

Mickey Wright Garners Eugene Fem Golf Lead

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI) — Confident Mickey Wright went into the second round of the Eugene Women's Open golf tournament today with a two-stroke lead and high hopes of becoming one of the two winningest women golfers of all time.

"Even-par here would be pretty good golf," Miss Wright offered after she fired a three-under 71 in the first round Thursday.

It would be an understatement to call her opening round shot amid heavy rain showers "pretty good" golf. She birdied five of the six par 5 holes on the Eugene Country Club course and picked up a sixth birdie by sinking a 30-foot putt on the par 3 17th hole.

Her round also included three bogies, two of them caused by shots into traps on par 3 holes. Another resulted from a second shot hit over the green on the ninth hole.

"About 288 should win it," Miss Wright commented before the tournament started. If she plays par golf the rest of the way she would finish at 283, and therein lay the secret of her confidence.

A victory here would be her 11th of the year, an all-time record for a woman golfer. It also would give her 50 career victories, tying the Ladies Professional Golf Association record held by Betsy Rawls.

Tied at second after the first round were Peggy Wilson of Austin, Tex., and Kathy Whitworth of Jal, N.M., who won the Spokane Open last weekend. Each shot a 73.

Bunched at even par 74 were Marlene Bauer Hagge, Marilyn Smith and Norma Shook.

Defending champion Shirley Englehorn, out of a hospital less than a week after an attack of nerves, was two over par on the front nine and one over on the back nine for a 77.

The low amateur was national collegiate women's champion Claudia Lindor of Ancortes, Wash., with a 41-37-78.

Sacred Heart Academy Starts Against Antler 11

The Sacred Heart Academy Trojans, with a new coach, more experience and hope of a better season than last year, open the season tonight at Gem Stadium at 8 p.m. against the very rugged Bonanza Antlers.

The Trojans were fortunate in gaining a top-notch football player right off the Oregon State University campus when they got Ross Cariaga who played first string guard there last season with Baker and Co.

Cariaga seems to have instilled a new spirit and winning attitude into the Trojans who were terribly overmatched last season and failed to win a game. Cariaga hopes to change all that this season and has a good start.

"I feel we are in a lot better condition than last year. The attitude is great and the kids are great. We are lacking in size, not big at all and have some average speed," the mentor explained. He also explained that the Trojans would be running off a Wing-T with a split end. He has as an assistant Joe Tacchini. Don Storey also has been helping as has Kingsley Air Base man, Mike Pickett.

"Davis is a good quarterback," Cariaga said. "He is poised and handles himself well. He probably is the best back we have. Charles Glidden is probably the best lineman and he is only a sophomore. We average about 150 pounds in the line. We realize we are in a tough league and I've been hearing some things about how tough it is. I understand that Phoenix is the team to beat. We figure we might win a few and lose a few," he continued.

He has 14 lettermen back to build with and only four of them are seniors. The seniors are Chuck Milani, Davis, Rick Van Camp and Wilford Brazil. The junior lettermen are Joe Durrell, Gary Hedlund, Lloyd Ross, Bob Benson, Ernie Hunt, Mike McNary, Jerry Britton, Dick Louie, Jim Karsen and Glidden.

His starting lineup tonight figures to be Durrell at center, Glidden and a transfer, Rick Redmond, at guards, Hedlund and Britton at tackles, an Hunt and Milani at ends. Davis will quarterback and have Karsen at halfback, Ross at fullback and McNary at wing back.

The Trojans will be hard pressed to win the first game of the year against Bonanza. The Antlers are the second choice in the Klamath County League and have a set of hard running backs in Rod Pfeiffer, Neil Tofell and quarterback Ernie Nichols who also throws well.

Cariaga, who feels the Trojans will be much better than last year, said that he understands that the Rogue League is a very tough conference and maybe out of the Trojans' class, at least for another year. But he feels his group may surprise someone this year.

Oregon High Schools Begin Play Tonight Around State

By United Press International Oregon's high school football season begins tonight with 64 games in the class A-1 and A-2 ranked. Another 12 contests are scheduled Saturday.

Defending state champion Medford, given a good chance of repeating if it can get by Grants Pass and Klamath Falls in its own league, opens at home against Corvallis in a non-conference game. The other two pre-season favorites collide in a non-league game at Klamath Falls.

Freshmen To Battle In Meet

Al Keck, freshman football coach, has announced that the freshman football team will have a Red-White game Saturday night at Modoc Field, beginning at 7 o'clock.
