Sherry Lynn Hodges Weds Edwin Parnell

In a pretty double ring ceremony Aug. 16 in Merrill, Sherry Lynn Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Hodges, became the bride of Edwin Louis Parnell. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Hodges. Both families are well-known Merrill residents.

The Merrill Presbyterian Church was decorated for the 7 p.m. service with white gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums and an arch of tall white tapers.

The Rev. Lloyd Henderson officiated.

Janet Chin was the organist.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She chose for her marriage a gown of Chantilly lace and imported silk organza. The long tapered sleeves and fitted bodice was sculptured with seed pearls and iridescent sequins at the scalloped neckline. The bouffant organza skirt was enhanced with a tucked panel and appliqued Chantilly lace in a garland motif. The skirt festooned to the back into a butterfly bow and chapel length train. The tulle fingertip length veil was held in place by a clip-on pearl leaf spray, worn low on her brow. Her bouquet was a cascade of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Cinda Lou Robison, Macdoel, was maid of honor. Her frock was lime green organza over lemon yellow taffeta, fashioned with a bell skirt and scoop neck. Her lime green brief veil was held by a matching romance rose. She carried a colonial style bouquet of white and yellow daisies.

Larry Chance, Merrill, was best man. Guests were seated by Willard Felt, Madras, and Darwin Carol, Tulake.

Mrs. Hodges chose for her daughter's wedding a yellow and white embroidered sheath dress with which she wore white accessories and corsage of tangerine carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a moss green sheath with bone accessories and pink carnation corsage.

After the ceremony, the newlyweds received congratulations from their guests at a reception in the church parlors which were decorated in keeping with the color theme of the wedding.

A white four tier colonnade cake was served by Suzanne Kandra and Beverly Walker. Lois Hobson and Betty Ann Chapman presided at the coffee and punch services. Carol Parnell attended the guest book and Carol Ann Merrilees received gifts. Mrs. Robert Merrilees assisted with corsages for the wedding party.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast, the new Mr. and Mrs. Parnell are at home in Tulake where he is employed at Glass Mountain.

Portland Girl Bride Of Raymond Andrieu

On Aug. 17 at St. Agatha's Catholic Church in Portland, Raymond Harold Andrieu of Midland took as his bride, Eileen Marie Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Robinson, Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Leon R. Andrieu, Midland, are parents of the bridegroom.

The nuptial mass was performed at 12 noon by the Rev. Urban Keher. Background for the exchange of vows were bouquets of pink and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk brocade brought from Japan by her father. It was styled as a long sleeved, floor length sheath with detachable chapel train. The shoulder length illusion veil was held by a lace cap embroidered with pearls and sequins and a drop pearl at the center. Pink rosebuds, gardenias and ivy were combined in a cascade for her bouquet.

Her only jewelry was an heirloom cameo brooch which had belonged to her great-grandmother.

Kathleen Robinson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her frock was a long sleeved sheath of powder blue with matching slippers and veiled hat with Dior rose. She carried gardenias with blue bows and streamers.

Powder pink were the ensembles of the bridesmaids, Ruth Andrieu, Midland, sister of the bridegroom, Margaret Robinson, Sandy, cousin of the bride, and Kathleen Stone, Portland.

Flower girls were Cecelia Andrieu, Midland, sister of the bridegroom, and Lynn Hoffnagle. David Andrieu, Midland, was a best man for his brother. Ushers were Roy Corley, Pilot Rock, Gene Erhardt, Portland, and Bud Maupin, Merrill.

Following the church service a reception was held at the Anchorage Restaurant. Greeting approximately 150 guests with the newlyweds were their mothers. Mrs. Andrieu wore for the occasion a teal blue brocade sheath with matching hat and black patent accessories. Mrs. Robinson chose a light blue cotton brocade sheath trimmed with applique flowers and sequins, matching sweater and accessories. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages.
