Two Exchange Nuptial Vows

Sherrill Heeren, Milford, Ill., and David W. Grimes, Klamath Falls, exchanged wedding vows and wedding rings in an Aug. 25 ceremony in St. John's Lutheran Church, Schwer, Ill. Pastor Willis Varian officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Heeren, Milford, Mr. and Mrs. William Grimes, this city, are parents of the bridegroom.

Harry Heeren escorted his daughter to the altar which was decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums and Oregon huckleberry entwined on candleabra.

Karen Heeren played traditional wedding marches at the organ. She played "The Lord's Prayer" during silent prayer and before the bride and groom recited the Twenty Third Psalm. Mrs. Eric Nehls, soloist, sang "Love Shall Abide" and "Take my Life and Let It Be."

The empire style floor length bridal gown of white brocade featured a sculptured neckline accented with applique beaded roses, and a chapel train. An illusion veil was held in place by a Swedish crown of pearls and crystals. The bridal bouquet of white sweethearts, lily of the valley and ivy was centered with a gold Christ-ogram.

Juline Duis, Rochester, Minn., cousin of the bride, maid of honor, wore a floor length dress of magenta tulle with matching satin slippers. A gold and pearl tiara, white gloves and bouquet of white gladioli completed her attire. Dressed the same was the bridesmaid, Ruthanne Bohlmann, Milford, and the sister of the bride, Bernice Heeren, who lighted the candles.

Theresa Van Hoveln, cousin of the bride, flower girl, was dressed in a long white brocade dress fashioned after the bride's gown. Her headband was of white gladioli and she carried a basket of the same blossoms.

Wendell Heeren, the bride's brother, was ring bearer.

Daniel Grimes, Klamath Falls, was best man for his brother. Richard Heeren, the bride's brother, was groomsmen and another brother, John Heeren, was a candlelighter. Ushers were cousins of the bride, Harold Heeren, Crescent City, Ill., and Kenneth Lehmann, Milford.

The wedding reception was held in Bryce-Ash Auditorium. Assisting were Mrs. Richard Garman, Mrs. Robert Reiches, Glenda Neilson, Mrs. Bill Ringle, Ruth Ann Varian and Linda Van Hoveln. A cousin of the bride, Mrs. Gordon Ewerks, attended the guest book.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Grimes' honeymoon was a trip to the Northwest and their new home in Portland. For traveling Mrs. Grimes changed to a pink wool suit worn with rose hat, gold and pearl accessories. She is a graduate of Milford Township High School and Multnomah School of the Bible which her husband attends. He is a graduate of Klamath Union High School.

WEDDING TOAST — Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray Wilson drink a toast to their future married life. They exchanged wedding vows Aug. 25 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert P. Hoppe. She is the former Judith Anne Hoppe.

Judith Hoppe August Bride

In a pretty ceremony Aug. 25 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert P. Hoppe, Judith Ann Hoppe became the bride of Charles Ray Wilson of Weed.

Beauty baskets of yellow gladioli and tangerine carnations flanked a white satin covered kneeling bench where the couple repeated their marriage vows before the Rev. Laing Sibbet of Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The Aug. 25 date was also the 54th wedding anniversary of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoffman, Haines City, Fla. It was Mrs. Hoffman's white silk heirloom handkerchief which the bride carried for "something old."

The bride's ballerina length gown was fashioned with Chantilly lace bodice and bell-shaped skirt of tulle. The white velvet sash was finished with a bow in back. A shoulder length imported silk illusion veil was attached to a white velvet pillbox hat. She carried a cascade of white carnations with center corsage of Tropicana roses and mint color makeup.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For the ceremony, Mrs. Hoppe chose a dress of blue silk jersey. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

Patty Bratton, maid of honor, wore a short skirt of mint green tulle with darker green velvet sash. She carried a single long stemmed Tropicana rose with mint green streamers. Her frock and matching headress and the bridal hat and veil were made by the bride.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wilson of Weed were present for the marriage of their son. Mrs. Wilson was attired in a beige silk suit which was complemented by a salmon yellow gladioli corsage. At the reception, a three-tiered column-type cake was served by Helen Wilson, Sacramento, sister of the bridegroom. Topped with white satin bells, decor of the cake carried out the bridal color theme with salmon shaded flowers around the base, and matching tapers in silver holders.

Another sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Leonard Gately, this city, poured coffee. Mrs. C. O. Borsting assisted.

The young couple left later for a honeymoon to Sacramento and the Bay Area. The new Mrs. Wilson's going away outfit was a beige raw silk dress with beige accessories and the corsage from her bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are at home at the Angel Apartments in Mount Shasta. He is employed by McCloud Lumber Company.

Guests included Mrs. Ted Hyde, Mrs. Dave Campbell, Mrs. Jack Dillavou, Mrs. Larry Svendsgaard,
