. Louis lineup after missing five games and contributed a single and a double to up his National League leading average to .330.

Koufax erased his own NL strikeout record in fanning nine Pittsburgh batters en route to his 23rd victory in 28 decisions.

The classy Dodger southpaw, who set the old mark of 269 strikeouts in 1961, now has 276, and his 23 wins in one season also constitutes an all-time record for all Dodger left-handers.

Nap Rucker and Preacher Roe shared the previous mark of 22 victories in a single season.

Allows Six Hits
Koufax allowed six hits, including Roberto Clemente's 16th homer in the eighth inning, but by that time the Dodgers already scored all four of their runs off loser Don Cardwell. They went ahead on three singles in the first inning, picked up another in the sixth on an error by third baseman Bob Bailey and Wally Moon clinched the outcome with a two-run homer in the seventh.

Cincinnati shaded Milwaukee, 4-3. New York beat San Francisco, 4-2, and Philadelphia defeated Houston, 6-0, in other NL contests.

Pel Boosters Meet Tonight

The Pelican Booster Club will meet tonight at the Chuck Waggon Restaurant, beginning at 6:30.

Club president Bob Moore said Tuesday that there would be a film of last Saturday night's Red and White game. The Reds won that game, 21-14.

Coach Bob Williams and his staff will be on hand to give firsthand reports on the progress of the team, tell something about Grants Pass and what they expect to do Friday night.

Coaches of the frosh and jayvee squads are also expected to give their first reports of the season.

Kendall Fights Carter Sept. 28

PORTLAND (UPI) — Portland's Andy Kendall and Sylvester Carter of Seattle will meet in a 10-round light heavyweight fight at La Grande Sept. 28, matchmaker Pearl Sherman announced here Tuesday night.

Kendall has posted an 8-1 record as a professional boxer.

Stuart, Killebrew Fighting For Homer Hitting Crown

By TIM MORIARTY
UPI Sports Writer

The race for the American League's home run hitting crown could wind up in a three-man photo finish.

Dick Stuart of the Boston Red Sox and those Twin terrors from Minnesota, Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison, are taking turns battling for the lead down the homestretch.

Stuart broke out of his first-place tie with Killebrew when he hit No. 38 Tuesday night off Bo Belinsky, who marked his return to the majors by blowing a four-run lead to the Red Sox, but the Los Angeles Angels went on to score a 6-5 victory in 10 innings.

Allison, meanwhile, socked a pair of homers in Minnesota's 5-4 triumph over the Cleveland Indians to raise his season total to 35. He's the fellow Stuart may have to keep his eyes on in the stretch rather than Killebrew, who has drawn blanks in the Twins' last five games.

Rally In Ninth
Belinsky, back with the Angels after a two-month hitch in Honolulu, was coasting along with a 5-1 lead when the Red Sox chased him during a four-run rally in the ninth inning that tied the score.

The Angels, though, bounced back to win in the 10th against Boston relief ace Dick Radatz on clutch singles by Billy Moran and Lee Thomas.

Both of Allison's blasts against the Indians came with a man aboard and helped the Twins wipe out a 4-0 deficit. His first of the game came during a three-run rally in the fourth inning and he put Minnesota ahead to stay with No. 35 in the next frame.

Gerry Arrigo, a recently recalled farmhand, pitched the final five innings to pick up his first major league victory for the Twins, who moved into second place ahead of the Chicago White Sox.

Orioles Beat Chicago
The Baltimore Orioles edged the White Sox, 2-1, the Kansas City Athletics again delayed the New York Yankees' march toward their fourth straight pennant by blanking the champs, 2-0, and the Detroit Tigers whipped the Washington Senators, 4-1, after dropping the opener of their doubleheader, 9-8.
